

OMAHA GIRL AT WHITE HOUSE

Miss Carmelita Chase is Guest of Miss Helen Taft.

IN PRESIDENT'S BOX AT SHOW

Spends Week in Round of Dinners, Dances and Tea—She and Miss Taft Schoolmates at College.

Social Calendar. MONDAY—Junior club, leap year dance at Chambers; Miss Rose Coffman, dinner for Stanshaw-Park wedding party; Lincoln dinner at University club; Miss Ruth Berg, Sigma Chi club; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hovey, dinner for Mrs. M. M. McClanahan and Miss McClanahan; Tom Moore club, dancing party.

Guest at White House

MISS CARMELITTA CHASE

MISS CHASE SPENT LAST WEEK VISITING MISS HELEN TAFT AT THE NATIONAL CAPITOL.

An Omaha girl who has been having a delightful taste of social life at the national capitol is Miss Carmelita Chase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Chase, who spent last week as the guest of Miss Helen Taft in Washington. The week being the mid-year vacation at Bryn Mawr college, where the two young women before Miss Taft left were schoolmates.

All Our Skirts at Half Price

Russian Pony Coats Sold for $59.50 and $65.00

Beautiful Coats—made of full skins with Skinner or brocade linings, full length, will go in final Clearance at $29.50

1—$500.00 Hudson Seal Coat, final Clearance price... $225.00

All Fur Sets Half Price

wide dog collar of pearls with bands of diamonds set in platinum.

Mrs. Atkinson wore a beautiful gown of white satin with fishball train, the gown was draped with black Spanish lace.

Fine Art Exhibit.

The opening of the art exhibit given by the Society of Fine Arts will be next Saturday night, which will be society night. On this occasion the active and associate members of the society and a few invited guests will have a private view of the pictures which will be hung in the northeast room on the third floor of the public library.

The exhibit comprises fifty-five pictures by contemporary American artists and will be open to the public two weeks after the opening Saturday night.

Peru Club Dinner

The Omaha Peru club will give a valentine dinner party at the Young Women's Christian association Thursday, February 15, at 8 o'clock. Announcements have been sent out to about 150 and it is expected that at least 100 will be present.

President D. W. Hayes of the Peru Normal has accepted an invitation to be present and will make the principal address.

At Omaha University

The Freshmen of the University of Omaha entertained the other students at a "good times college" Friday evening.

This was the second of a series of social events being given by the various classes of the school and was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the year.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with blue and grey, the colors of the Freshmen class. The commencement address was delivered from the domestic science laboratory by Neal Parsons, president of the class.

The board of trustees who arranged for the costume were: Oldham, Palsey, Mildred Foster and Mabel Kelly.

The post gymnastic was elaborately decorated with flags and palms. In the receiving line were Colonel and Mrs. Buttler, Colonel and Mrs. Allaire and Mrs. Atkinson.

Mrs. Buttler wore a beautiful gown of soft lavender satin, the bodice draped with shadow lace, which also formed panels for skirt. A collar of seed pearls was worn with this costume and she carried a sheaf bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Allaire wore a dainty evening gown of white satin trimmed with hand embroidery and pearls. She wore a

The Bessie Wedding Book

February 12, 1912—Mr. Henry L. Bessie of Omaha and Miss Emma Meinecke of Jersey City, N. J. were wedded at the residence of the bride's parents.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with fishball train, the gown was draped with black Spanish lace.

The bridesmaids wore gowns of white satin with black Spanish lace.

The groomsmen wore suits of grey and black.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The dancing was held at the club house at Carter lake.

The honeymoon will be spent at the hotel in New York.

The bride's trousseau consists of many beautiful pieces.

The groom's best man was his cousin.

The officiating minister was Rev. Mr. Smith.

The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

The guests of honor were the bride and groom.

The guests of the bride were...

The guests of the groom were...

The wedding was a most successful one.

The bride and groom are now at the hotel.

The wedding was a most successful one.

The bride and groom are now at the hotel.

The wedding was a most successful one.

The bride and groom are now at the hotel.

The wedding was a most successful one.

The bride and groom are now at the hotel.

The wedding was a most successful one.

The bride and groom are now at the hotel.

The wedding was a most successful one.

The bride and groom are now at the hotel.

Miss Louise Rodat, of Columbus. Those present were: Misses—Louise Rodat, Eva Bagley, Anna Bland, Messrs—Charles Barbe, Will Zimmerman, Sam Gelston, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Anderson, Master Edgar Anderson.

