Commission Comes to Aid of Shipper

Lincoln, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—The state officers will be closed Monday on account of the New Year holiday, but as usual some of the officials will be around to open their mail and take a look around the state house just from force of habit.

Johannsen Confers With Labor Leaders

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 1.—It was reported late this afternoon that Anton Johannsen, one of the labor leaders indicted here yesterday by the federal grand jury, had left for San Francisco to hold a conference with labor leaders there.

Warship Fitted in Revolt in Paraguay

ANTWERP, Jan. 1.—The crew of the steamer Zebrugge, which sailed from here on the night of October 12 with a cargo of arms and ammunition, it was thought, for the Portuguese royalties, returned today to Antwerp. The men reported a remarkable story.

La Follette Room Snipped

The failure of Senator La Follette to visit Nebraska when he makes his western tour has caused a chill to creep down the spine of his boom in this state, which, even before this event, had shown signs of anemic condition.

A Drop of Blood

Or a little water from the human system when thoroughly tested by the chief chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., tells the story of impoverished blood—nervous exhaustion or some kidney trouble.
