The Sale of Rugs and Linoleums that will take place at Brandeis Stores Next Monday and Tuesday Will Be the Greatest Rug and Linoleum Sale Ever Held by Any Store Anywhere.

Brandeis bought the entire stocks of rugs and linoleums from a retailer retiring from business. The rugs are all bright, new, spring patterns, rich in coloring and design; selected with careful discrimination and faultless taste.

All the Rugs on sale Monday

All the Linoieums on sale Tuesday.

Floor Space Larger than Floor Space of Auditorium. 85 Clerks.

Aiken, Looter of Mail Pouches, Pre fers Federal Prison.

Condition is that He Will Not Be

Confined in Penitentiary for Longer Than Period of

The anticipated confession of A. D. Aiken, alias Krutzinger, one of the mem-

Elghteen Months.

Ranger, and he has left the city.

and the contents removed to Pabst's house, where the letters were rifled and burned after the valuables had been removed. Aiken will make a formal confession this afternoon implicating Pabat been a municipal feature in Topeka since he went from the First Methodist church of Omaha to the First Methodist church of that city a year ago, and it made the need of a larger church imperative, according to the Central Christian Advocate, in an article on the dedication of the remodeled church and its new annex. Dr. Loveland, with a stirring sermon.

started a subscription campaign, says the Advocate, and as a result the church auditorium now has an additional seat-ing capacity of 200 and an annex has

The church was dedicated on January is and an that day $10,000 was subscribed, att. For sale by all druggists.

LOVELAND MAKES GOOD

and Kerns.

BRIEF CITY NEWS

Have Boot Print It.

Gas, Elec. Fixtures. Burgess-Granden If unable to get Booth's Guaranteed Canned Oysters of your dealer, call Doug-ias 63 for nearest dealer's name.

Twenty-One in the Field-Twenty-one candidates have filed for the nomination for commissioner, the latest being Eugene 12. Brando and Elbert Leamons. The petitions taken out to date number II4. C. F. Hyde, G. W. Hill and E. A. Clark are the last candiates to take out blanks.

Mrs. Stanberry Will Not Lose Pingers
-An erroneous report was given out that
Mrs. A. Stanberry, who had her fingers crushed in a mangling machine at the City Steam laundry Wednesday morning, had to have the injured members ampu-tated. The woman is in no danger of los-ing her fingers and her condition this orning was reported as being greatly Selma Ohlfs of South Omaha, for twenty-five years a cripple, has discovered a room. The packages are large and the method of making very naturally colored some instances their contents are valu-able, so the need of more adequate quarfruits and has placed specimens of cher-ries on the market for Washington's ters is keenly felt.

birthday boutonnieres. These are made of cotton. The Associated Charities is as-sisting the crippled girl in disposing of Puneral of Miss Welpton Priday-The funeral of Miss Marqueritte W. aged 16 years, daughter of J. W. ton of Ogaliais, will be held there Priday afternoon. Miss Welpton, who was a student of Brownell hall, died at Des Moines Tuesday, following an operation. Her father, J. W. Welpton, was formerly president of the Nebraska State Bankers association, and is a brother of Dougla Welpton of Omaha.

NIXIES DEPARTMENT AT POSTOFFICE IS GROWING

Larger quarters for the "nixle" depart ment of the Omaha postoffice will have to be provided for if the "nixles" con tinue to pour in at their present rate At present there are over 2,000 packages and about 10,000 letters that are im-

The Good of the Grain

Old Clarke Bourbon

Anti-Saloon League Attitude Toward Charles Nagel is Resented.

SEND PROTEST TO PRESIDENT

German-American Alliance of Nebraska Denounces League's Action as Unwarranted and Impertinent.

Nebraska Germans have made forcible esentment against the efforts of the State Anti-Saloon league, which seeks to prevent the appointment of Charles Nagel, secretary of commence and labor, to a seat on the United States supreme bench. The league, claiming to repre-sent 60,000 temperance people of the state, has forwarded to President Taft a pro-test against the appointment of Nagel, and new a counter protest comes from and now a counter protest comes from the German-American Alliance of Nebraska. The counter protest, which is in the form of a resolution, and signed by President Vai J. Peter and Segretary John Mattes, ir., has been directed to President Taft as follows:

"Whereas, The Anti-Saloon league of Nebraska, claiming to represent and act for 80.000 tamperance voters of this

Nebraska, claiming to represent and act for $0.000 temperance voters of this state, has taken it upon itself to forward to you a protest against the appointment to a justiceship of the supreme court of the Hon. Charles Nagel, the present secretary of commerce and labor.

