

For the WOMEN FOLK

Tea at Art Exhibit

The exhibition of American art pictures at the public library by the Society of P. A. Arts has become quite a social as well as artistic treat from the moment of opening afternoon tea for all the visitors invited by the society Thursday.

Throughout the remainder of the exhibit the tea will be served Saturday, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. M. T. Taylor is chairman of the committee, and the tea together with Mrs. C. W. Lyman, Mrs. Theodore Blawie, Mrs. Charles Offutt, Mrs. Thomas Chase, Mrs. Victor Callahan, Mrs. A. J. Love, Mrs. George Voss and Mrs. J. M. Wyman will be hostesses. The women of the exhibition committee, Mrs. Lawrence Childs, Mrs. Byron Jackson and Mrs. Warren Blackwell are at the exhibit most of the time to aid visitors looking at the pictures.

C. H. S. Activities

With the beginning of the new school year high school social clubs have started activities with renewed interest and every Friday and Saturday hereafter afternoon and evening parties will be in vogue. The students who are otherwise bent are limiting themselves to afternoon affairs.

From the records of students who received grades above 90 per cent for the first term ending this month, it is estimated that those who have been attending social functions are just as high in class work as the other students. One of the leading girls' social clubs has a total of eight out of twelve members whose names were on the honor list.

Many of the clubs have been planning new members and one new organization has been added to the list, the Triplex club, composed of freshman and sophomores girls.

Miss Doris Lindley entertained the Elks club this afternoon. The members sent a bouquet of carnations to Miss Lenore Huse, a junior member who has been ill the last four weeks. Those present this afternoon were:

- Misses—Charlotte Redwell, Maurice Burckhardt, Kathleen Pearson, Mildred Collins, Jenny Lee.

The Ky Lass club, one of the senior girls' social clubs, was entertained this afternoon by Miss Lois Howell. Those present were:

- Misses—Juth Clark, Adelaide Funkhouser, Clem Dickler, Adele Wood, Claire Patterson, Helen Payne, Florence Heggblade, Ullah Renner, Katherine Davenport-Louis Howell.

Weddings

Husband-Grouse.
The wedding of Miss Edith Grouse to Mr. Edgar Hubbard was celebrated Wednesday evening at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. George King, Rev. E. R. Curry of Calvary Baptist church officiating.

The bride wore white cashmere crepe trimmed with silver lace. The trousseau was held in place with lilies of the valley and she carried bride's roses.
Miss Henrietta Tulp was bridesmaid and wore pink silk mull. She carried pink roses. Mr. George Hubbard, brother of the groom, was best man. About 100 guests were present.
Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard will reside at 208 Decatur street.

For the Future

One of the larger parties this evening at "The Jolly Musketers" at the Brandeis theater will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dumont and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Draper Smith.

To Stay Skirt Placket.
A good way to keep a skirt placket from tearing out at the bottom is to sew on a hook and eye at the extreme end of the placket, fasten and then crush them flat.

Letting and Onion Salad.
Four crisp leaves of head lettuce, two small Spanish onions, four sticks celery, one-half cup French dressing.
Place a lettuce leaf on each salad plate. Slice onions very thin and place upon lettuce. Pour French dressing over the salad when ready to serve.

Pleasures Past

Miss Katherine Benson was the hostess this afternoon for the meeting of the Debutante Bridge club.

Mrs. Harry Tukey entertained informally at two tables of bridge yesterday afternoon at her home in honor of Miss Blanche Gatten of Lincoln, guest of Miss Ethel Tukey. Two tables of players were present.

Several small theater parties were given last evening at the Bopd theater, where the attraction was "Madam Butterfly." Mrs. Elsbower's guests were Mrs. H. W. Yates, Mrs. J. L. Webster, Mrs. Rebe Morgan, Mrs. James McConna and Miss Carolyn Johnson of St. Joseph.

Mrs. Clarence Peterson entertained the W. W. club Wednesday. The decorations consisted of the national colors, miniature flags and bunting being used. Besides the members the guests were Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. C. M. Cochran, Mrs. C. W. Fictler, Mrs. E. E. Stephenson and Mrs. Lew Dopp. The next meeting will be March 6 with Mrs. L. B. Scott.

Mrs. Samuel North and Mrs. George Tundcliffe were hostesses today at the luncheon given by the Ladies Aid society at the First Presbyterian church. Luncheon was from 11:30 to 1:30 o'clock.

Miss Alfred C. Kennedy entertained at an informal reception this afternoon. The guests of honor were Mrs. Clinton Brown and Miss Margaret Frankel of Pittsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. McDonald entertained delightfully at bridge last evening at their home on Thirty-eighth avenue for a number of their neighbors. Prizes were won by Miss Moorhead and Mr. J. M. Harding. Those present were:

- Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Squier, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Moorhead, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Carpenter, Mrs. Charles Harding, Miss Catherine Moorhead, Mr. J. M. Harding.

