And you have noticed the Rosamond calendar? The heroine is beginning to get the notice she deserves. However, to turn to a less pleasant character, observe Desmond resolving to smoke no more cigarettes. Only villains smoke cigarettes, anyway. Also does the scoundrel say that he will give his henchman, the untamed Gomgotz, the back pay that is due him. And the celebrated suit of evening togs Desmond wears-that is to be returned. But the villain was only bluffing. He has no sooner signed than he lights a cigarette CALENDAR HE'S A BAD"RISK TRIM MY HAT ACCORDING TO THE 1912 DICTATES OF FASHION.

With the villainous Desmond in their power, Claude and Rosamond yet relent somewhat in view of the New Year. They agree that if Desmond will promise faithfully to observe some good resolutions they will grant him a reprieve. but heroes are notoriously soft-hearted, and as for heroines-well, they have hearts as tender as a cream puff. Above you can see Claude's resolutions, and Resamond's resolve to trim the hat she has worn so long.
