LA FOLLETTE'S NAME FILED

Secretary of State League Makes Record Straight.

STILL ADHERES TO DEAL MADE

Bishop Thibau Will Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon to Graduating Class of State University This Spring.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Feb. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—F. P. Corrick, secretary of the Nebraska La Follette league, this afternoon filed a petition to have the name of La Follette placed on the primary ballot as a preferential candidate for president.

In making the filing he issued a statement in which he says that in doing so he performs a duty to the many friends of the Wisconsin senator and his promise to the organization formed in his interests.

"It is perhaps necessary to say, in view of the many assurances given recently by the senator and those authorized to speak for him," said Mr. Corrick, "that he will remain a candidate until the nomination is made in the republican national convention. I wish also to say that the managers of Senator La Follette acquiesce in the work of the progressive republican conference held in Lincoln February 12 and will aid in securing the election of the ticket there agreed upon."

Among the avowed Roosevelt men in the city, such as Governor Aldrich, it is not thought likely a separate Roosevelt ticket will be put up, but that they will concentrate their energies in obtaining a preferable vote in his favor.

There are about 300 names signed to the petition filed this afternoon, but Mr. Corrick said it was the intention to file others as rapidly as they were received at headquarters.

Wait Yet Undecided. Secretary Walt said today that notwithstanding reports that have been circulated he had not decided what he would do in regard to putting a designation after the names of candidates for delegates to the national conventions other than the simple party designation.

One thing, however, he did say and that was that any designation put after a candidate's name must be at the request of the candidate and not that of managers of any faction of a party.

J. S. Ferguson of Custer county, who some time ago wrote the secretary of state indicating he intended to file as a candidate for the United States senate, has written again to show that he has not abandoned the notion. He sends in a copy of a petition and wants to know if it complies with the law.

Walt will send him a printed copy of the petition and doubtless he will have it signed and returned. Mr. Ferguson is a farmer and surveyor by profession and a candidate for office by habit.

He has not always been particular which party ticket he ran on, only so that he was in the running, at least when the entries were sent away. Up to date he has never been placed in the final, but he is possessed of the persistence of a Bruce or a Wallace.

Chester L. Hill of Gage county has filed as a republican candidate for representative from the Thirty-fourth district. Clifford J. Norwood has entered for the democratic nomination for senator from the Eighteenth district. He resides in Greeley county.

Imported Birds Are Safe.

Investigation by the game warden shows that the Hungarian and Mongolian pheasants which are in pens at Antelope park in this city passed through last night's storm without any inconvenience.

Bishop Chosen by Class.

Dr. Rev. Henry Thibau, Catholic bishop of the Lincoln diocese, has been selected to deliver the baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class at the University of Nebraska.

Testimony as to Values. The storm and late trains interfered with the forenoon session of the Union Pacific valuation hearing today before the State Railway commission.

The afternoon was taken up by the railroad company with testimony to show that the severance value of realty for railroad use was from two to two and a half times its actual value in the cities and three times that amount in the country and villages.

Oil Inspector's Report. The January report of Oil Inspector Houscarter shows that he had a cash balance January 1 of $1,500 and that receipts for the month brought the total up to $1,915.50. Salaries and expense amounted to $1,232.22 and he paid to the state treasurer $1,724.18.

There is a balance of uncollected fees amounting to $12.50 and there was collected during January $1,000.00.

Royce Comments on Banks. H. F. Royce, secretary of the banking board, looking over the reports of the condition of Omaha national banks, as evidenced by reports from the recent call, commented on the increase of practically $4,000,000 in deposits in those banks, as compared with the last preceding statement, and said it certainly indicated a strong condition for Nebraska banks, especially if other national banks in the state showed up in the same light.

As no call has been issued for the state banks, he has no exact information regarding them, but from incidental reports and the work of his examiners he is confident they are all in a healthy condition and that deposits in country banks will show up high in spite of the short crop of last year.

This is in strong contrast with the condition, comparatively, a few years ago, when all Nebraska was living on a hand-to-mouth basis.

Publication of Amendments. Governor Aldrich is in receipt of many letters asking why the publication of notices of the constitutional amendments has not been commenced, as the date of the primary is approaching.

He calls attention to the law which says the notices shall be printed for thirteen consecutive weeks preceding the November election, which would make the date of the first publication some time in August.

The papers which will print these notices will be designated by the governor and this will be attended to in due time. Formerly such notices were sent out by the secretary of state, but a democratic mandamus writ and the lower court granted the request, but the city has appealed.

George Thresher of Scotts Bluff county has appealed from a sentence of eight years for assault and the supreme court has granted a stay of execution pending the determination of the appeal.

