LIVELY DEBATE IN SENATE

Newlands Fails to Force Legislative Program on Body.

DEBATE OVER TARIFF BOARD

Bailey Has Spirited Discussion with Nevada Man on Responsiveness of Congress to People of Country.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Senator Newlands of Nevada presented a lively debate today when he attempted to force upon the senate his resolution providing for a legislative program.

He sought ineffectually to have his resolution made unfinished business, with the result that the ensuing discussion took a wide range, entering the complicated field of the tariff. The report of the tariff board and the board itself also figured.

Speaking on the board, Senator Reed of Missouri, characterized it as an "unauthorized and illegally constituted body." When Senator Smoot, supporting the report, expressed the hope that its recommendations would not be embodied in legislation, the Missouri senator replied that he would not permit any five men to tell him how he should vote on the tariff or any other question. He did not believe congress should abdicate its functions.

When Mr. Newlands declared that it had been forty years since the country had experienced a reduction of the tariff, Senator Gallinger called attention to the enactment of the Wilson law in the last Cleveland administration. He added that the country had required a long time to get over that reduction.

"Oh," responded Mr. Newlands, "that is ancient history."

"It is not forty years ancient," said Mr. Gallinger.

Bailey and Newlands Argue.

The proceeding also involved a spirited discussion between Mr. Newlands and Senator Bailey of Texas. Replying to a charge by the Nevada senator that representative government had proved a failure, the Texas declared that congress had been especially responsive to the public will during the past twenty years. He added the opinion that but for some "demagogues" there would have been still more effective response. When Senator Newlands manifested a disposition to construe the remark as a personal reflection, Mr. Bailey disavowed any such intention.

The senator from Nevada has enough to be responsible for, without adding that," said Mr. Bailey.

Amplifying his arguments in support of the proposition for providing an order of business, Mr. Newlands mentioned the neglect of congress to enact legislation for the improvement of the waterways of the country and for failing to provide for a physical valuation of the railroads as instances wherein congress failed to respond to the popular demand for action.

He charged that the appointment of the national waterways commission had been made for the purpose of postponing action, describing the proceeding as a "sandbagging" process, in which he said two republican and two democratic senators had participated. He asserted also that the railroads had been instrumental in opposing the improvement of navigable streams.

Senator Gallinger objected to Mr. Newlands' request for recognition of his resolution and after two hours of discussion the subject was dropped.

ECKHOFF IS STAR WITNESS

Cincinnati Confidant of McNamara is Guarded by Detectives.

BURNS GOES TO PHILADELPHIA

Detective Charges that Bookwalter Dropped Inquiry Because He Got Big Contracts from Labor Unions.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 4.—Frank Eckhoff of Cincinnati, intimate friend of John J. McNamara for years, appeared at the federal grand jury chamber today.

H. H. Johnson, manager of the street railway lines at Peoria, Ill., also came in answer to a subpoena and both men are assumed to have related details of various dynamite explosions now being investigated by the government.

Eckhoff, confidant of John J. McNamara and a neighbor of the McNamara family in Cincinnati, for weeks has been guarded by Detective William J. Burns' assistants against contact with persons alleged to be interested in settling his claims. It is known he is one of the principal witnesses relied on by the government in its efforts to expose groups of men in many cities charged with having furthered explosions against property of employers of nonunion iron workers.

Interest in the report of the business connection of Samuel Gompers and former Mayor Charles A. Bookwalter, alleged by Detective Burns to have significance in Mr. Bookwalter's dropping his dynamiting inquiry two years ago, followed Burns to Philadelphia. He will arrive there late today and it is believed will examine the labor union affiliations of Hugo Thorsch, who prior to seven years ago, published a labor paper in Philadelphia. He is now associated with Bookwalter in the printing firm in which, according to Burns, Gompers was interested.

Statement by Thorsch.

