OMAHA is proud of The Iten Biscuit Co. It is one of the west's greatest industries, occupying its own concrete five-story sanitary building a quarter of a block square and giving employment to a veritable regiment of bakers and packers. For their heavy Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs deliveries they did not at first use a Kelly truck. The experience of others, however, convinced them it was best. Now they know, for they are using the Kelly truck with perfect satisfaction.

TRIMBLE BROS., wholesale fruit company, require three Kelly trucks to deliver their orders. Please don't think three trucks are required because the trucks don't give the remarkable service claimed for them. Nothing of the sort. The Kelly truck does its work rapidly and surely and the fact that Trimble Bros. require three is simply a very potent indication of the immense volume of business this firm transacts. The fact that they purchased one Kelly truck, used it and after thorough trial bought another and then still another is about as strong an indication of its merit that one could ask.

SOME furniture from Orchard & Wilhelm's store is in nearly every Omaha home. If it has been purchased during the last year and a half a Kelly truck probably brought it to the purchaser's door. The fact that the Kelly truck has been fully as satisfactory to Orchard & Wilhelm as has been their merchandise to the customers of this big house is most worthy of note. The Kelly truck has given magnificent service to Orchard & Wilhelm during all sorts of weather and under unusual conditions.

Perhaps the greatest aid they have in giving their excellent service is their Kelly truck.
