

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Outside Volume in the Wheat Trade is Increased.

CORN SHELLING IS IN PROGRESS

Should Weather Continue Dry and Cold a Big Movement Would Force Some Declines in Price.

OMAHA, Jan. 4, 1912.

Outside volume in the wheat trade increased and the bullish South American cables brought out buying activity, which rapidly sent wheat prices higher.

The Liverpool cables were strong and higher, continuing unfavorable harvest conditions in Argentina, and also talk of a railway strike. All have favored a rise in wheat prices.

Country reports indicate activity in shelling and shipping corn, and should the weather continue dry and cold a big movement would likely force some declines in both the cash and futures.

Wheat was sharply higher, due to bullish cables from Buenos Ayres; shorts were excited and bought heavily. Cash wheat was 19c.

The only sustaining feature to the corn market was the sharp advance in wheat. The market was quiet and cash values were unchanged to a few cents.

Wheat shipments were 1,198,000 bushels and receipts were 422,000 bushels. Primary export receipts were 1,198,000 bushels and shipments of 435,000 bushels.

Cleaner receipts were 422,000 bushels of oats and wheat and flour equal to 30,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed 1/2c higher on wheat and 1/4c higher on corn.

The following cash sales were reported: Wheat, 100,000 bushels, 19c; corn, 100,000 bushels, 12c.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Series of Irregular Movements Makes Trading Confused.

UNION-PACIFIC IS WEAKEST

Copper Stocks Stimulated by Higher Quotation for Metal—Money Market Easier, with Bonds Very Active.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—A series of irregular movements made today's stock market a confused one.

Standard issues, however, were higher during the greater part of the day, but before the close prices picked up and declined a most irregular day.

Union Pacific, which has been most steady under pressure, was the conspicuous weak stock of the speculative feature.

Attention was attracted to this stock by a falling off of $1,432,000 in the November earnings of Illinois Central.

The copper stocks were stimulated by a higher quotation for the metal. Sales were reported at 1 1/2c for European delivery.

The money market was considerably easier. Bonds were very active with the higher yields.

Number of sales and leading quotations on stocks today were as follows:
