Chinese Celebrate Beginning of the New Government

PEKING, Feb. 15.—The proclamation of the republic of China is being celebrated with enthusiasm in numerous cities, and no reports of serious disorders have come to hand.

General Li Yuan Heng, the republican military leader at Hankow, who was appointed vice president of the republic by Sun Yat Sen, urged the selection of Wu Chang as the capital of the republic. It is thought in some quarters that he is doing this with a view to assisting Yuan Shi Kai by dividing the republicans in the south.

NANKING, Feb. 15.—The republicans in celebrating news of his selection as president of the Chinese republic to Yuan Shi Kai at Peking informed him that he was second only to George Washington, who was the only other president of a republic who had been unanimously elected.

Wickersham Advised Prosecution of Two Drainage Engineers

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—A new interest was added today to the congressional inquiry into the Florida Everglades by the fact that Attorney General Wickersham had recommended grand jury consideration of the charges of transference of public funds against the recently dismissed officials of the agricultural drainage bureau, C. G. Elliott, chief drainage engineer, and his assistant, A. D. Murrehouse.

F. E. Singleton, chief accountant in the department, now under suspension, and R. P. Teale, formerly an accountant, also are involved in the papers sent by Mr. Wickersham to the local district attorney.

J. O. Wright, formerly an assistant to Elliott, was cross-examined today.

Solicitor McCabe of the Department of Agriculture filed with the committee a full list of congressmen who had been accompanied on speaking tours by experts of the department, but the committee excluded the list.

The list, it is said, indicated that the tours had not by any means been confined to campaign days.

Mysterious Death of Aged Millionaire is to Be Investigated

SAPTULPA, Okl., Feb. 15.—Examination of the body of William Berryhill, a millionaire producing oil land owner, who died suddenly yesterday, was begun today by physicians at the instruction of relatives who assert the belief that the man was the victim of foul play.

The aged man, father of Ames Berryhill, was found dead in his bedroom at the family home yesterday.

Sensational developments are expected when the final report of the physician is made. After a preliminary examination of the body the physicians had a conference. A more thorough investigation was decided upon.

FEUD WAR IN BREATHITT COUNTY IS REVIVED

JACKSON, Ky., Feb. 15.—A long slumbering Breathitt county feud was revived Thursday, when John Davidson and Levi Johnson were killed and another man wounded near Buckhorn, about twenty miles from here. The shooting was done from Sandlin's store, along the mountain road and five men are said to have participated.

Davidson recently was acquitted of the charge of murdering John Abner, who long had been identified with the Callahans of this section.

He was friendly with the Deatons, which has resulted in what is termed the Deaton-Davidson clan. The shooting today occurred within three miles of Ed Callahan's home. It is feared the trouble will bring on further resumption of hostilities.

FINGER PRINTS CONVICT NEGRO

Man Who Slew Clarence Hillier While Attempting to Rob Home Executed Despite Plea of His Attorney.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Five murderers were hanged in the Cook county jail today.

Thus more men suffered the extreme penalty than met death for throwing the Haymarket bomb in the anarchist riots of 1886. Two murders caused all five to walk to the gallows and drop to their death through the trap, while four were hanged for the Haymarket bomb throwing.

Frank Shilbawski, Emil Shilbawski, his brother; Philip Somerling and Thomas Schultz, slayers of Fred W. Guelzow, a truck farmer, whom they killed in cold blood after robbing him, died while their spiritual adviser was seeking to convince a judge that the four were insane.

Priest Tries to Save Lives. A Polish Catholic priest declared before Judge McKinley in the superior court that he believed the youths were insane. While the death march of the Shilbawski brothers was in progress in the jail office a hall from Judge McKinley's court sped to the jail office and summoned Judge Davies to court. But three minutes before the jailers arrived the Shilbawski had been swung into eternity.

Davies refused to obey the summons to the superior court. Instead, Chief Deputy Peters telephoned to the judge that two of the men had been hanged and that the executions of the other two would proceed unless a formal writ prevented.

No writ was issued and Summerling and Schultz followed their companions in crime on the gallows.

Judge Refuses to Stop Executions. The hanging of Thomas Jennings, a negro, who killed Clarence Hillier, while attempting to rob the Hillier home, came after Judge Landis in the United States district court had denied a petition for release on a writ of habeas corpus which set forth that Jennings had been convicted on forged evidence which he had been compelled to give the police in violation of his rights.

