

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Higher Wheat Prices Depend on Combined Forces.

CORN MOVEMENT IS GIVEN UP

It is an Uphill Job to Sustain Values, Because the Market Was Overhauled During Last Week.

OMAHA, Jan. 22, 1912. There is a very broad view to be taken in the wheat situation these days because higher prices, if they are to be established, will depend not only on the domestic situation but on the combined influences coming from Argentina, Russia and other European factors.

Wheat started firm and worked a bit higher early, but weakened later and ending about 1/2 cent lower than the figures for the day. Cash wheat was a bit higher.

Warmer weather and a fair weekly forecast weakened lower and sold corn freely, causing the market. Cash corn was a little lower.

Primary receipts were 1,100,000 bushels and shipments were 179,000 bushels, against last year's of 1,127,000 bushels and shipments of 217,000 bushels and shipments of 217,000 bushels.

Clearances were 17,000 bushels of corn, 200 bushels of oats and wheat and flour equal to 20,000 bushels of wheat.

ALDRICH TALKS IN BLUFFS

Nebraska Governor Addresses Huge Crowd at Revival Meeting.

CHRISTIAN LIFE IS SUBJECT

Pleasant Weather Brings Out Thousands to Religious Gathering—Sermon on "Booze" Strikes Chord in Many Hearts.

The sermon was as well as interesting in the Hart-Magnin religious revival meetings drew the largest audience yesterday afternoon that has yet assembled to hear the energetic talker.

Mr. Hart's theme was presented in the plain and blunt word "Booze" and if there were any gentlemen there who were inclined to think the word of little value and to be treated lightly they went away convinced that it was invested with some mighty potentialities when dissected and made to reveal thousands of deadly possibilities.

Mr. Hart did not make the usual fiery attack on the saloonman and attribute the abuse of alcoholic stimulants to them alone, but he made them bear their full share of the blame.

There were a number of meetings in connection with the revival during the day. Two meetings of the children of the Sunday school of the various churches occurred during the forenoon, both at the Auditorium.

At 9:30 Bible lessons were given to pupils of the Sabbath schools of those churches where that hour coincided with the usual time of meeting, and at 10:30 there was a mass meeting of all the schools of the fourteen churches engaged in the religious movement.

It is estimated that more than 2,000 children were present.

In the afternoon women to fill the room to its capacity met at the First Christian church, where Mrs. Hart, wife of the evangelist, led in the devotional exercises. She was assisted by Mrs. F. A. Cowan, wife of the pastor of the First Baptist church.

An all-day service will be held at the Auditorium today, with the usual program at night.

Our 25 per cent discount sale on wall paper and room moulding will continue all this week. H. Borwick, 29 and 311 South Main street.

WOMAN DEPUTY MARSHAL SERVES PAPERS BY RUSE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 21.—Upon the return here last night of Miss Lillian Hall, who was under United States Marshal A. Martin at Kansas City, it became known that Miss Hall obtained service yesterday on John I. Maddox, county clerk of Lawrence county, Missouri, in a suit in the federal court to collect $1,500 on old railroad bonds.

Posting as a book agent she went to Buffalo, Dallas county, and served the papers after two men deputy marshals had failed. She readily approached the county officers, who usually are suspicious of strangers in the town, because of the suit was filed by David Tost and others of Philadelphia, December 2, 1911. It was to be a repetition of the old St. Clair county bonds fight, the county officials concluded, and they believed the best way to defeat the suit was to avoid service. The bonds upon which the suit was based were issued by Dallas county in 1881 to aid in building a railroad. The road was not built, but the bonds have been standing against the county.

Death Mask of Evans. WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—U. S. Senator, a sculptor, has completed a mask of the late Rev. Adoniram Judson D. Evans, taken on the day of his death, January 12, 1898. The mask is said to be perfect. The mask will be turned over to the family.
