Stop Looking for Benefits and Favors and Begin to Work

Whoever You Are, Whatever You Are, You Owe a Debt to the World, a Debt Which You Must Pay Some Time, Somewhere.

By ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

There are many people going through the world trying to do the impossible thing; trying to obtain something for nothing.

It cannot be done. There is a clause attached to every seeming gift which mortals receive; a clause saying, "For value received I promise to pay."

count just so much on your birthright the next step you take in life. So start this very day to think of all you owe the world, all you owe to humanity yet unborn, and all you owe to your real self.

There is no wasted toil, no lost emotion.

HOT BOOST FOR FRANKFURTER

Hitherto frankfurters have not been dear to the palate of the class of persons who ride in automobiles and dine in evening clothes and upon diamond backs.

Here are some extracts from Mlle. Gab's article today, in which she gives valuable advice on the proper way to eat.

of the girl who wants to be pretty. The only time you should eat late at night is when you are sleepless or suffer from insomnia.

most of the French housewives from whom I never drink anything but spring water because the ordinary water is very impure, and every day I take a cup of very hot water with a little bit of lemon juice in it about half an hour before breakfast.

Humor of Justice Harlan

The humor of the late Justice Harlan of the United States supreme court was sparkling and spontaneous. It came at unexpected moments and apparently without premeditation.

As is well known, the late Justice Harlan was a democrat, while Justice Brandeis was a republican. They were the best of friends. One day they were discussing the fear of death.
