

OMAHA GIRLS ON THE STAGE

Many Have Made Good Behind the Footlights' Glow.

ACTIVE IN ALL THE MANY LINES

Tragediennes, Comedienne, Singers, Dancers, Acrobats and Clowns in the Long List of Talents Listed Here.

Mother Omaha has reason to be proud of her galaxy of attractive and talented daughters who as stars and lesser luminaries are acting, singing and dancing on the stage for the pleasure of audiences throughout the country.

Julia Nagel the Latest. The one who has most recently sprung into popular notice is Miss Julia Nagel, daughter of Mrs. M. A. Nagel.

Belle Goldsmith's Career. Belle Goldsmith, whose stage name is Helen Grantly, went through the Omaha schools, attended a dramatic school in New York.

Miss Allen a Song Bird. Vera Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Allen, is the latest of Omaha's young women of the stage to appear in her home city.

Leads in California. Another Omaha product beginning her career with bright prospects is Edna Levi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Levi.

Started in Local Stock. An Omaha girl played here in "School days" during the holidays. This is Laura Lantz, known as "Baby."

Our Sodoasis. Is a quiet, restful place for the tired shopper to get a light lunch and a cup of hot chocolate or Ceylon tea.

Sherman & McConnell Drug Co. The same service may be had at the Harvard, 24th and Farnam.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

On her typewriter and said farewell to office work and Omaha. Her first work in vaudeville was in "The Headliner," a skit which she herself wrote while in Omaha.

Maggie Lynch is known in vaudeville as Madge Fox, the Flip Flop Girl. As she was coming down a flight of stairs in a vaudeville act she accidentally tripped and fell the whole length, but to the great delight of the audience she landed on her feet and turned what promised to be a discomfiting defeat into a complete victory.

Mario Snowden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Snowden, began to dance almost as soon as she learned to walk. Sixteen years ago the 36th of last month she took her first lesson of Prof. Chambers.

Belle Goldsmith's Career. Belle Goldsmith, whose stage name is Helen Grantly, went through the Omaha schools, attended a dramatic school in New York.

Miss Allen a Song Bird. Vera Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Allen, is the latest of Omaha's young women of the stage to appear in her home city.

Leads in California. Another Omaha product beginning her career with bright prospects is Edna Levi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Levi.

Started in Local Stock. An Omaha girl played here in "School days" during the holidays. This is Laura Lantz, known as "Baby."

Our Sodoasis. Is a quiet, restful place for the tired shopper to get a light lunch and a cup of hot chocolate or Ceylon tea.

Sherman & McConnell Drug Co. The same service may be had at the Harvard, 24th and Farnam.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

tailed a part in "The Girl and the Kaiser" with Lulu Glaser. Now she is playing leads for the Pathé Freres Moving Picture Film company in New York and appearing in the same plays in New York theaters.

Vivian was determined to follow her sister's footsteps, and when George Cohen was here two years ago she sought an interview with him, was promised a place in his company and would have gone had her father consented.

Grace Cameron came from Falls City to Omaha to study voice with Mrs. Herman Kountze, then Mrs. Cotton. While here she had an opportunity to go with the Bostonians and after a few seasons with them went into vaudeville, where she now is.

May Naudan, who has left the stage since her marriage to C. H. George of New York, was one of the most popular of Omaha's adopted daughters. She came here from Blair, went through the high school and studied music.

May de Souza has climbed higher up the ladder of theatrical fame than perhaps any other Omaha girl. She came here from Chicago with a favorite nun and attended the Sacred Heart convent at Park Place.

Lucie Farish, who is at home this winter with her parents, First Chief and Mrs. Salter, had her first stage experience as a chorus girl. After attending the public schools and Brownell Hall, she went to New York and was taken into the chorus with Stella Mayhew in "Flo, Flo."

Bertha Malsson is also home this winter. She studied with Miss Fitch and took vocal lessons and last summer had her first experience on the stage in the Woodward Stock company in Kansas City.

Isabel Grace Morse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Morse, old settlers of Omaha, went with her parents when a young girl to Milwaukee to live. She studied dramatic art in New York and started out with May Robson in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary."

Laura Moore's Omaha friends have almost lost track of her. When last heard from here she was teaching in a school of expression in Switzerland. She is the daughter of C. B. Moore, in the wholesale grocery business here before moving to Madison.

