ATTELL LOSES TO KILBANE

Cleveland Pugilist Has Better of Fight All the Time.

NEW FEATHERWEIGHT CHAMP

Winnace Leaves Ring with One Mark Over Eye, While Former Champion is Badly Bruised and All In.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 22.—A new featherweight champion was proclaimed here today when Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland, O., clearly outfought, out-gamed and outboxed Abe Attell, the hitherto invincible champion.

Round 1—Both men walked slowly to the center. After sparring they clinched and Kilbane got in a hard right to the jaw on the left corner. For the next minute both men stood in the center and a blow was exchanged. Then they clinched and Kilbane got a left and a right to the jaw. He was quick as lightning. They clinched again and Attell missed a right.

Round 3—They clinched and Kilbane complained to the referee that Attell held on to his arm. Attell held on and at the break dodged a vicious left, only to encounter a hard right. Each man was fighting roughly. The next clinch Attell was warned for "heeling." Kilbane put right and left to the face. The bell rang with the men clinched. Kilbane's round.

Round 4—They came to the center slowly and Kilbane jabbed three blows. Attell tried to clinch, but ran into a hard right. The boys clinched and wrestled about the ring. Kilbane won the first round. Attell's one. The crowd booed at Attell for holding in a clinch. Attell, backing away, motioned for Kilbane to come out, to which the Cleveland responded with a stiff left to the jaw. Round even.

Kilbane Hits Sore Eye. Round 5—Attell's left eye was swollen and nearly closed and Kilbane kept pecking at it. Attell continually clinched and held on. The spectators yelled to him to fight. Kilbane backed off still hammering at Attell's sore eye. The round which was even ended with the lads in a clinch. Kilbane showed more speed on his feet than did Attell.

Round 6—Kilbane twice jabbed Attell's bad eye. He then rushed, but was stopped by a stiff left to the mouth. Attell's first hard blow. They then exchanged long arm jabs. Kilbane rushed and received a hard left to the jaw. The balance of the round was one long clinch with round honors even.