The Dietz club gave its regular dancing party Wednesday evening at the club house at Carter lake. Those present were: Misses—Helen Swanson, Catherine Murphy, Nettie Schooley, Helen Planer, Helen Dent, Ellis, Margaret Post, Ethel Heisterickson, Norgard, Messrs—C. C. Currie, Henry Schlector, James Flanagan, Al Blauhaus, Ed Lattery, Clarence Sargent, R. J. Swanson, O. Stauffer, Bert Lynn, Al Kellstrom, F. C. Logg, Dr. Hayes Gaudner, Percy Gynne, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gaup, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Goff, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Jacobberger, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eden, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hewett, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Plattner, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Saunter.

Mrs. John Bubb of Fort Crook was hostess Saturday at a luncheon, when twelve guests were present.

Mrs. Sol Degen, who will give a series of bridge parties, entertained yesterday afternoon, when four tables of players were present.

Mrs. Hugo Brandeis entertained the Reading club Friday afternoon at her home, when the guests of the club were Miss Becker of Philadelphia and Mrs. Marks of Milwaukee. Eight members were present.

Miss Hilda Hammer entertained at dinner last evening for Miss Edith Patrick, Miss Standish and their wedding party. Those present were Miss Rose Coffman, Miss Hilda Hammer, Miss Edith Patrick, Kenneth Patterson, Harry Koch and Cecil Dixon of Chicago.

Miss Eugenie Whitmore entertained at a box party Saturday afternoon at the library to see Miss Robson. Those present were: Misses—Claire Helene Woodard, Louise Denting, Esther Byrne.

The alumnae chapter of Delta Delta Delta gave its regular monthly luncheon at the Hamilton Saturday. The members are: Madames—W. S. Rothery, Junod, Misses—Sally Shaw, Daisy Bonnell, Odell.

The Debts Unit club was entertained Wednesday by the president, Mrs. Ralph Carley. The house was beautifully decorated in hearts and flowers. The prizes were won by Mrs. Russell, Mrs. R. Carley and Mrs. Ralph Carley. Present were Madames Burke, T. W. Cox, B. Carley, R. Carley, J. B. Forrester, E. Grafford, Tom Newman, G. W. Roberts, Rawley, J. Munroe, J. R. Mason, Russell.

Mrs. George Timme entertained at dinner Thursday in honor of her niece, Miss Louise Rodat, of Columbus.

Mrs. J. Swanson entertained at a luncheon, when twelve guests were present.

Mrs. Sol Degen, who will give a series of bridge parties, entertained yesterday afternoon, when four tables of players were present.

Mrs. Hugo Brandeis entertained the Reading club Friday afternoon at her home, when the guests of the club were Miss Becker of Philadelphia and Mrs. Marks of Milwaukee. Eight members were present.

Miss Hilda Hammer entertained at dinner last evening for Miss Edith Patrick, Miss Standish and their wedding party. Those present were Miss Rose Coffman, Miss Hilda Hammer, Miss Edith Patrick, Kenneth Patterson, Harry Koch and Cecil Dixon of Chicago.

Miss Eugenie Whitmore entertained at a box party Saturday afternoon at the library to see Miss Robson. Those present were: Misses—Claire Helene Woodard, Louise Denting, Esther Byrne.

The alumnae chapter of Delta Delta Delta gave its regular monthly luncheon at the Hamilton Saturday. The members are: Madames—W. S. Rothery, Junod, Misses—Sally Shaw, Daisy Bonnell, Odell.

The Debts Unit club was entertained Wednesday by the president, Mrs. Ralph Carley. The house was beautifully decorated in hearts and flowers. The prizes were won by Mrs. Russell, Mrs. R. Carley and Mrs. Ralph Carley. Present were Madames Burke, T. W. Cox, B. Carley, R. Carley, J. B. Forrester, E. Grafford, Tom Newman, G. W. Roberts, Rawley, J. Munroe, J. R. Mason, Russell.

Mrs. George Timme entertained at dinner Thursday in honor of her niece, Miss Louise Rodat, of Columbus.

Mrs. J. Swanson entertained at a luncheon, when twelve guests were present.

Mrs. Sol Degen, who will give a series of bridge parties, entertained yesterday afternoon, when four tables of players were present.

Mrs. Hugo Brandeis entertained the Reading club Friday afternoon at her home, when the guests of the club were Miss Becker of Philadelphia and Mrs. Marks of Milwaukee. Eight members were present.

Miss Hilda Hammer entertained at dinner last evening for Miss Edith Patrick, Miss Standish and their wedding party. Those present were Miss Rose Coffman, Miss Hilda Hammer, Miss Edith Patrick, Kenneth Patterson, Harry Koch and Cecil Dixon of Chicago.

