GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Market Does Not Advance Steadily-Buyers Take Profits.

CORN LEADS HOLDING TO BUY

Severe Weather and Southern Demand is Keeping Receipts Light-Cash and Futures Are Strong.

OMAHA, Jan. 6, 1912. Buyers of wheat are quok to take profits on the sweds. This prevents the market from advancing steadily but eaves the trade in a safe position for further built operations should the news continue bullish as it has for the last leve day.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The brief session of the stock exchange today brought little change from the dull and irregular tendencies of the preceding day of the week. The more active stocks, such as United States Steel, Union Facific and Beading, were relatively neglected at the outset and such activity as they displayed little. later was often due to bearish attacks.

Lenigh Valley Rock Island preferred and Cacadian Pacific were the strongest at the opening. Great Narthern preferred, also made a smart advance on the publication of its November carnings.

The market on beef speers started out the week sharply stronger and there was another decided advance on Tuesday. The receipts then became sufficiently heavy to be rather burdensome and as advices from other selling points became less encouraging; the market here cased off to such an extent that the advance of Monday and Tuesday was wiped out on Wednesday and Thursday. Puring the remainder of the week prices remained practically stationary. It will thus be seen that week closes with the market just about where it was at the close of last week.

thus be seen that week closes with the market just about where it was at the close of last week.

Of the Dobles and helfers and for that matter alled announcements will be published outlined above in the case of beef seers, farly in the week there was a sharp steady; advance which was later wiped out and at the close there is little change discerning at the close of last week.