Judge Landis did not rule on the competency of the evidence, holding that the point if taken to the federal courts at all should have been carried directly to the United States supreme court from the state supreme court. It also declined to consider the evidence of the photographer that he had been asked by the police to retouch photographs of Jennings' finger prints and sharply criticized the man who made the affidavit for delaying to make his statement until the trial and appeals were over.

The five hangings caused many to discuss the abolishment of capital punishment in Illinois.

Murder of Guelzow Brutal. The men murdered Guelzow on the northwest side while he was on his way to market with a load of garden truck. Guelzow, who had been married a little more than a year, pleaded with his assailants to take his money but spare his life for the sake of his wife and month-old baby. Instead, his slayers attacked him with clubs, knives and revolvers. After they had killed him they disfigured his body. They were arrested while trying to sell Guelzow's horse.

The crime was committed October 20, 1911. The six were found guilty December 21. The punishment of the two youngest was fixed at life imprisonment and the other four at death. They were to have been hanged December 21, but Governor Deneen granted a stay until today.

Jennings was convicted of having murdered Hillier in the latter's home, September 19, 1910, on being discovered in the act of committing burglary.

FIELDS IS UNDER ARREST

Army Officer Who Led Squad Into Juarez in Custody.

MUST ANSWER FOR BLUNDER

War Department Decides to Deal Drastically with Man Who Nearly Caused International Clash.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The War department decided to deal drastically with Lieutenant Ben W. Fields of the Eighteenth infantry, who, in command of a squad of American soldiers, made the mistake of crossing into Juarez, Mexico, from El Paso, Tex., yesterday afternoon and nearly precipitated an international clash. Fields has been placed under arrest pending a further investigation.

While the War department is convinced that the mistake was due to the unfamiliarity of Fields and his men with the fact that the trolley car they boarded was to cross into Mexican territory before reaching its destination on American soil, it is desired that this fact be thoroughly impressed on the Mexican officials.

The Mexican government has promised the United States to protect the ten Americans now at Tlanahuac, state of Durango.

Street Cars Again Running

EL PASO, Feb. 15.—Street cars resumed running to Juarez this morning after a suspension of service for twenty-four hours as a result of American soldiers crossing into Mexico with their arms on a street car yesterday.

News reached Juarez this morning that Vasquez captured the town of Guerrero in Chihuahua last night.

Troops have been sent from Cananea into the mountains after the troops who rebelled there two nights ago. The troops have orders to show no mercy to the rebels if captured.

The company of state militia called out last night by the state adjutant, General Hutchins, was not called to arms today.

Scenes of havoc and desolation are observed for miles along the country roads. Houses and other buildings have collapsed, and among their ruins dead cattle lie in thousands. There also have been many human victims. Hundreds have been left destitute.

The government has sent $500,000 leaves of bread, 50,000 pounds of fish and 20,000 bottles of wine to the distressed people.

The negro sprang at Peterson as the convicts lined up for breakfast. When Peterson fell, he fled across the yard, encountering and stabbing Kaufman as he ran. As Delhantie stood at bay against the wall, Guard Duffy walked up to him and quietly asked for the file. The negro gave it up and went to his cell without resistance. Delhantie was sentenced for an unnatural crime.

American Woman is Charged With Bigamy in London

LONDON, Feb. 15.—A remarkable sequel has developed to the marriage between Horace Field Parshall of Milford, N. Y., the American capitalist-engineer, who is chairman of the Central London Tube railway, and Mrs. Deborah Jeffreys, which took place at Eltham registry office on May 8, last year.

The woman was arraigned yesterday at the Bow street police court on a charge of bigamy. She is very attractive and appeared before the magistrate in a handsome costume. In answer to the charges, she said:

"I am deeply sorry for what I have done. I would not have done it if my husband had not made me."

In a formal statement made to the court she declared that she first met Mr. Parshall in January, 1911, when she was presented as a widow. He afterward proposed marriage to her. Her husband, Herbert H. Jeffreys, from whom she was separated, urged her to marry Parshall for his money and threatened to kill her if she revealed to Parshall that she was married.

Mr. Parshall afterward received an anonymous letter in which his supposed wife confessed what she had done. The marriage was annulled by the high court.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 15.—Attorneys and representatives of the Standard Oil-Rockefeller interests who attended the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Waters-Pierce Oil company have been served, it was announced today, with subpoenas to appear Monday and give depositions regarding the methods employed by the Rockefeller interests in the reorganization of the Standard Oil company.