Shriver Referred to English. The attorney general's office, while not declining to answer the question of County Assessor Shriver of Douglas county, preferred through Henry Seymour of the State Board of Assessment, has intimated that this office would prefer Mr. Shriver get an opinion from the county attorney of Douglas, who is his legal adviser.

In the first place the attorney general's office does not desire to step in over the head of the county attorney and in the second place the office has all it can do without going into affairs which could be disposed of elsewhere.

Marriage Ends Prosecution. Peter J. Coront, a Greek, and Leonia Walters, a native of Nebraska, were married in police court this morning. They were arrested Sunday on a charge of disorderly conduct and in consideration of their having the marriage ceremony performed they were discharged.

Defendant Snowbound. John P. Harris was to have been tried today in the district court on the charge of murder, but the case was not called on account of the nonappearance of the defendant, who is out on bail. He has been at his home in Illinois and the storm delayed the train. It is expected he will arrive this evening or tomorrow. He is to be tried for the killing of David McFry, June 24, last. The men were employed by the Beatrice Creamery company, McFry as foreman, and they quarreled over the discharge of Harris.

TALK SEED CORN IN SNOW

Special Train Behind Schedule, but Farmers Wait.

PLAN OF CAMPAIGN COMMENDED

Lecture Cars Filled, Though Snow Cuts Down Attendance to Average of Hundred Fifty at Each Stop.

YORK, Neb., Feb. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—The Nebraska Seed Corn special, scheduled for town on the Northwestern from Lincoln to Fremont and from there to Stockham, left Lincoln this morning three hours late and arrived in this city at 6:15, two hours behind schedule time.

The attendance was one-fourth what it would have been had the train arrived on time. The average attendance at the first seven stops was about 150 farmers. At David City 200 farmers waited three hours for the train. At most points the two lecture cars were filled and a great deal of interest was manifested.

Reports were made that large numbers of farmers all along the route were testing their seed. At all stops the farmers are commending the university in its seed corn campaign. The severe weather has no doubt cut the attendance more than one-half. A largely attended evening meeting was held at Stockham.

Large crowds are expected tomorrow, when the regular schedule will be taken up north of Fremont. Frank G. O'Dell, secretary of the Nebraska Rural Life Commission, was in charge of the special.

Farmers Snowed In. PRAGUE, Neb., Feb. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—The Burlington Seed Corn special from Plattsmouth to Prague Monday did not draw a large attendance. The Sunday blizzard and bad roads kept many at home, but in spite of all this a fairly good attendance greeted the train here and all present expressed themselves as well pleased for coming and from the hour hour lecture gathered much by which they will profit.

One Train Does Not Start. LINCOLN, Feb. 26.—(Special.)—The Burlington's seed special, which was due to start out this morning, did not leave Lincoln. The blocked condition of the railroad rendered it impossible to reach some of the points scheduled, and in addition to that it was taken for granted the country roads would be blocked and it would be impossible for the farmers to get in and meet the train even if it did run.

Trains Start from Omaha. Despite the weather the two seed corn trains left Omaha yesterday on schedule. The Union Pacific special left at 9:30 o'clock and the Burlington train pulled out at 10:30. The first step made by the Union Pacific train was at Papillion. The Burlington passed up several of the smaller towns.

"I don't think the stormy weather will prevent the farmers from coming to town to hear these lectures," said L. W. Whitehead, chief clerk at the Burlington headquarters. "In 1905 I went out with a seed corn special and the weather conditions were almost as bad as today. I was greatly surprised at the large number of farmers who drove to town to attend these lectures, and I think that these two trains will be as successful."

Two trains will be run next week to close the campaign, one on the "Omaha" road in the northeastern part of the state and one on the Burlington in the central portion.

E. V. Parrish, manager of the publicity bureau of the Commercial club, is on the Burlington special which went out of Omaha.

Larger Acreage of Sugar Beets. SUTHERLAND, Neb., Feb. 26.—(Special.)—Indications point to a large acreage of sugar beets being planted in the valleys in this vicinity the coming season. One farmer a few miles from Sutherland says he will plant seventy-five acres to the crop. Good returns were realized from this section last year.

Rock Island Train Stuck in Deep Cut Near Deshler, Neb.

DESHLER, Neb., Feb. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—The Fairbury-Nelson branch of the Rock Island is blocked by snow. The evening passenger train with Conductor Hanson, Engineer Jackson and eighteen passengers is stuck in a big cut four miles west of Deshler. The train has plenty of coal and the passengers are comfortable. Farmers will take them to Ruskin. The snow plow left Fairbury at 11 o'clock last night and is stuck near Gladstone. The snow is about eight inches deep on the level.

