TREASURER IS AFTER CASH

Has Received Remittances from Thirty-Eight of the Counties.

MAY ORDER CUT IN CAR FARES

Members of Railway Commission Are Considering This Method of Securing Information on Physical Valuation.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Jan. 25.—(Special.)—The state treasurer up-to-date has received remittances in January from thirty-eight of the ninety-two counties in the state, though fifty-six have sent in their statements to the auditor and received their clearances. It is fair to presume that remittances will be received in a few days from all those who have not already reported. Among those who have not yet settled are Douglas and Lancaster. The two heaviest taxpayers, but Douglas sent in $5,000 in December in advance of the settlement.

Outside of those two counties the ones which have not remitted and those which have not are about a fair average of the whole so far as the amount due is concerned. If the money comes in all rapidly as anticipated a call probably will soon be issued for the remainder of the outstanding warrants and from that on there will be no necessity of registering further issues, unless some unforeseen expenditure is made. State Treasurer George and Auditor Barton are in Omaha today and one of the objects of their visit to the county treasurers' convention is to urge upon those officials the necessity of remitting promptly the amounts due the state.

Omaha Railway Question.

The suggestion that the Omaha Street railway might be forced into an attitude whereby the physical value of its property and also a showing as to its earnings could be obtained by an order reducing fares to six tickets for a quarter, meets with favor from one member of the railway commission at least. He is of the opinion the demand for a reduction is sufficient and that a prima facie case could be made which would warrant the action and then it would be up to the street railway company, if it could show that it was not now earning an excessive amount on the value of its property. It need not surprise anyone in the least if such a move is made as soon as the commissioners get a little respite from the railroad valuation hearings which are now on.

The railway commission is still grinding away on the hearing of the physical valuation of the Northwestern road. C. H. Gerber, engineer connected with the commission, was on the stand and after detailing his experience in the civil engineering branch of railroading, to qualify as an expert witness went into details of valuation of railroad property which come within the province of the engineering department.

National Guard Instruction.

The National guard officers have been having a school for instruction in "Elements of Military Hygiene." Last night they paid a visit to one of the local bakeries and were shown how bread is made in these establishments and were given some suggestions how the practice in vogue in permanent shops might be made to fit food conditions.

A change has been made in the date for the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, which will be at Beatrice, May 16, 15 and 16, instead of May 21, 22 and 23, as at first announced. The change is made to enable the commander-in-chief to be present.

Fire Drill in Schools.

The law requires that at least thirty minutes of each school month be devoted to fire drill in all public, private and parochial schools and copies of instructions for such drill should be sent to the county superintendents of each county with instructions to distribute them. Complaint has been made by some teachers who have not complied with the law that they have not received the instructions. They are urged by the state superintendent in a circular he is sending out to obtain the instructions if they do not have them already and of complying with the law. The drills may be the means of saving life in case of fire and the other instructions, if observed, may prevent a fire.

Graham's Sentence Affirmed.

The supreme court today affirmed the sentence of Charles Graham, convicted in Lancaster county of wife abandonment. Graham was released after conviction on his promise to provide for his wife and when he failed to do so was brought into court and sentenced.

Maria's Complaint on May.

Robert W. Houston, a shipper of live stock from Lexington, Neb., has filed a complaint with the railway commission, alleging that the Union Stock Yards company of South Omaha gives outside shippers inferior hay and gives all the best of the hay to the commission men in the yards. He asks the commission to order the discrimination stopped and also to fix a reasonable price to be paid for the hay in place of that charged at present, which he alleges is exorbitant.

More Tax Complaints.

The United States attorney has commenced action against three more corporations which have failed to comply with the federal incorporation tax law. They are the Lincoln Implement and Transfer company, the Automatic Switch company and the Cushman Power speaker company.

Work of Adventists.

The probabilities are that the Adventist conference now in session at College

View, will select several of its members to go to the mission for to go as missionaries to foreign lands, Mexico being one of the countries mentioned. The church now maintains several foreign missions, but it is planned to increase this force. Early next week the election of officers will occur and there is probability of some interesting developments. R. A. Underwood of Minneapolis has served as president for eight years and has said that he desired to be relieved from further service in that capacity. In his work he has averaged traveling 10,000 miles a year.

Typhoid Serum Works Well.

The officers of the naval recruiting station who were inoculated with typhoid serum have experienced no uncomfortable symptoms as a result. Two more treatments are to be administered and they are then expected to be immune from the disease.

A. C. Hallinger, a young man from Areada, who was recently arrested on the charge of horse stealing, has been released on motion of the county attorney. There is no question about his taking the train, but it was shown that he was not responsible.

The monument makers in their annual convention are confronted with the problem of how to prevent a proposed raise in freight rates on granite and marble used by them. Building granite comes in as class E, while monument granite is class C, which carries a higher rate. It is intimated they may take the matter into court unless they carry their point otherwise.