"We hereby denounce their action as an invastrance and investigated and investigated."

nwarranted and impertinent interfer with your executive prerogative; and "Speaking advisedly for more than 60,000 voters of Nebranka, whose devotion to the cause of personal liberty we can vouch for, we beg to assure you that the appointment to a place on the suprema bench of Mr. Nagel, whose qualifications for that position and his splendid record in his profession, as well as a public officor, are fully recognized by a large ma-jority of the voters or this state, would be most heartly endorsed and appreciated by this alliance.

"We consider that the objections made by the Anti-Saloon league to Mr. Nagel'a appointment on the grounds that he has acted in a professional capacity for Adolphus Busch, one of the most public-spirited citizens of St. Louis, whose be-ROBBER EXACTS CONDITIONS nevolence and boundless charity is uni-versally acknowledged, and whose good ame is most highly honored on both of narrow-mindedness quite unprece-WILL ENTER PLEA OF GUILTY tempation by all fair-minded citizens.

"We have too high an opinion of the intelligence of Nebraska voters to believe that such narrow views could have

Young Society Folk bers of the Pruett-Pabat-Custin-Kerns gang of freight car hosters, has been conditionally made at Council Bluffs. It connects him directly with the theft Give Two Programs Friday at Studio and destruction of the registered mail pough, as well as a number of the others. The confession was considered to be sufficient by Postoffice Inspector tudio tea Friday afternoon and evening Ranger, and he has left the city.

Alkin's proposition is that he will go into the United States district court and plead guilty to the charge of assisting in the theft and destruction of the mall Interesting programs have been arranged Original pantomimes, readings and dance ing solos and duos will be given by the young society people of Omaha. The program for the afternoon includes: in the thert and destruction of the main bag and its valuable contents, including about $55,000 worth of bank drafts and checks, provided his sentence to the Leavenworth federal prison is not for a term longer than eighteen months. This is about equivalent to the remainder of is about equivalent to the remainder of the term he will have to serve in the state prison at Anamesa if he is turned over to the Iowa state authorities.

The matter was laid before United States District Attorney Temple Wednesday afterficon by County Attorney Capell, but he was unable to give any assurances until after a conference with Judge Smith McPherson. Alken has expressed the greatest aversion to being returned Biholm, Katherine Smyth, Josephine Piatner.

Wand Drill.
Digkle Stewart, Junior Nash, Mershon
Welch, Richard Welpton, Edgar Morsman, DeWolf Barton, Jasper Hall, Louis Metz, Harkness Kountze.
Reading—Rosebud's First Ball.

Lois Robbins.

American Beauty
Josphine Williams, Katherine Squier.
Pantomine—Scene in an Indian Maiden's Life.

Gretchen Langdon.

La Feria Arranged by Chalif
Pantomime
Miss Stubbs.

smith McPherson. Alken has expressed the greatest aversion to being returned to the Anamosa prison. He said if he went back there after making his con-templated confession his life would be made miscrable by the men, many of whom are friends of some of those who will be further implicated by his confes-

Pantomime
Catherine Barton, Charlotte Rosewater,
Eleanor Austin, Marjoric Cavers,
Gladys Prenica, Hazel Nichols,
Wadleigh Barton, DeWolf
Barton, DeWolf
Russian Dance-Screnata..., Moskoutaks
PART II.
Mosar Alken's prison record was received by County Attorney Capell Wednesday from the board of parole. He was sen-Don Juan Overture.....

tenced in the Polk county district court of May 28, 1998, to an indeterminate sentence of five years after conviction of bexcar robberies at Valley Junction, in.

He was received at the Anamosa prison

bexear robberies at valley Junction, in.
He was received at the Anamosa prison on June 1, 1999, and paroled on September 12, 1811, with fifteen months and five days of unexpired time to serve, after all deductions had been made. After his all deductions had been made. After his sentence he implicated another man named Lawrence, who he said helped him peddle out the stuff stolen from the merchandise cars. He had been working as a switchman at Valley Junction two or three weeks before his arrest. The

Reading—The Crow's Children

Helen Goodrich.
Pantomime—The Thief, "My Children
Cried for Bread".

Russian Pantomime Dance—Slavonic
Rhapsody
Miss Frances Nash, Mr. William Taylor,
Orchestra under the direction of Mr. H.
J. Hock. Pantomimes originated by the performers. Evening program follows:
PART I.

(a) English Suite.

(Prelude, Minuet I and H Gigue.)
(B) Cavatina

Mozart Cub.

