LINCOLN STATUE NEAR DONE

Final Cast Will Probably Be Unveiled Memorial Day.

STATE BOARD LETS CONTRACTS

Number of Improvements at State Institutions Provided For—Objectives to Manner of Taxing Costs in Erdman Case.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Feb. 29.—(Special Telegram.)—Word has been received from Daniel C. French, the artist who designed the Lincoln monument, which is to stand on the west front of the capitol grounds, that the casting of the monument will be completed this week and finishing is all that remains to be done. It is expected this will be the last week in April.

Contract to Omaha Firm. The Board of Public Lands and Buildings today let the contract for a new roof on the boiler house of the Hastings Hospital for the insane to the John-Masville company of Omaha for $77,000.

At present the food must be carried from the kitchen, where it is prepared, to the various buildings by the outdoor route, and this is inconvenient in bad weather and subjects the food to unnecessary exposure to dust and dirt.

The claim of the contractor of the buildings for the school for the Feeble Minded at Beatrice for about $500 extras was held up for a further bill of particulars.

Bids for Lincoln Pumps. Bids have been opened for two new pumps to be installed at the A. street water works station.

The attorney general has filed an objection to taxing costs in the Erdman case from Douglas county. Erdman appealed from the decision of the district court in Douglas county from a conviction for the attempt to blow up the Tom Denton home and obtained an acquittal.

Evidence in Harris Case. In the case of John F. Harris, charged with the murder of David McFry in July last, most of the time today was taken up with testimony to show that after he had been discharged on a charge of intoxication, Harris had made threats to get even with McFry.

City Attorney Foster has decided he will take no notice of the protest made by the Central Labor union against Dr. Winnett of the railway commission.

George C. Gillan Files. George C. Gillan of Lexington has filed as a candidate for delegate from the Sixth district to the democratic national convention.

Edward Keiso of Grand Island is at the capitol looking over the field of his labor. He has been appointed inspector in the fire marshal's office, vice Edward Williams, resigned.

Valuation Hearings Resumed. The Union Pacific was ready to resume the valuation hearings one day sooner than expected and consequently the railway commission took up the work today.

Record for Omaha Train. KEARNEY, Neb., Feb. 29.—(Special Telegram.)—In spite of a heavy snowfall a crowd of over 400 people, composed of farmers, business men and students, gathered at the Union Pacific depot this afternoon to listen to the lectures given by Messrs.