MAN'S EAR BITTEN OFF

IN FIGHT AT WALTHILL

WALTHILL, Neb., Jan. 25.—In a fight here, Ed Bellville of Herman, Neb., lost an ear. The organ being bitten off by Joe Dillon of Council Bluffs, Ia. Dillon and Bellville were quarreling over a debt and came to blows, the latter seemingly getting the better of it, until his ear came in contact with his opponent's open mouth. The men fell to the ground. They were separated and when Dillon rose to his feet he spat Bellville's ear on the ground. Dillon has been arrested on a mayhem charge.

News Notes of Sutton.

RUTLAND, Neb., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—The Royal Neighbors installed the following officers at their last regular meeting: Emma O. Hicks, orator; Lillie Bennett, vice orator; Laura Lewis, reporter; Florence Carey, chancellor; Jennie Tyler, recorder; Pauline Frazer, inner sentinel; Curlesta Stenson, marshal; Bertha Hurst, manager. After the installation a four-course luncheon was served.

Miss Mattie Hoffman and Mr. Henry Huberman were married January 18 at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Knapp. They left the same day for a trip to South Dakota.

Miss Mabel Craven was married on Wednesday to Mr. Ross Thomas of Fairmont.

Mrs. N. J. Waugh.

REPUBLICAN CITY, Neb., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Mrs. N. J. Waugh, one of the earliest settlers of this section, died at a hospital in St. Joseph, Mo., on Monday last. The funeral was held here Wednesday afternoon in the Methodist church. Deceased was 61 years old. She leaves a husband, two daughters and three sons.

CLIO CLUB DISCUSSES THE LIVES OF NOTED SINGERS

The Clio club of women in the north part of town, had an unusual program Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. F. Shepard. Papers on the lives of noted singers were read and following each paper a song by the artists was heard on the Victrola. Mrs. R. E. Jenkins was leader. Mrs. Shepard had a paper on "Schumann-Heink"; Mrs. C. C. Morrison, "Melba"; Mrs. Ralph Bussey, "Caruso"; Mrs. J. T. Cathers, "Church Music 199 Years Ago."

LOCAL W. C. T. U. RECEIVES CARVED ORANGE WOOD GAVEL

The Frances Willard Woman's Christian Temperance union was presented with a handsomely carved orange wood gavel by Carter Jones, a member of the Young People's branch in San Diego, Cal. The gavel was used for the first time by the president, Mrs. C. J. Roberts, at the union meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. M. Bond. Dr. Elizabeth Dady offered resolutions commending Sheriff McElhane, which were unanimously passed.

PIONEER DOCTOR DIES AT RIPE OLD AGE OF 72

Dr. J. B. Cain, who practiced medicine in Nebraska for twenty-five years, died Wednesday evening at his home, 1917 Grace street. He was 72 years old, and had been living in Omaha for the last seven years. Since coming to Nebraska he spent most of his time at Leigh, Neb. Dr. Cain's wife died last September. He is survived by three sons, W. M. Cain of Schuyler, J. W. Cain of Omaha and J. F. Cain of Lincoln.

Immigration Bill to Be Amended in Important Particular.

KINKAID'S AID TO HOMESTEADER

Asks Passage of Law that Will Permit Return to Old Rule of Six Months' Constructive Residence.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—The immigration bill, which was reported recently from the committee on Immigration by Senator Lodge with an amendment, and of which committee, Senator Brown is a member, carries as a part of the bill, Senator Brown's original bill providing that the bureau of Immigration and naturalization "shall gather from all available sources useful information regarding the resources, products and physical characteristics of each state and territory, and shall publish such information in different languages and distribute the publications among all admitted aliens at the immigrant stations of the United States." As the law now stands the bureau is authorized to give this information to admitted aliens upon request for the same. The Brown amendment makes it obligatory on the part of the Immigration bureau to disseminate this information without charge, and upon request. This amendment was endorsed by the Commercial club of Omaha as soon as it saw the possibilities of inducing desirable immigrants to settle in the interior of the country and not along the coast line, as hundreds of thousands are now doing.

Kinkaid's Aid to Settlers.

Representative Kinkaid this morning was given a hearing before the public lands committee on his constructive residence homestead bill. Judge Kinkaid explained the purpose of the proposed act in full, and made a plea which seems to have made an impression on the committee and which he thinks will gain favor for his proposition. That is, the return to the old rule which has governed homestead entries for fifty years, in that actual residence on the entry is not required for the first six months, the only requirement being clearing sufficient land and the erection of at least a portion of an abode this being considered sufficient evidence of good faith on the part of the settler to carry out his part of the contract. The committee at its next meeting next Wednesday will ask Secretary Fisher and Assistant Secretary Adams to appear to give their views.

Members of Mint Commission.