Wand Drill. or three weeks before his arrest. The personal history of the man tells the usual story. He was born at Eureka. Nev., twenty-five years ago, and left home when he was 14 years old. In his railroad work he started as a fireman and then went to braking. He held thirty-three jobs while engaged in railroad work, and the parole board record shows all of the towns where he was located. Another incident, almost pathetic, is the reference to the death of the boy's father, J. E. Alken, at Eureka while the

La Feria Arranged by Chaliff
Miss Stubbs.
Reading-A Mortifring Mistake......
Motor March..... Yesterday morning Alken was taken out in an automobile by officers with a view to locating the sacks that were stolen from the Milwaukee depot. Alken is un-familiar with the streets and after nome difficulty the sacks were found in a well at 1998 South Eighth street. This place was formerly occupied by Pabst, whom Alken implicates in the robbery. The sacks had been ripped open with a knife

Miladi Caprice Ciub.

Miladi Caprice Ciare Daugherty.

Reading—The Minuet. Mary Mapes Dodgo
Eleanor Austin.

Rondon Caprice Science Austin.

Rondon Caprice Science Austin.

Rondon Caprice Science Austin.

Sudda Catherine Barton. Margery Menold, Hazel Nichols.

Pantomima—Scene in an Indian Maiden's Life.

Gretchen Langdon.

Eugen Onigan—Ekater's Walts.

Waldtenfal IN CAPITAL OF KANSAS Dr. Frank L. Loveland's preaching has been added to the building for the ac-commodation of a large Sunday achool and the young people's societies. Fifty thousand dollars was spent in the lim boarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Remedy as soon as the child becomes

We Announce for Saturday Only a special offering of the balance of our entire heavy weight stock of

Men's Suits at a price that will enable men to buy high class suits at an extremely low price

Hundreds of these suits are suitable for SPRING WEAR. This sale gives you an exceptional opportunity to purchase fine suits for little money

Rebraska Clothing Co.

Omaha's Largest and Best Equipped Clothing Store

Schmoller says:

"No piano house on earth ever sold high grade pianos at the prices offered during this sale."

Omaha Branch (Just Closed)

Read These Prices Carefully—Every one of them tells a story of saving which demands your immediate attention

MAKE YOUR OWN TERMS

Schmoller & Mueller Piano Co.

1811-1818 FARNAM STREET.

SHOW NEW BUSINESS WAGONS

Commercial Vehicle Display at Auto Show to Be Large.

NEW FIRMS ADDED TO THE LIST tors Auto Supply Company to Be Given Space on Stage of the

" wedtterium-Council Bluffs Firm is Added.

An elaborate display of commerci vehicles will be exhibited in the basems of the Auditorium at the automobile show next week. This end of the show, as well as all the other exhibits, is going to far excel in magnitude and beauty all previous efforts of the dealers.

The entire basement will be devoted to floor is to be used entirely for pleasur

One of the features of the commercia exhibits will be a Flanders "20" delivery wagon. This is the first car of this kind that the Studebaker corporation has wind that the Studenaker corporation has ever put out and is arousing much interest in automobile circles.

The Regel Sales company will not exhibit, as it was impossible for the factory to get out a late model of the Regel car. The company's space in the basement has been given to the Electric s the great king of cures, Dr. King's New Discovery, the quick, safe, sure cough and cold remedy. 500 and 51. For sale by Beaton Drug Co.

Railroad Manager

General Manager Silfer of the Great Western is in town, after having made a trip over the entire system of the road. Speaking of the outlook for a crop during the coming season, he says that through lows, Minnesots, Missouri and Illinois it is the best in years. The entire area for weeks has been covered by a heavy blanket of snow that is now slowly melting and the water soaking into the ground, putting the soil in spien-did condition.

Inspired by present high prices being public lands and buildings.

peid for all stinds of grain and farm Key to the Situation—Bes Ad

Sees Big Year Ahead continuing for an indefinite period, Mr. Slifer says that wherever he has traveled farmers are laying their plans for planting a large crop. He predicts that this year none of the farms will lie idle. but instead every acre of tiliable land will be cultivated to something that will bring good returns. As to business with the rails

Sifer says it is picking up wonderfully with every indication that it is going to ¶ Clarke Bros. & Co., the largest whiskey distillers in the world, for years have had the highest reputation for making a pure Rye Whiskey. Q For the past ten years they have manufactured a high-grade Bourbon and today present it to the general public for first time. I This Bourbon is manufactured from the highest quality of corn and small grain, a firstclass Bourbon in every respect. Its quality is guaranteed by Clarke Bros. & Co., the largest whiskey distillers in the world. Bottled in bond, 100 proof, under the supervision of the U.S. Government. ¶ Try Old Clarke Bourbon one time. That's all we ask, we leave the rest to your judgment. CLARKE MRS. & CO., Pearle, III.