KNOX EXPLAINS HIS MISSION

Address at Panama Intended to Give Reasons for Trip.

SEEKS CLOSER INTERCOURSE

President of the United States Wants to Bring the American Republics Nearer Together in All Things.

LANAMA, Feb. 29.—Secretary of State P. C. Knox made in Panama today the first of his public addresses on his trip to the capitals of Central America, northern South America and the West Indies.

This speech, while delivered before the acting president of Panama, Senor Rodolfo Chiari, was in reality addressed to all the countries he will visit and included an explanation of the attitude of the United States towards South and Central America. Mr. Knox said the president believed the early completion of the canal should mark the beginning of closer relations between the United States and all Latin America; that the purpose of the United States towards all the American republics was to live in amity and essential harmony; and that the United States desires more peace, more prosperity, more happiness and more security in their national lives. He declared the United States craved neither sovereignty nor territory in Latin-America.

Purpose of the Visit.

Mr. Knox's address in part follows:

"The president of the United States believes that the early completion of the Panama canal should mark the beginning of closer relations to all Latin-America, and especially to the Caribbean littoral, as well as the relations of these countries to each other, and impelled by the thought that this is an auspicious moment through better acquaintance to lay the foundations upon which there should rest a broader confidence, a closer sympathy and more practical reciprocal helpfulness, has sent me hither as a bearer of a message of good will to our sister American republics.

"We who live on the western hemisphere find ourselves by force of geography in circumstances which make our situation peculiar, and this fundamental fact gives us privileges and imposes upon us obligations we would not otherwise have. It was a perception of this, which your own thinkers and statesmen have seen as clearly as our own, which prompted the announcement by President Monroe of the great and beneficent policy that now bears his name. When the canal is opened and the ships of all countries of the world come sailing through these Caribbean seas, the peculiarity of our position and special requirement will be accentuated and the wisdom of that doctrine be confirmed again. Even now it is a great bond between us. In its future amplification I perceive it will be a common heritage binding together the nations of this hemisphere with a force no power can break, and while it has in providence been given to us in the north to state and interpret, it has never been invoked to the detriment of the people of the south or operated to their hurt.

Destiny of Monroe Doctrine.

"In my judgment the Monroe doctrine will reach the acme of its beneficence when it is regarded by the people of the United States as a reason why we should constantly respond to the needs of those of our Latin-American neighbors who may find necessity for our assistance in their progress toward better government, or who may seek our aid to meet their just obligations and thereby to maintain honorable relations to the family of nations.

"It is a paradox that severance of the physical ligament that joins the two continents of the New World will more closely unite them. Culebra is the old clot in the artery of intercourse whose removal will give free and full circulation throughout the whole organism to the vivifying currents of friendship, peace, commerce and prosperity."
