Illinois and Iowa at Odds.
Secretary Sumner of the Iowa State Board of Medical Examiners has explained the situation which caused the break in friendly relations of the Iowa board with that of Illinois and refusal of the Iowa board to recognize Illinois certificates as good. A committee made personal investigation of the Illinois colleges and reported that as to the medical colleges in Chicago there were several leasing diplomas that are not up to standard.

The statement covers the operation of the arsenal during December and shows that while there has been no reduction in force, great economy has been effected and a large share of the saving has gone to the workmen in the shape of increased wages. The machinists came in for the largest profit, some of them increasing their pay as much as $30 a month, and the general average increase of the men in the machine shops being 21 per cent.

ALLEGED FORGER ARRESTED IN MARSHALLTOWN

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Jan. 31.—(Special)—What the police believe was the first of a series of attempts to victimize local merchants with forged checks, purporting to be issued by well known farmers near here, was prevented today in the arrest of a young man, a stranger here, who gave the name of A. B. Little. He was arrested at a clothing store while attempting to get cashed a check for $27.50 which was signed by E. L. Lane, a farmer. Lane says the check is a forgery and filed a complaint against Little, who was held to the grand jury. Leaves from a memorandum book which Little attempted to destroy, but which were recovered by the police, contained a list of names of well-to-do farmers living in Lane's neighborhood.

FURTHER HUNT FOR MAN PROBABLY MURDERED

SIoux CITY, Ia., Jan. 31.—A new effort to solve the mystery which surrounds the disappearance of David Fahrburg, a prosperous farmer of Clay county, South Dakota, who disappeared on the night of January 2 last, is being made by the Clay county authorities. The theory that Fahrburg was murdered by horse thieves at work in his barn is now generally accepted. Although a reward has been offered for the finding of the body, no trace of it has been found. Several suspects are being shadowed by the authorities and arrests are expected.
