

Desperate Desmond

Gratitude Has No Place in a Real Villain's Heart Any More Than in a Serpent's

By Hershfield

I-HOW THE THREE ESCAPE. Having escaped from the horrors of the Forbidden City, Rosamond, Claude and Desmond now hasten along to get away from any possible pursuit. The villain for once is allowed to associate with the hero and heroine, for in the face of a common danger all differences must be forgotten, for the time at least.

II-THE PAUSE IS TOO FAST. As the three white people run along, Rosamond gradually begins to weaken. The brave girl can keep up the pace no longer. And Desmond, his lungs weakened by long years of cigarette smoking, also finds that the speed has winded him and he is ready to quit. Claude unselfishly thinks of a way to help both of them.

III-SAVED BY THE HERO. Gallant Claude: He has purchased two baskets from a Chinese merchant and, putting the yoke across his shoulders, picks up Desmond and Rosamond as lightly as if they were children. The hero's devotion to athletics and clean living now stands him in good stead, and he runs off with the others from their dread Chinese pursuers.

IV-APPROACHING THE CHASM. A yawning chasm now confronts the brave Claude as he carries his sweet-heart and the villain to safety. But Claude in his day has been a champion jumper, so this does not dismay him, and he calls to Rosamond and Desmond to remain steady, while he lifts them across the abyss in an antelope-like bound.

V-NOW FOR REVENGE. Just as the gallant Claude begins from the ground to clear the chasm with his human freight, a treacherous thought creeps into Desmond's mind. By cutting the rope which supports him, he will upset Claude's balance and cause the hero and Rosamond to tumble to their doom in the depth of the chasm.

VI-THE TRAITOR'S TRIUMPH. "T'm the boy!" cries Desperate Desmond, "and Claude's a falling star." The villain's plot has succeeded, and while he remains safely on land, Claude and the beautiful Rosamond go hurtling into the abyss. The traitor's contemptible trick dooms his benefactors, but he cares not so long as he is safe. Continued tomorrow.

WANT ADS

Want ads received at any time, but to insure proper classification must be presented before 12 o'clock m. for the evening edition and before 7:30 p. m. for morning and Sunday editions. Want ads received after such hours will have their first insertion under the heading "Too Late to Classify."

CASH RATES FOR WANT ADS. REGULAR CLASSIFICATION—One insertion 1 1/2 cent per word and 1 cent per word for each subsequent insertion. Each insertion made on odd days 1 1/2 cent per word, $1.50 per line per month.

Want ads for the Bee may be left at any of the following drug stores—one is your "corner drugist"—they are all branch offices for The Bee, and your ad will be inserted just as promptly and on the same rate as at the main office in The Bee building, Seventh and Farnam Streets.
