

DAVIS DEAL OF LAST YEAR

How Councilmen Had Planned to Fill Twelfth Ward Vacancy.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN MEMBERS

Republican to Be Chosen for Twelfth and Also for Eighth in Event of Hummel Getting to Be Sheriff.

"When Davis got back from Colorado he found himself pounced on by several constables summoning him into justice courts to tell why he had not paid up certain accumulated debts, and at that time he set about to gather in a little easy money.

As to the place going to a republican or a democrat, that was all threshed out at that time. As a result, however, an inner circle combine of three republicans and three democrats has been running the council for the last three years, and the agreement was reached by the combine that all vacancies in elective city offices should be filled from the same party as the outgoing officer.
