Five Petit and One Grand Jury at Work

Five law juries and one grand jury were working in district court yesterday. Lawers say they are satisfied the judges of district court were not "bluffing" the first of the year when they said the gocket must be cleared, and attorneys must try their cases or dismiss them. The damage suit of Charles A. Eppa sgainst Charles C. Burdge for $30,000 for meing him the loss of his position by trying to collect an alleged unjust acis being tried before Judge Estelle. Before Judge Day a suit to collect on a note is being tried. Damage actions are being tried before Judges Sears and Kennedy, and Presiding Judge Sutton is try-ing the Dooly murder case.
