Southern Quarters A niceting called by the speakers committee of the Citizens' union was held in the Plymouth Congregational church last night the principal speaker being Colonel Cunningham, chairman of the executive, committee of the organization. Colonel Cunningham's talk was principally along lines explanatory of the organization of the union and its purposes. The purposes, were designated as being pure and simple for giving the city good government under the commission plan.

According to the speaker, the persons the union will favor for commissioners have not yet been selected, but will be agreed upon within ten days. The story of friction in the committee was denied and it was asserted that the members are workfing in perfect harmony. CHICAGO, March 1.—Three veterans of the Chicago American league club were absent when the players left Chicago tonight on board a special train for Waco, Tex. to begin spring training. The party, including players, newspaper men and guests of President Comiskey, numbered Lee Tannebill, one of the veterans, was unable to make the trip because of a sprained ankle. He will join the team within a couple of weeks. Pat Dougherty, another veteran, has retired from the game. Matty McIntyre, outfielder, has not signed for the 1812 season. Four recruits, Rath, Mayer, Carney and Genest, were among the players who went south tonight. The squad is scheduled to reach Vaco Saturday morths.
