ROOSEVELT FORCES DEFEATED

Specimentar Methods and Harr Struggle of Colonel's Supporters Prove of No Avail After Glimpse of Victory.

COALGATE, Okla., Jan. N-President

Taft was endorsed for renomination by the republican party for president at the Fourth congressional district republican convention last night after Roose velt supporters had made a determine effort to stampede the convention. The were used to impress the delegates with the boom which the supporters of Roose-velt had set in motion. Edward Perry, district chairman, led the fight Previous to the assembling of the dele gates this afternoon a huge balloon was released near convention hall. Painted on it was one word, Rooserett. The balloonist, before his leap, unfurled a flag hearing the lettering, "He will land." has Perry began speaking, after the Chicago next Friday, to vote for the convention was temporarily organized, a amendment of the White resolution small boy dressed in "rough rider" cosmission which will permit the playing of summer which will permit the playing of summer able. tume, rode a horse up the center also of the convention hall. He was lifted to the stage, while Perry suspended his address for a moment. The lad, waving his dimunitive sembrero shouted, "I want Teddy." Cheers followed.

The defeat of the Perry forces became evident early. On the vote for temperary chairman the Perry people had a momentary vision of victory when it was an-nounced that their candidate had been chosen, 7s to 6s. A canvass of the vote disclosed an avowed supporter of President Taft had been elected, 73% to 60% the first to be chosen of those who will select the party's presidential numbers at Chicago in June.