President Taft, it is understood, will appoint Charles T. Kountze of Omaha a member of the mint commission. Mr. Kountze is president of the First National bank of Omaha. This commission is appointed each year to visit the Philadelphia mint and verify the weights of coins. No salary is attached, but the government pays all traveling and hotel expenses. The president today appointed R. J. Woods of Sioux Falls and Zina Richey of Yankton, S. D., members of the mint commission on recommendation of Senator Gamble.

Western Appointments.

The president today nominated Nathaniel Baker of Lusk to be receiver of the land office at Douglas, Wyo. He also made the following postmaster nominations: Iowa—W. W. Artherhalt, Primghar; Emma T. Loos, Cascade.

Salaries for Meat Inspectors.

Senator Brown today called on the secretary of agriculture in behalf of the meat inspectors of South Omaha, whose salaries are less than $90 a month. Senator Brown has in these inspectors are competent and their salaries should be raised to $100 a month. The department is hampered by inadequate appropriations, but the secretary promised to make an investigation and, if possible, to allow an equitable salary for these men.

Segregating Wyoming Lands.

Governor J. M. Carey and Land Commissioner S. G. Hopkins of Wyoming had a conference with Secretary Fisher of the interior department today, urging more expedition on the part of the department relative to the Carey act segregating state selections. Secretary Fisher said he would give the matter his attention and endeavor to hasten matters now pending in the department in which Wyoming is interested.

New Postal Banks.

Postal savings banks will be established February 21, as follows: Nebraska—Battle Creek and Ulysses. Iowa—Adel, Alton, Garden City, Ligon and Oxford Junction. South Dakota—Aron and Summit. Wyoming—Saratoga.

Institute at Platte Center.

PLATTE CENTER, Neb., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—This was farmers' institute day at Platte Center and a large number were in town to attend these meetings. Dr. Charles H. Norfolk gave a lecture on breeding of horses and Mr. O. Hull of Alma talked on feeding boys for present. In the evening Prof. C. L. Opperman of Washington, D. C. gave an illustrated lecture on poultry and Mr. Hull gave his lecture on the farm home.

ALDRICH IS YET UNDECIDED

Not Sure Whether He Will Go on the Roosevelt Ticket.

CLARKE IN MR. AULD'S PLACE

Hastings Man Put on Ticket from Fifth District—Lobeck's Filing for Congress Returned for Correction.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Governor Aldrich was invited to speak in a secular vein this morning regarding his being placed on the Roosevelt ticket as a candidate for delegate-at-large to the republican national convention. John O. Yelzer of Omaha, who made the filing, announced the governor would doubtless be one of the candidates. As a matter of fact, however, it has been generally understood by all who have talked with the governor on the subject that he believes Roosevelt will be the nominee of the republicans, unless he positively refuses to accept. He has been outspoken, both in his declarations of admiration for the former president, but also in saying that party expediency made his nomination desirable. Whether he will accept the nomination as a Roosevelt delegate he is not saying at present, and from indications he will neither accept or decline until he has a little clearer idea of the Nebraska situation. All he would say today was, "They seem to be taking all kinds of liberties with my name of late, but I guess I can stand it."

On several occasions the governor is said to have remarked that if the Roosevelt boom ever got a start, and an intimation that he would accept was all that was needed to start it, La Follette would be swept aside.

Clarke in Auld's Place.

A. L. Clarke of Hastings has been named as a candidate for delegate to the republican national convention from the fifth district in place of Thomas Auld, who declined. The nomination was made by the executive committee of the Taft league. The Auld declination is the only break in the ticket, and the petitions are now being sent out, and it is expected they will be speedily returned and filed with the secretary of state. Secretary Currie of the Taft league has made a count of the replies he has received from letters sent to all the republican editors in the state sixty have answered as being in favor of Taft, fifty either did not answer or were noncommittal and only fifteen declared for La Follette or any other candidate in opposition to the president.

Congressman Lobeck, whose filing as a democratic nominee from the second district was returned for correction, has made the necessary change and returned the paper to the secretary of state.

Star Enters Deal.

Reduced to its essence, the disclaimer of the Star that it is to come out as a straight democratic paper apparently is that it resents any intimation that it will stand hitched to the democratic or any other kind of a wagon.

FARMERS OF DUNBAR TAKE INTEREST IN CORN SHOW

DUNBAR, Neb., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—A good corn show is on here in connection with the farmers' institute. The display of corn, wheat, potatoes and apples is first class, while the oats exhibit is the finest Judge Johnson has found this year. The people of this community show great enthusiasm in developing the resources of this county. One of the special features here today was the scoring of fowls before a large and interested audience by Mr. Shirley. He explained to his audience what the defects were and how to so mate to overcome them.

Golden Wedding at Geneva.

GENEVA, Neb., Jan. 25.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Kestler of this city
