Youthful Bandits Admit Holdups and Several Robberies

Four youthful thieves and "bad men" were arrested Friday morning at their homes by Detectives Donahue, Heitfeld and Elmore. They are charged with a number of burglaries and one holdup. The boys are said to have confessed to the police of their workings. They are Roy Davis, 128 North Twenty-fourth street; Percy Malcom, 202 Isard street; Patrick Teer, 1915 Spencer street, and Ernest Stehr, 1528 North Nineteenth street. They are all 17 years of age.

Among the "jobs" which the boys have confessed to doing are the robbing of the C. J. Carlson store at 1315 North Twenty-fourth street about two weeks ago when over $100 worth of merchandise was stolen.

Malcom and Davis confessed to the holding up on January 3 of Harold Bell to front of his home at 141 North Twenty-fifth street. Bell was struck over the head with a revolver and then robbed of $25 after which he was forced to give up the overcoat. The burglary of George Koor cigar store at 219 North Twenty-fourth street about three weeks ago is also the work of these youthful thugs. At this place the store over 1,000 cigars and $25 in money, saloons and pool halls were entered by the boys.

Fifty-Four Crops Reaped by Bouvier

A. D. Bouvier has raised fifty-four crops on the same piece of land in Nebraska, and he says he is going to raise thirty more crops on the same land. His farm is located one-half mile from Fort Calhoun, or five miles north of Florence. Mr. Bouvier, who looks more like a man of 60 than 70, came to Omaha in the spring of 1863, and in April, 1864, located a pre-emption near Fort Calhoun, his present home.

Mr. Bouvier has the distinction of now being the first white settler in the state of Nebraska, and one of his treasured possessions is a silver medal presented him by the Nebraska territorial pioneers. He has a brother and a sister living in Denver and his wife and two children live on the original farm. The other children live in California, Colorado and Iowa.

Busy Boys

Who live out of doors, need shoes of the better sort.

No boy can play out of doors these days in inferior shoes without risking his health. Don't buy cheap shoes—a low priced shoe has to be low in quality.

High grade material and honest workmanship make these shoes cost a trifle more than the ordinary boy's shoes. But they outwear two pairs of that same ordinary boy's shoes. 1 to 5½ $2.00