Thorsch, in a statement today denying partnership with Gompers or seeking the labor leader's influence in getting printing contracts with unions, said that the reason he moved his business from Philadelphia to Indianapolis seven years ago was that the national union of carpenters and joiners transferred its headquarters. He had obtained printing orders from Frank Duffy, secretary of the carpenters' union, in Philadelphia, and he was advised, he said that other labor organizations purposed to imitate the carpenters and move their headquarters offices to Indianapolis. Duffy was treasurer of the McNamara defense fund board.

"After I came here and as other labor unions moved their national offices here," said Thorsch, "I succeeded in getting big orders from the unions of teamsters, barbers, carpenters and coal miners, John Mitchell is a good friend of mine and he was president of the United Mine Workers. I never got any business from the iron workers, though I often asked John J. McNamara for printing work."

At one of the various national union headquarters in this city today was it possible to obtain a statement confirming charges that labor officials were advised of the dynamite operations of John J. McNamara two years ago and that if they had acted then might have prevented the Los Angeles Times explosion and the attendant loss of twenty-one lives. No affirmation was issued of Bookwalter's statement that he told "a score of national labor leaders" that his investigation of local explosions had conclusively exposed the guilt of McNamara a year before the Los Angeles disaster.

California Evidence Expected Today

District Attorney John D. Fredericks of Los Angeles county, California, said today he expected the California evidence in the alleged conspiracy to reach Peoria tomorrow. It is said to relate chiefly to the trip confessedly made by Orville McManigal from Indianapolis to Los Angeles, at the direction of John J. McNamara to blow up the Llewellyn iron works. McManigal is expected to arrive here tomorrow to affirm his several confessions.

Mr. Fredericks announced that he had telegraphed his assistants in Los Angeles that he would take no part in the dispute between Samuel Brown, chief of the county detectives there, and William J. Burns over the rewards offered in connection with the arrests of the McNamaras.

Bribery Case Comes First.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4.—Bert H. Conners, A. P. Mahlo and F. Ira Bender, union men, today were called for trial here on the charge of having attempted to blow up the county hall of records.

Clarence S. Darrow said he was out of it, and H. H. Appell was made attorney of record, with Lecompte Davis in Darrow's place as chief counsel.

The prisoners asked separate trials and Conners was selected to go on trial first. Nearly all of the venemen examined today said they had been biased by the McNamara case.

The definite statement later was made that the county grand jury had begun an inquiry into the alleged attempts to bribe jurors in the McNamara trial. Clarence S. Darrow, said, however, that he had not yet been subpoenaed in connection with the charges that followed the arrest of Bert H. Franklin, a detective for the defense.

J. H. Russell, Darrow's former private secretary, was the first witness called today.

Hot Springs Men Will Pay Calendar Money to Road Fund

MOT SPRINGS, S. D., Jan. 4.—(Special.)—A novel scheme for raising road improvement funds is being put into effect here and at Edgemont. It has been found that $2,000 is spent each year by local merchants for art calendars to be given to customers as souvenirs, and almost as much by Edgemont merchants and banks. Most of these calendars go to farmers. Several merchants have argued that the money spent for these calendars would go a long way toward making needed road repairs. This would not only help the farmers get to town, but show them also that their trade is appreciated, while being a distinct advantage to business interests as well.

A number of merchants have therefore pooled their calendar outlay and are selling the eastern calendar drummers who call, "We are giving our calendar money to a good road fund and we can't do a thing for you this time."

The Black Hills is taking a live interest in the subject of good roads and this plan is the outcome of such interest. It is believed merchants of other communities could apply it to advantage.

been sent out from the packers combination in Chicago.

"Did you ever see that letter in the grand jury room?" shouted Attorney Sheehan.

Counsel for the defense instantly were on their feet to object and they were sustained by the court.

The witness said he remembered specific instances where certain members of the combination were permitted to ship more than their maximum percentage of fresh meat to Baltimore and Washington.

PORTUGUESE BISHOPS PROCLAIM INDEPENDENCE

LISBON, Via Frontier, Jan. 4.—Ensuing on the punishment of the patriarch of Lisbon, Monsignor Anthony Mendes Bello, who the Portuguese government ordered expelled for two years, all the Portuguese bishops today proclaimed their independence of the government. The minister of justice declared that if they persist in their refusal to recognize the civil authorities they would all be expelled from Portugal.