Miss Eugenie Whitmore entertained at a box party Saturday afternoon at the library to see Miss Robson. Those present were: Misses—Claire Helene Woodard, Louise Denting, Esther Byrne.

The alumnae chapter of Delta Delta Delta gave its regular monthly luncheon at the Hamilton Saturday. The members are: Madames—W. S. Rothery, Junod, Misses—Sally Shaw, Daisy Bonnell, Odell.

The Debts Unit club was entertained Wednesday by the president, Mrs. Ralph Carley. The house was beautifully decorated in hearts and flowers. The prizes were won by Mrs. Russell, Mrs. R. Carley and Mrs. Ralph Carley. Present were Madames Burke, T. W. Cox, B. Carley, R. Carley, J. B. Forrester, E. Grafford, Tom Newman, G. W. Roberts, Rawley, J. Munroe, J. R. Mason, Russell.

Mrs. George Timme entertained at dinner Thursday in honor of her niece, Miss Louise Rodat, of Columbus.

Mrs. J. Swanson entertained at a luncheon, when twelve guests were present.

Mrs. Sol Degen, who will give a series of bridge parties, entertained yesterday afternoon, when four tables of players were present.

has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Harry Nott, returned home Friday.

Mrs. Fullerton of Ottawa, Ill., arrived yesterday to be the guest for a week of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Doory.

Mrs. Ernest Stult has gone to Shelby, Neb., where she will visit for several days with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Potter.

Miss May Dillon of Chicago, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. J. McAdams, will be the guest of Miss Stella Murphy this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. McIntyre will move the first of March to Dundee, at 287 Cass street, the house built by George H. Gillespie about a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Hamilton and daughter, Evelyn, are staying with Miss Mae Hamilton until March 1, while their home is being redecorated.

Mrs. H. M. McClanahan and Miss Katherine McClanahan will leave next Thursday for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will visit for about six weeks.

Mrs. W. T. Robinson is at the Hotel Astor, Times square, New York, where she will visit her nephew, Mr. Warren Strode, who is in business in New York.

Mr. Conrad Young has gone to New York for a visit of two weeks with his family and on his return will visit his sister, Miss Gertrude Young, at the Baldwin school, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lomas left yesterday for San Francisco. Mrs. Lomas has been spending a fortnight at the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas J. Mackay.

Miss Margaret Adams of Jamestown, N. Y., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rosewater, is now the guest of Captain and Mrs. William Nesbitt at Fort Crook.

Miss Myrtle C. Cole, who by reason of illness has been confined to her room for eighteen weeks, is now able to be up and take short walks daily. Her ultimate recovery is now felt to be certain.

Mrs. George M. Ribbel and daughter, Marjorie, left Wednesday for Monterey, Cal., to visit Mrs. Ribbel's daughter, Mrs. John Pullman, and Lieutenant Pullman, who lately returned from the Philippines.

Miss Elizabeth Sweet left Wednesday for Biloxi, Miss., to join a house party with four other girls at the home of Miss Rebecca Smith, who was her guest here last fall. Miss Sweet will be gone about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weil and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Levy of Lincoln spent several days in Omaha last week en route to Chicago, where they will spend several weeks. While in Omaha they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Heifeld.

Miss Louwen will give a studio tea Friday afternoon and evening. An orchestra of twelve young men and women will furnish the music at an entertainment of dancing, pantomime and readings will be given.

Miss Elizabeth Sweet left Wednesday for Biloxi, Miss., to join a house party with four other girls at the home of Miss Rebecca Smith, who was her guest here last fall. Miss Sweet will be gone about two months.

Mrs. Draper Smith will leave February 24 for Chicago where she will join friends and go with them on a two month's trip through south and east. Down the Mississippi to New Orleans, from there by boat to Havana, through Jamaica in automobile, by boat to New York, then to Washington and Baltimore, through the Tennessee and Chattanooga mountains and back to Chicago, is the itinerary of the trip.

SCHOOLS PREPARE TO HONOR G. WASHINGTON

Several schools have begun preparation for the observance of the anniversary of the birth of George Washington, February 22. Not only day public schools, but night classes as well, will observe the day. At Kellom school the most elaborate program will be rendered, the program having been assigned. Pupils and teachers will take part in the observance.

KINDERGARTEN TEACHERS TAKE EXAMINATIONS

Twenty-five assistant kindergarten teachers took examination yesterday to qualify for directors. Those making highest grades will be promoted. Two teachers served over each kindergarten school. The director and the assistant teacher. The city is short of directors and the positions are to be filled by promotions from the ranks.

Advertisement for Orkin Brothers' Great February Clearance, featuring fur sets, coats, and dresses at half price.