HEATHRICK, Neb., Feb. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—The worst snow storm in years visited this section last night. A high wind accompanied the storm causing the snow to drift heavily. Traffic on the Burlington, Union Pacific and Rock Island is at a standstill and it is doubtful if the roads will be able to get trains through here today. The snow is two feet deep.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Feb. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—A blizzard has raged here since yesterday noon. The snow is drifting from two to twelve feet deep in all roads and about the city. All traveling has stopped and business in general suspended because people were unable to leave their homes today. This is the worst storm in twenty-five years for this section.

Taft Committee Will Meet Soon

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 26.—(Special.)—Present probabilities are that the executive committee of the Taft league and Taft supporters in Nebraska will be called to Lincoln the latter part of this week for a conference made necessary by the new element injected into the campaign by the avowed candidacy of Colonel Roosevelt.

Secretary Currie of the Taft league says that someone must be financing the Roosevelt campaign in this state for he has a letter from a prominent Taft editor in which he says that he has been written by John O. Yeiser that the latter was prepared to assist financially those editors who assisted in the Roosevelt campaign.

Concerning Mr. Roosevelt's announcement Mr. Currie said: "The announcement of Colonel Roosevelt was neither a surprise nor a disappointment to me. The Taft campaign in this state has been conducted from the beginning quite independently of what Colonel Roosevelt or any other candidate might do or do not. The republican party is bigger, wiser and has a greater responsibility than any individual. No individual is absolutely necessary to its success. The party must go before the people of the United States in November, asking for their franchise, not because Taft or La Follette or Roosevelt's name is at the head of the ticket, but upon its record."

If Roosevelt is nominated in the Chicago convention it means of course that Taft and his administration are discredited and disapproved by the republican party. We cannot discredit one and approve the other. They must stand together or fall together. We cannot separate one from the other. It would be indeed anomalous if a party which has discredited its own action and repudiated its own conduct could go before the people with any hope of success."

The announcement of Colonel Roosevelt has not added to or taken from the strength of the Taft forces in Nebraska. I can see no reason why they should modify or change their course. The attitude of the country in his spiritlike silence before his announcement was just as damaging to Taft as his present attitude. It has not changed the situation.

DEEP SNOW MAY CAUSE DEATH OF GAME BIRDS

LINCOLN, Feb. 26.—(Special.)—One effect of the heavy snowfall is expected to be a heavy loss of quail. These game birds have a habit of hunching up and remaining quiet in such storms until they are buried, and then smother. It is feared, especially if cold weather should follow the storm, a large portion of these birds will perish.

Fire at Geneva Damages Stores

GENEVA, Neb., Feb. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—The Boston store, C. M. Pierce, proprietor, was burned this afternoon, the stock being almost a total loss. The post office, in an adjoining building was damaged, but all mail was saved and all government property is safe. The Nebraska Signal printing office was injured by smoke and water. The local independent telephone plant sustained some damage.

Colonial Party at Valentine. VALENTINE, Neb., Feb. 26.—(Special.)—The juniors of the Valentine High school gave a reception to the seniors Saturday night in the shape of a colonial dress party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lamoureux, there being about thirty present. Claude Lamoureux carried off the prize as the best dressed man and Miss Elsie Nelson getting the prize for the best dressed woman. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock, the waiters being three colored girls, the freshmen girls blacking up and taking the part of servants. The house was prettily decorated with flags.

Postal Bank for Sutherland. SUTHERLAND, Neb., Feb. 26.—(Special.)—The Sutherland postoffice was recently designated as a postal savings depository and the receiving of such deposits is to begin March 1.

Stein Brass Found in Fremont. FREMONT, Neb., Feb. 26.—(Special.)—Yesterday afternoon the police, armed with a search warrant, made a search of the home of Abraham Krupnisky, a junk peddler, and found under the floor a quantity of stolen brass fixtures which had been stolen from a plant near by. Two boys were arrested for stealing the fixtures, which were worth over $20, and acknowledged that they had sold them to the junk man for a trifling sum. The boys say Krupnisky knew where the stuff came from.

OF INTEREST TO AGENTS. Business conditions in Nebraska are good. The acreage of fall wheat is the largest in the history of the state and the winter, while cold, has been favorable because of the blanket of snow.

Now is a very good time to take up agency work for this growing Nebraska company. The raise in the rates by the Modern Woodmen has interested many people in old line insurance that hitherto have turned deaf ears. There is a splendid opening for six or eight live, energetic men to represent this company in northwestern Nebraska—men who will give their whole time to soliciting insurance on a liberal commission basis. Previous experience, while desirable, is not necessary.