No sudden times were in evidence at a massive party last evening given by the Misses Gene and Shurtieff at the home of the former. The rooms were artistically decorated in the national colors and miniature George Washington favors were given. Those present were:

Personal Gossip

A son was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Redick.

Mrs. W. T. Robinson, who has been visiting in New York, is now the guest of relatives in St. Louis.

Mrs. Arthur Graffis of Detroit is expected the latter part of next week to visit her sister, Miss Adele Moore.

Mrs. W. D. Perchall has been called to Akeley, Ia., by the critical illness of her father, who is nearly 90 years of age.

Miss Blanche Gatten of Lincoln, who is the guest of Miss Ethel Tukey, will remain until the middle of next week.

Mrs. George P. Moore of Kansas City, formerly of Omaha, is visiting Mrs. O. D. Kiplinger. Many informal affairs are being given in her honor.

Mr. H. D. Neely left Friday for San Antonio, Tex., where he will join Mrs. Neely. They will visit New Orleans and Cuba and so to California by the southern route and will return to Omaha early in April.

Word has been received in Omaha that Mrs. Henry E. Palmer, wife of the late Captain H. E. Palmer, is seriously ill in New York with pneumonia. Mrs. Palmer is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Herman Kountze, 24.

A spoonful of whipped cream is a tasty addition to any cream soup. Add it to the top of the cup just before serving.

FASHION HINTS

Double faced material is used for this top coat, a quiet plaid showing at the turning of the revers, collars and cuffs. Its claim to special notice is in the extra long revers, and the buttons just three, very close together.

GREGORY FIGHTS FOR HONOR

South Dakota Town Would Restrain Land Opening Headquarters.

WINNER MAKING STRONG PULL

Citizens Living Along Union Pacific in Nebraska Send Petition to Congress Asking Right-of-Way Be Not Enlarged.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—(Special Telegram)—Congressman E. B. Martin has received a telegram that a delegation from Gregory, S. D., representing the Commercial club, is on its way to Washington for the purpose of retaining at Gregory the headquarters for the government in connection with filing on lands to be opened in McPherson county in April. Gregory won in the fight two years ago. The town of Winner is making a hard fight now because it is nearer the new lands on the extension of the Northwestern railroad recently completed. White River claims it should be selected being still nearer, though off the railroad. Murda of the Chicago & Milwaukee is another active contestant.

Examination for Iowa.
A certificate has been issued by the War department to Arthur Bauman of Council Bluffs, Congressman Green's appointee to West Point, directing him to take his examination at Leavenworth, April 15. Mr. Green's Annapolis appointee, Edward P. Sauer of Council Bluffs, is now in preparatory school at Annapolis, getting ready for his final to be held at Washington shortly. Both appointees have passed their physical examination, which was conducted in Omaha following their appointment.

As Nebraska member of the national republican congressional committee, Congressman Kinkaid last night attended the dinner at the Willard given by the committee in honor of William McKinley of Illinois, pre-convention manager for the Taft forces.

Petitions Sent to Congress.
Senator Brown has received a lengthy petition from Lincoln county citizens protesting against the present application of the Cary act. It was introduced in the senate and referred to the public lands committee.

The senator also presented a petition from citizens of Creighton, Nebraska, the acquisition of a parcel post law, as a memorial from residents of Schuyler, Oacoola, Blair and Beaver City, favoring the federal pay bill for state militia.

Resolutions of the Lincoln labor union have been sent to several members of the Nebraska congressional delegation asking them to support the Pepper bill which forbids any factory from threatening to close during a presidential campaign should certain parties or candidates be successful.

The senate yesterday confirmed the appointment as postmaster of Joseph G. Alden, Aurora, and Daniel N. Wender, Blue Springs.

E. P. Right-of-Way Case.
Senator Brown presented to the senate today the petition of citizens living along the Union Pacific right-of-way in Nebraska calling on congress to quiet title in them to lands lying adjacent to the road. The matter is now before the house, a bill introduced about six weeks ago, at which time each member received a copy from the attorney for the Valley Farmers' Protective association, with the request that it be enacted into law.

Recently a hearing was had before the house judiciary committee and W. A. Prince of Grand Island, appeared for the farmers, the Union Pacific being represented by Solicitor Loomis of Omaha.

Under the original grant by congress the Union Pacific was given 60 feet, though until recent years only 20 feet was claimed. In many cases, however, it is alleged that suits have been instituted for a greater width and the bill is to quiet this litigation. The amount involved is said to approach $2,000,000.

Taylor's Bill Approved.
The house committee on public lands today reported favorably the bill of Mr. Taylor to extend three years the time within which settlers on the desert land need not prove up in case where failure to prove is the result of mixtures or other circumstances not due to the settler's negligence or immediate fault.

The provisions of the bill affect lands lying in Wyoming, Colorado and South Dakota, and, incidentally, certain portions of Nebraska.

H. W. George of Broken Bow, retired capitalist, is at the Howard hotel and will be in Washington for about a week. He says he is on his way to visit the Holy Land and will incidentally sojourn in other parts of the world before re-
