

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR HERE

John Barrett Comes to Attend the George Washington Dinner.

SPEAKS ON WORLD SUBJECTS

Barrett is Recognized as One of the Foremost Diplomats and is Credited with Uniting South American Republics.

John Barrett, diplomat, statesman and president of the Pan-American union, attended the annual George Washington day dinner at the Omaha club last night and will speak to school teachers today.

Speaking of the exclusion laws in this country against the Chinese and the Japanese Mr. Barrett said we were facing a grave question. "These two countries could get together and say, 'Now what will you do about it?'"

For years he has studied the republics of Central and South America and sought all the time to seek some method of promoting the common interests of the United States and these smaller states.

The union is for the purpose of promoting the welfare of all the countries in it," said Mr. Barrett, "commercially especially."

Mr. Barrett believes that another evidence of the "world-wide movement toward democracy" is the Chinese revolution. He has "great hopes" for it.

Referring to the work on the Panama canal, Mr. Barrett said the much ado about the earth slides there was all foolishness. "These slides are blessings in disguise."

Mr. Barrett believes that another evidence of the "world-wide movement toward democracy" is the Chinese revolution. He has "great hopes" for it.

The distinguished visitor comes as the guest of the Omaha club and will deliver an address at their annual dinner tonight. He will discuss the benefit that will be derived by the central west from the Panama canal.

Eggs are Advanced Four Cents a Dozen

Eggs advanced yesterday 4 cents a dozen, both wholesale and retail. The wholesale price is now 28 cents and the retail price ranges from 28 to 32 cents.

The frequent advances in the wholesale price of sugar have finally affected the retail price and sixteen pounds of sugar is the largest quantity offered for $1. Wednesday it would buy seventeen pounds.

DESCENDANT OF WASHINGTON NOW LIVING IN OMAHA

There is a real live descendant of the Washington family in Omaha—that is Miss Laura Fairfax Plummer who lives at Fort Crook and whose father, the late Major Plummer, served through the civil war.

Miss Plummer is descended from the Washingtons on her mother's side. Her grandmother, Lucy Washington of Winchester, Va., was a third cousin of George Washington. Her great-grandfather, Whiting Washington, who was second cousin to George Washington, was only 25 years of age when the great president died.

The key to success in business is the judicious and persistent use of newspaper advertising.

Benefit Ball for Striking Shopmen

Modest, retiring milkmaids, dashing knights, clowns, negro characters, policemen and scores of other unique figures crowded the floor at Washington hall at the masquerade dance given last night for the benefit of the federation of Union Pacific strikers.

The ball was attractively decorated and with the gaudy colors of the dancers' costumes, the scene was a fascinating one.

DRY CLEANERS EAT AND CHOOSE NEW OFFICERS

Members of the Nebraska-Iowa Dry Cleaners' association held their annual banquet and election last night in the Dutch room of the Grand hotel at Council Bluffs, with about twenty members from Lincoln, Sioux City, Omaha and Council Bluffs in attendance.

The following officers were elected: President, W. H. Hensley, Omaha; Vice president, Raymond Cook, Council Bluffs; Treasurer, G. A. Schoedack, Council Bluffs; Secretary, Fred Wilmoth, Omaha.

The selection of the next meeting place rests in the hands of a special committee, which did not make a report last night. Considering that the association is but in its infancy, the attendance last night is considered very good, say members of the organization.

BLOOD STAINS ON COAT: HE'S HELD FOR SLUGGING

What are apparently blood stains on the coat of Archie Edwards, a negro of 411 North Thirteenth street, make sufficient evidence to hold him in connection with the slugging and robbing of Chris Koleff, the South Omaha youth who was found unconscious in the street by the Midway saloon Monday morning.

Bertie Jackson, a negro woman who was arrested shortly after Koleff was found, is also being held by the police. Detective Sullivan found story stains on the front of her cloak.

Edwards live in the same house. Koleff is still in a precarious condition at St. Joseph hospital. Police Surgeon T. T. Harris says his patient is showing slight improvement, but is not out of danger.

AVERY 2-TON TRUCK

This Avery Truck was put into service August 19, 1911, by the Jewell Stoneware Co. They write us it has seldom cost more per month to operate than it would cost to feed one team of horses.

Motor trucks are measured by service and evidence proves and emphasizes this form of transportation should receive your serious consideration. Before you buy a truck investigate the Avery and find out from actual users the kind of service Avery Trucks are giving.

Johnson-Danforth Co. S. W. Cor. 10th and Jones—on the Viaduct.

They all say it:

When you see the automobiles today at the Auditorium— When you look them up one side and down the other— When you know the whole truth about all of them— You will say with the rest: "The Mason is the greatest car of them all."

The Mason represents so much value— Its claim to superiority is so undeniable— Its actual performance is so indisputable— Its great worth so recognizable— That nobody, who knows, wonders at its sales which reach from one end of the country to the other—

The Mason is the champion hill climber of America. It has demonstrated everywhere and all of the time its great endurance, speed, reliability, power and marvelous economy.

We are demonstrating daily on the streets of Omaha. We offer $50 cash for any make of car that will carry the same number of passengers up the Mason incline that the Mason does—commercial or pleasure. We shall be glad to take you out and show you.
