Their Caucuses in All the Precincts

Republican caucuses were held in all of the precincts last night to select dele-gates to the county convention, which will eet here on March 5 to choose delegates to the state and Ninth district ventions. The chief interest centered in that feature of the caucuses that repre-sented the contest for delegate to the national republican convention. There were two candidates, Frank F. Everest who were not members of the unsocia- and Robert B. Wallace. Mr. Everest won in all of the precincts with the exception of the first of the Sixth, where the west enders declared their allegiance to Rooseveit. In all of the other precincts it was M. Wells of the Red Oak Express, and a Taft victory so far as it could go in that direction.

In the First of the Sixth there were forty-six votes cast and thirty-three of them were for Teddy, the Everest-Taft ticket getting only thirteen. Which of the two candidates the delegates will favor in the county convention is not known, but as their votes cannot in any measure affect the endorsement of Mr. Everest little interest is attached to this in the regular edition of the pasts of all of also went a step farther than any of the the forms were sent to the Inland Printer other precinct managers and dipped into other precinct managers and dipped into local politics, passing a resolution endorsful urn, standing nearly a foot high on ing the candidacy of W.
