Spinster Proposes and Offers Half Her Wealth for Hubby

Some South Omaha spinster has taken agrantage of the leap year privilege and proposed, and to make sure of not being rejected has offered as a bonus half of her property. The man has accepted, but he doesn't propose to tak ny chance about the bonus.

The man didn't give his name when he called upon Charles A. Furay, cashlet and marriage license clerk in the county court office. He said he was 33 years old and wanted a license to marry a South Omaha spinster who is 62. He wanted to know if he couldn't get some ort of a hybrid Hoense that would clinch the bonus part of the agreement as well as the part providing for loving, cherish-rotecting, etc. Furny said he could furnish n such thing, and advised the would-be wedder to healtate before marying a woman of so advanced an age in order to get part of her property. He went away, saying he and his bride probably will be back and get a license next week.
