Light, an aged assistant librarian in the Masonic temple, when he was about to be adjudged insane by the Board of insanity commissioners yesterday. Relatives of Light filed a complaint, alleging insanity, and asked that the board conduct an inquiry. When the board went to look into Light's case, Mr. Savidge was on hand. He declared Light was no more insane than he was and "it would be a shame to so adjudge him. He hinted that Light has some little money and suggested that undue anxiety about it might have had something to do with the efforts to have him declared incompetent. Mr. Savidge said he would be willing to take charge of Light and be responsible for him. He was appointed custodian for the aged man and took him to the House of Hope, where he will be cared for, pending inquiry by the board on some future date not fixed.

MORE SNOW COVERS WEST

Blanket of One to Twelve Inches from River to Mountains.

BIG HELP TO ALL THE CROPS

Farmers Expect Winter Wheat to Get a Splendid Start in the Spring from the Abundance of Moisture.

A snow storm that was the most general of any that has visited Nebraska this winter, passed over the state Wednesday night, spreading a blanket of from one to ten inches in thickness. In most parts of the state the snow set in early in the afternoon and continued until long after midnight. At no place was it accompanied by wind and consequently the snow lays where it fell. Out through Nebraska, along the lines of railroad, temperatures ranged from zero to 20 degrees above.

On the Burlington's Billings line, snow was general from Omaha to Sheridan, Wyo., around Palmer and all through the northwestern part of the state, being from two to ten inches in depth. Over the entire portion of the Northwestern system, west of the river, snow fell to the depth of from three to eight inches, while out in Wyoming, there were places where it attained a depth of twelve inches. In the South Platte country and all the way from Grand Island to St. Joseph, Mo., the snow fall was about ten inches. From Sidney to Cheyenne, it rained during most of Wednesday afternoon, turning to snow during the night.

The contention among railroad men is, that with the previous heavy snows that of last night will afford sufficient precipitation when it melts to put the ground in the best condition in years and assure an early start for the winter wheat.

Right-of-Way of the Northwestern is to Be Made Beautiful

Henceforth, on the right-of-way of the Northwestern in Nebraska, there will be no rank growth of thistles, limon weed or cockle burrs. From one end of the line to the other, through Nebraska, in the future, the right-of-way is to be cultivated until it will have the appearance of a garden.

Through Nebraska the Northwestern has a right-of-way 100 feet wide on either side of the track there is a space about thirty feet wide. This space is being leased to the farmers owning the adjoining land. They pay $1 just for the purpose of making the lease legal and it runs for a long term of years. The honor is required to plant the ground to alfalfa, or some other kind of grass, keeping it growing, free from weeds and harvest it the same as he does his other tame grasses. The growing of corn and all other kinds of grain is barred.

The ground of more than two-thirds of the right-of-way through Nebraska has been leased by General Manager Walters and the balance is being taken at a lively rate.

Young Men's Hebrew Society is Launched

That there is great need in Omaha for a Young Men's Hebrew association was the consensus of the sentiment voiced at the mass meeting of young men held last night at Washington hall at Eighth and Harney streets. Because of the lateness of the announcement of the fact that there was to be a meeting, only about seventy-five persons were present, but these accomplished the purpose that was expected from several hundred.

The young men who have started the movement for a Young Men's Hebrew association, made stirring addresses and pointed out the need in Omaha of such an organization. These young men are M. Franklyn, S. Webber, B. Israel and A. Minkin. They were followed by Rabbi Frederick Cohn and H. B. Zimman, who promised to aid the movement. Rabbi Cohn said that he had no idea that there was such a sentiment or need for such an organization, but that he was now convinced of the value of such a society, and that he would do his duty of the Jewish public at large to assist liberally and with enthusiasm.

Before the meeting last night adjourned, Harry B. Zimman was elected temporary chairman and membership and constitution and bylaws committees appointed. A temporary office of officers, consisting of the following, were also elected: President, H. B. Zimman; vice president, Herman Marowitz; secretary, M. Franklyn; treasurer, M. Nachman. Fifty-one young men enrolled last night and each of these promised to secure other members before next week. The next meeting will be held at Washington hall next Wednesday evening.