Girls Who Grew Up Here. Besides the young women who claim Omaha as their birthplace, there are many on the stage who spent their girlhood here. Among these are Gwendolin and Vivian Pates, the pretty daughters of Frederick B. Pates, from whom they received their musical training.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

Winners in Vaudeville. Gustav Schmitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmitt, stepped from the business office to the stage on short notice.

the Krug theater Sunday matinee for a stay of a week. The first part opens with a burlesque, entitled "The Funny Janitor of Merry Town."

The one big supreme vaudeville feature with the "Honeymoon Girls" will be none other than Captain Arnaldo and his den of six creeping, sneaking jungle-bred leopards.

"The Warrens of Virginia," William C. De Mille's great play of the closing days of the war, will be the bill at the American this afternoon.

The five Hubby, cornetists and virtuosi on other musical instruments, will give a concert at the Young Women's Christian Association auditorium on the evening of Thursday, February 15.

A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

At the Theaters. (Continued from Page Four.) A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

At the Theaters. (Continued from Page Four.) A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

At the Theaters. (Continued from Page Four.) A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

At the Theaters. (Continued from Page Four.) A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

At the Theaters. (Continued from Page Four.) A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

At the Theaters. (Continued from Page Four.) A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

At the Theaters. (Continued from Page Four.) A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

At the Theaters. (Continued from Page Four.) A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

At the Theaters. (Continued from Page Four.) A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

At the Theaters. (Continued from Page Four.) A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

At the Theaters. (Continued from Page Four.) A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

At the Theaters. (Continued from Page Four.) A big fun, song and satire show is the "Merry Burlesquers," which comes to surprise in store for patrons at both performances today, the details of which he will explain from the stage.

KNIGHTS TO ENJOY BANQUET

Prominent Catholics from Nebraska and North Dakota Meet Here.

BISHOP M'GOVERN WILL TALK

Lincoln Day Exercises and Feast Will Occur at Home Hotel and Preceding Program There Will Be a Reception.

Fourth degree Knights of Columbus of Nebraska and South Dakota will hold their annual convention here Monday, commencing at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

In the evening the Lincoln day exercises will be held at the Koma hotel, beginning with a reception and closing with a banquet. At both the reception and the banquet Rev. Patrick A. McGovern, bishop-elect of Cheyenne, will be present.

Others speakers and their subjects will be: "Unselfish Courage," Rev. F. X. McMenamy; "Agents of Providence," John A. Bennet; "Spirit of Patriotism," Bishop McGovern; "Auld Lang Syne," C. J. Sneyd.

At both the reception and the banquet there will be something of an innovation, for upon these occasions, wives and friends of the members of the Knights of Columbus and their friends will be in attendance, participating in both of the functions, assisting at the former.

Acceptance to the banquet are coming in large numbers and the indications are that the capacity of the banquet hall will be taxed. This will be the first public address delivered by Bishop McGovern since the new honors have been bestowed upon him and his friends are anxious to see, hear and congratulate him.

The toastmaster for the occasion is Prof. Crowley of Creighton university. Key to the Situation—See Advertising. Judicious and persistent use of newspaper advertising.

The FAMOUS 2d Floor McGrover's New 5c and 10c Store Sixteenth and Farnam An Extraordinary Bargain Event Monday! 200 New Spring Sample SUITS and COATS $10-$15 ACTUAL $25.00 VALUES TOMORROW we formally open the spring season with the remarkable sale of new spring COATS and SUITS.

SLIPPER SALE AT FRY'S MONDAY Monday, February 12, we begin a sensational sale of fancy evening and dancing slippers. We are going to sell about 500 pairs of slippers at less than half price. They are black, gray, tan, blue, pink and white.

The DOCTOR'S ADVICE by Dr. Lewis Baker The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply to any case of similar nature. Those wishing further advice free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-Elizabeth, Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply.

HOSPE'S Sale of Exchange Pianos STILL more decided reductions in tomorrow's brisk opening of this record breaking sale, which has proven our ability to sell good pianos far below any other concern in Omaha. Tomorrow's Challenge Values: Bourne & Son Upright, ebony case, full 7 1/2 octave, in fine condition; cost new $125; $50; now $125. Erbe Upright, late style, Boston fall board, fine walnut case, cost new $150; $50, now $150.

BLANCHE SORENSON VOCAL TEACHER 304 BOND THEATER Tel. Karsny 2887 New pupils received Mondays and by appointment.