Hops at Fort Omaha

One of the largest and most enjoyable affairs of the season was the military hop and reception given by the officers and ladies of Fort Omaha last evening at the post gymnasium in compliment to Major and Mrs. Carl F. Hartmann, who have recently arrived at the post.

A color scheme of deep yellow or orange, the signal color of hops, was used in decoration. The ball-room was also elaborately decorated with American flags...

The dramatic committee of the senior class has been appointed and includes the following: Rex Houlton, chairman, Adelaide Funkhouser, Ulah Renner, Maurice Clark and William Noble. This committee will confer with Miss Lillian Fitch on the cost of holding a class play similar to the one given last May by the class of 1911 at the Brandeis theater.

Pleasures Past

Mrs. Stanley Hartman was hostess Thursday afternoon at a bridge party at her home, when six tables of players were present. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pearce gave a beautifully appointed dinner Wednesday evening at their home, when twelve guests were present.

At Sunrise at the Boyd. The villain was there. He entered in the first act and remained until the end of the play. The young girl was there, too, and she was the military hero, and it was lucky that she arrived before the curtain fell on the last act, which was the fifth, for otherwise how could the show have gone on tonight and for all the other performances until after Sunday night? Everybody just had to be saved before the final curtain, so everybody was saved. The author was everywhere with the people who were enrolled to interpret his masterpiece.