The subpoenas were served on M. M. Van Buren and Walter Taylor of New York, H. W. Stewart of Chicago and George N. Mayer of Kansas City. It is believed that the taking of the depositions will serve to stay the mandamus proceedings before Circuit Judge Kinsey tomorrow.

The mandamus proceedings are to force H. Clay Pierce and his associates, owners of the minority stock in the Waters-Pierce Oil company to certify the votes of the Rockefeller stockholders in the Missouri corporation. Pierce contends that the votes should not be counted, and in a statement his lawyers charged that the Standard Oil company was attempting to perpetuate a trust.

BIG PLOT SHOWN IN MANY LETTERS

Disclosures Through Forty Thousand Missives Alleged to Implicate Iron Workers.

EVIDENCE HITS PRESIDENT RYAN

All Defendants Charged with Guilt in Furthering "Jobs."

FOUR BILLS NOT YET PUBLIC

Accused Men Held Guilty of Illegal Transportation.

HOW CONSPIRACY DEVELOPED

Correspondence Tells About Part Played by Local Officers and of the Payments Made to McManigal.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 15.—New disclosures made in the dynamite conspiracy cases through 80,000 letters and telegrams quoted in the indictments as implicating practically all the officials of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers today, on which the government will seek to convict the fifty-four defendants who are charged with committing or abetting in almost 100 explosions.

The correspondence contained in one of the thirty-two indictments and embracing what are termed "unconsummated acts of conspiracy," is held as showing that a vast plot, known to and furthered by Frank M. Ryan, president of the iron workers, and to members of his executive board and many business agents, was carried on for six years to destroy the property of steel and iron contractors who employed nonunion labor.

How Plot Developed. It charges all the defendants with being equally guilty as abettors. It also purports to reveal evidence that "jobs" became the accepted term to be sent through the mail to designate some place that was to be blown up, and that gradually the officials of local unions began to call on the international headquarters in Indianapolis to assist by dynamite and nitroglycerin in increasing the expenses of "open shop" contractors. Orin E. McManigal, Herbert S. Hockin, second vice president, and James H. McNamara became, it is charged, an organized "dynamiting crew."

Letters are included to show regular fees were paid to McManigal, and that the cost of doing local "jobs" frequently was discussed in letters.

A letter from Orin A. Twitmore of the local union in San Francisco to J. J. McNamara in Indianapolis, after the Los Angeles Times disaster, urging "bigger Santa Claus" would be as kind and generous to you with surprises," is quoted to show the conspiracy spread from Boston to the Pacific coast.

Four More Indictments. Four more indictments, not yet made public, supplement the principal indictment containing the correspondence.

These indictments name all the fifty-four defendants as implicated in the general conspiracy and make these charges: "That, on thirty-four counts all the defendants are guilty as principals in illegal transportation of dynamite.

"That, on thirty-four counts, McManigal, John J. McNamara, James B. McNamara, James B. Hockin and James H. McNamara are guilty of illegal transportation of nitroglycerine, and all the other defendants are guilty of aiding and abetting them.

"That on sixteen counts all the defendants are guilty as principals in illegal transportation of nitroglycerine. That on sixteen counts McManigal, John J. McNamara, James B. McNamara and Hockin are guilty of illegal transportation of nitroglycerine and all other defendants are guilty of aiding and abetting them.

Hundred Twenty-Eight Counts. The wide scope of the thirty-two indictments, which contain in all 128 counts, is due, it is announced, to the theory of the government that the defendants' alleged guilt is equal no matter how small an individual's personal activity in the conspiracy may have been. Mr. Miller said it has been determined to press all the counts of the indictment against each of the defendants.

"The indictment setting out unconsummated acts of conspiracy, extensive as it is, in presenting a mass of alleged incriminating correspondence between the defendants," said Mr. Miller, "only summarizes typical acts. If we had chosen, this indictment might have been run into many more hundreds of pages. Forty thousand letters were seized in the headquarters of the International Iron Workers' association and from them the investigators chose evidence that we consider much more than sufficient to prove our case when offered in connection with corroborative evidence of wide extent and varied character. The freedom with which these men put on paper their plans, motives and the working out of their purposes is amazing."