POLICE JUDGE OF KEARNEY WILL NOT VACATE OFFICE

KEARNEY, Neb., Jan. 4.—(Special Telegram.)—Police Judge Charles Healey today refused to vacate his position, as municipal judge to which he was elected last April for a period of two years to West. He said, police magistrate-elect under W. L. Hand, police judge of the 1st legislature, by that act the office of police judge was annulled and combined with that of justice of the peace in cities where the jurisdiction of the two officers covered identical territory.

INVESTORS IN FUEL DEAL WILL GET MONEY BACK

IOWA CITY, Ia., Jan. 4.—(Special.)—Word was reached Iowa City that a settlement is being reached in the famous Denver and Northwestern Fuel company swindle case in the federal courts of Colorado and that the forty business men, professors and others of Iowa City who professed to be in the $1,000,000 corporation of the instance of a former resident of this city one year ago, will probably receive their money back again. Defendants in the action were C. S. Millard, Frank McDonough, A. L. Polard, L. C. Greenlee and H. V. Kepner.

STRIKING IRON MOLDERS WILL GO BACK TO WORK

WATERLOO, Ia., Jan. 4.—(Special Telegram.)—Striking iron molders of Headford Bros. and Hutchins and the Hawkeye Foundries will return to work Friday morning. Labor Officials at Muscatine Standing by Accused Men.

NO NEW ARRESTS DURING DAY

Utmost Secrecy Being Maintained by Sheriff's Office with Regard to Men Sought Under Indictments.

MUSCATINE, Ia., Jan. 4.—An effort will be made to raise a $25,000 defense fund to be used in the cases of Emmet T. Flood of Chicago, national organizer for the American Federation of Labor, and O. C. Wilson, business agent of the button workers' union and socialist member of the city council, according to an announcement by labor officials here tonight. Both men were indicted by the grand jury, charged with conspiracy to destroy property in connection with the button workers' strike.

Local labor leaders stated tonight that the work of raising the fund would be taken up immediately and the various unions of the state would be asked to contribute to the fund. The American Federation of Labor and the Iowa Federation of Labor will also come to the aid of the indicted men.

No new arrests were made today among the union labor men on indictments returned by the grand jury Saturday, and the utmost secrecy regarding the probable arrests is being maintained.

The petition charging O. C. Wilson, socialist member of the city council, with neglect of duty and asking that he be removed from office was filed with the city council late today, but no action will be taken until tomorrow.

John H. Walker, president of the Illinois Mine Workers' union, was here today and stated that an effort will be made to have the Illinois Mine Workers' union contribute to the support of the striking button workers.

MANCHUS TO RESUME FIGHT

YUAN REFUSES TO GO SOUTH

Republicans Decline to Negotiate Further by Telegraph and Ask the Premier to Come to Shanghai.

SHANGHAI, China, Jan. 4.—The imperial government in Peking has sent orders today to all the generals in command of the imperial troops that they are to resume hostilities at 8 o'clock in the forenoon of January 6, unless they receive notification in the meantime that the armistice between the two forces has been again renewed.

This step has been taken, it is assumed here, as a result of the refusal of the revolutionaries to continue the negotiations with the Peking authorities by telegraph in accordance with the demand of Premier Yuan Shi Kai. Telegraphic negotiations are regarded by both Dr. Sun Yat Sen and Wu Ting-fang as unsatisfactory.

President Sun Yat Sen yesterday instructed Dr. Wu Ting-fang to telegraph to Premier Yuan Shi Kai at Peking asking him to come to Shanghai and negotiate personally with the president of the new republic.

The fact that Premier Yuan Shi Kai is now in possession of a considerable sum of money which he received from the empress dowager for the purpose of repressing the rebellion and with which he can pay the imperial troops has, it is believed inspired him with fresh confidence in his power to check the revolution, as he is aware that the republicans lack resources.