Body of Man Found Frozen Near Benson

Frozen in the snow beneath a wagon bridge two miles and a half west of Benson the body of a man was found by two little boys at 6 o'clock last night as they were skating along a rivulet under the bridge. The body was so completely frozen that assistants in Coroner Crosby's office could not estimate how long it had lain in the snow. It was perfectly embalmed. A cathartic acid bottle found near the body signified the cause of death. The dead man apparently was a laborer. He wore a black cap, blue overalls, over-shoes that look like new and cotton flannel gloves. The man was about 50 years old. The body will be held at the coroner's morgue for identification.

Congregational Church Wants to Be Presbyterian

Members of the Parkvale Congregational church, Thirty-first and Gold, want to take their church bodily into the Presbyterian fold and a Congregational council, representing all the churches of that denomination in the city, has been called for tonight to consider whether the Parkvale church can and should be prevailed upon to stay Congregational. The Omaha presbytery, it is said, stands ready to receive the Parkvale church if its members, after tonight's meeting, persist in their purpose. Lack of monetary support from the home missionary board of the Congregational church is given as the reason why the Parkvale members desire the change.

RABBI HIRSCH TO ADDRESS PEACE SOCIETY MEETING

The Nebraska Peace society will be organized in Lincoln February 2. Two meetings, one in the afternoon and one in the evening, will be held on that day at the First Methodist church at the capital. Kavanaugh Wins Creighton Contest; McAvoy is Second

The public oratorical contest of the collegiate department of Creighton university took place last night at the Creighton auditorium. The hall was well nigh taxed by the friends of the speakers and followers of the university. Five speakers took part in the evening's program. Louis D. Kavanaugh, in his oration, "The Duties of Labor," proved the best of these. Mr. McAvoy was a close contender for first honors, and merited a highly honorable second place. His oration was on "The Foundation of the Republic." Three other speakers participated, Paul C. Harrington, who spoke on "The Perils of the American Nation," Raphael Hamilton, in the oration "The Most Potent Invention of Our Age," and Omar P. Sullivan, who delivered "Arbitration and World Peace."

By winning first place Mr. Kavanaugh secured the honor of representing Creighton in the coming state oratorical contest. He participated in the state contest last year and captured third place. He is acknowledged Creighton's finished orator in the college department. Mr. McAvoy, who intoned second, will uphold Creighton's colors in the intercollegiate contest. For the best oration on "Peace" in this contest there is a prize of $50 offered by William Jennings Bryan, and for the second best two women of Massachusetts have donated a prize of $50.

The judges of last night's contest were B. M. Riley, A. M. M. D.; P. L. Martin, A. M., LL. B., and H. G. Moorhead, Ph. D., LL. B.

MANY COME TO CEMENT SHOW

Indications Are Attendance Will Be Double That of Last Year.

SUCCESS OF EXPOSITION SURE

Enough Space is Already Sold in the Auditorium—Officers of Association Arrange Program for the Four Days.

More than 300 members of the Nebraska Cement Users' association have announced their intention of attending the annual convention, which will be held in Omaha February 6 to 10, with the Mid-West Cement show as an adjunct. Last year only 122 members registered, though attendance at the show was materially increased over this figure by the coming of dealers who were not members of the association.

Omaha cement dealers have rallied to the support of the show and a committee from the Douglas County Cement Users' association, headed by Frank Whipperman, has been canvassing the cement dealers for sales of space. In two days the committee sold enough space to assure the success of the exposition.

Stage Beauty Tells Secrets of Youth

(Theater Review in The Arch) "I have often wondered at Jane Clayton's youthful beauty. In a burst of confidence she told me her complexion was due to a lotion which she makes by dissolving a small amount of witch hazel in a half-pint of witch hazel. Massage with this has kept her skin clear and satiny and preserves its girlish bloom."

"Her long, wavy and lustrous locks are due to dry shampooing. She says she never has time to wash her head and would not if she could, because wet shampoo makes the hair dull and lifeless. A dry shampoo leaves the hair soft and fluffy. To make the dry shampoo, she puts a cupful of corn meal in a fruit jar and mixes with it the contents of a small original package of Calumet. It brushes out easily and takes all dirt with it."

"With a jar of Mother's Salve to cure sore throat and colds and prevent coughs, this actress travels forty-eight weeks in the year, always looks the pink of perfection and sings at every performance."—Adv.

GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY BANISHED; DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR STOPPED

Remedy Made from Garden Sage and Sulphur Restores Color to Gray Hair.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs quite early in life. Of course, it is unnatural, and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual, and that Nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If everything is right with Nature, the hair, even in comparatively elderly people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to Nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff, but strengthens weak, thin and falling hair and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.
