

SALESMAN NOW FEELS TWENTY YEARS YOUNGER

Had Been in Poor Health for Years—Condition is Improved. HE GIVES REASON FOR CHANGE. The Great Amount of Good that is Now Being Accomplished Here and Elsewhere is Cause of Much Comment.

"I have been in a poor state of health melancholy and discouraged, suffer from headache, backache, poor circulation, cold feet, sleeplessness and who are susceptible to coughs and colds, are unquestionably suffering with the same trouble, which is nothing other than that distressing malady, nervous debility, which is an all-too-common complaint in all large cities like Omaha, say the specialists who are here introducing 'Tona Vita'.

"There are hundreds of such half sick men and women in Omaha who really do not know just what is wrong with them," said one of the specialists in discussing the matter recently. "They struggle listlessly along until they become totally debilitated and oftentimes they come to us suffering with this dreaded condition in its most aggravated form," continued the specialist.

These specialists are at the Brandeis Drug department, Sixteenth and Douglas streets, south side main floor, where they are meeting the public between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., and explaining the nature of their preparation.

Enthusiasm continues to prevail generally where the new product called 'Tona Vita' has been used. The great amount of good which seems to have been accomplished is the cause of considerable excitement by those who have seen its wonderful work. Case after case of people who were comparatively nervous wrecks and those who have been suffering from stomach trouble for years have reported and the results of 'Tona Vita' were said to have been astonishing in nearly every case.—Adv.

For sometime past," said Mr. E. A. Phillips, a well known traveling salesman residing at 217 Harney street, city, recently. "My stomach weakened, continued Mr. Phillips, 'my digestion grew bad and I became nervous and generally debilitated. I slept poorly, lacked energy, in fact, I was in a very run-down condition. I have tried many remedies, but without results.

"I finally heard of the new tonic, 'Tona Vita,' and decided to try it. I began to improve rapidly and I now feel stronger and better in every way. I feel twenty years younger and am now a well man. 'Tona Vita' is a remarkable preparation, and its success here is well merited."

AGED WOMAN STRUCK BY CAR

Mrs. M. E. Hoagland Badly Bruised as Result of Accident.

CARRIED ON THE FENDER

Victim Said by Motorman to Have Fallen to Notice Approaching Trolley and to Have Stepped on Track.

Mrs. M. E. Hoagland, mother of Frank R. Hoagland and Mrs. A. W. Francis, was badly bruised yesterday afternoon when she was struck by a street car near the corner of Willow avenue and Pearl street.

According to the motorman, Mrs. Hoagland, who is past middle age and quite hard of hearing, did not notice the approaching car and stepped in front of it. Mrs. Hoagland was struck on the side and fell across the fender and was carried several yards before the car was stopped. The car was then almost in front of the office of Dr. Jennings, and the aged woman was immediately carried there and her son and daughter notified. An examination by the physician showed that no bones were broken. Her injuries were confined to her left side and back and the side of her face and one ear was cut.

Mrs. Hoagland was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Francis, 246 North Second street. It was said last evening that her friends expected her recovery within a week.

First Meetings of Revival Are Held

Preliminary meetings of the Hart-Magnan revival series were held yesterday afternoon and last evening. In the afternoon Evangelist Hart made a brief talk, outlining the work expected of all those participating. He spoke very earnestly and encouragingly and created a favorable impression on the audience of several hundred.

There were 200 members of the chorus choir present. This chorus will be enlarged to 200 and will lead in the singing. The Auditorium has been seated to accommodate an audience of 4,000, and if more seats are required they will be provided. The building was a trifle chilly yesterday afternoon due to the fact that the steam heat was not turned on in time.

Throughout the entire month and longer if the interest warrants, the services will be held nightly.

CRACKSMAN LETS GO GRUDGE

Caged Postoffice Robber Laments Rudeness of Tennessee Nasty.

John Vall, a postoffice robber, who is in jail at Macon, Mo., is a good natured prisoner, but there is one postmaster in the United States against whom he has a grudge. He is Uncle Sam's representative in a Tennessee village. This postmaster has been in the habit of keeping his money in an old safe. The inspector told him he would have to put it in a more secure place. The postmaster was a man of ideas, it seems. He knew his safe wasn't robber proof, and so he arranged to give the man who might attempt to open it the surprise of his life. He got three big sticks of dynamite, tied them together and put them in the center of the safe. By and by the psychological moment arrived. Business was coming. The safe was neatly soaped and a fair dose of nitroglycerin injected with mechanical accuracy. It made a beautiful explosion. The top of the safe went through the roof, up in the air, and as far as known is still there. Other sections crashed into the cellar. The safe was ruined, leaving Uncle Sam out its value, about $2,500, and $2 in cash that was fished out of the debris.

"That was all we saved," said Vall with a sigh. "But think of the cold-bloodedness of a man who would put dynamite in his safe. Why, it might have been the death of us!"—Kansas City Star.

Minister, Kicked by Women of Church, is Confined to His Bed

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 1.—The Rev. R. E. L. Kirkland, kicked, he declares, by women members of his congregation, spent the afternoon in bed and six persons are under arrest as the result of a clash between factions of the First Congregational church this morning.

After service, at which the minister, it is asserted, attacked a former pastor in connection with alleged misappropriation of the church funds, the Rev. Mr. Kirkland endeavored to quell a controversy in which men and women had joined. It was then he was injured. His sermon was on the subject, "Christ Lived Today Would He Be a Socialist?" and his text was the sentence: "My Father's house is a house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves."

Loses Long Race to Prevent Marriage

DENVER, Jan. 1.—Hamilton W. Clifford, said to be a wealthy stock broker of New York City, today lost by two and a half minutes in a race from New York to Denver to prevent the marriage of his daughter, Alice, aged 21, to Roland Birch, a New York stock broker.

The race began Friday when Birch, aged 25, who was in Los Angeles, wired his fiancée to meet him today in Denver. Birch's telegram was found by the young woman's mother.

Mr. Clifford had just time to flip a coin to determine which route he should choose to Colorado. It sent him by way of the New York Central and Burlington, while his daughter sped westward on the Pennsylvania and Rock Island. Miss Clifford arrived in Denver one minute in the lead and hurried to keep her appointment with Birch at a local hotel.

The bridegroom was there with a justice of the peace and the couple were married as the father pounded on the door.

American Will Not Get Shuster's Job

TEHERAN, Jan. 1.—The Persian government has declined to appoint F. E. Cairns, one of W. Morgan Shuster's American assistants, to the post of treasury-general, from which office Mr. Shuster was recently ousted. It is believed this was due to the hostility of Russia to the appointment of any American.

It was announced last night that a commission composed of M. Morand, the Belgian co-director of customs in Persia, and three Persians would undertake the treasury generalship. As one of the Persians selected has refused to accept, however, the project of a commission is temporarily in abeyance.

TUG TRUST CHARGED WITH FAVORING BIG COMBINATIONS

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 1.—Testimony that the Rockefeller and Carnegie trusts were given preferential rates in towing charges by the alleged tug trust was given at today's hearing of the government's case against the Great Lakes Towing company.

Secretary M. H. Wardwell, of the defendant company testified that the preference was due to the fact that the towing company chose to carry out the contracts made by the Conneaut Towing company which it absorbed. He denied discrimination.

PEKING, Jan. 1.—Negotiations between Shanghai and Peking continue, but apparently there has been no development in the situation during the last twenty-four hours. The imperials are endeavoring to delay matters, hoping that time will favor them; the rebels seem desirous of forcing the issue, but neither side is willing to terminate the negotiations.

The incidents are not believed to have any significance politically.
