MORLEY WALNUT HILL ROBBER

Partner of Evans in Pharmacy Holdup in 1910. Ed Morley, alias Ed Craig, one of the convicts who murdered Warden DeLahanty and others and escaped from the penitentiary, is the man who, with another highwayman named Evans, held up and robbed the Walnut Hill pharmacy on the night of October 25, 1910. The two were arrested in Missouri, brought to Omaha, tried and convicted of highway robbery, and sentenced to fifteen years. They are two of the most desperate and dangerous criminals with whom the Omaha police ever dealt. Morley and Evans entered the store when Fred A. Nelson, one of the proprietors was in charge and several small boys were loitering near the front door. All were held up at the points of revolvers while the two highwaymen rifled the cash register.

Judge Exonerated in the Sellers Case

VALENTINE, Neb., March 14.—(Special.)—Exonerating Judge W. H. Westover and the officials of Cherry county, approving the manner in which the case of Charles Sellers was disposed of and indicting three editors of Cherry county, the grand jury which for the last fifteen days has been in session here made its report today. After a lengthy examination of more than seventy witnesses implicated were found to be baseless. The injury was under the direction of A. W. Scattergood of Alnsworth, personal representative of the attorney general of Nebraska. On a charge of printing slanderous statements concerning the disposal of the cases at the October term of court Ray W. Hitecock, editor of the Cody Cow Boy, and Mrs. Lottie Cramer, editor of the Valentine Bearlight, were indicted. The alleged distribution of a circular containing charges against Judge Westover and county officials of Cherry county was the basis of an indictment against F. Kemp Heath, former editor of the Cody newspaper and at present a lawyer of Cody.

Union Pacific Open

Although the snowstorm of yesterday and last night was a severe one, the Union Pacific was affected very little in fact, it was the only Omaha-Denver line open. Its trains between these points are running practically on time, and the road does not expect to be embarrassed by the heavy snows. The deepest snow reported in Nebraska was at Loup City, where it reached a depth of two feet. Some of the other snowfalls reported were: Norfolk, 15; North Platte, 16; Ravenna, 18; Fairbury, 12; Fremont, 16; Halsey, 14; Madison, 16; Columbus, 18; Hooper, 13; McCook, 20 inches. According to the Rock Island report, a number of points between Bellevue and Goodland, Kan., had twenty to twenty-four inches of snow up to noon Thursday, at which time snow continued.

Identification Made of Two Train Robbers

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 14.—The robbers who attempted to hold up the Southern Pacific train near Sanderson yesterday and were killed, have been identified as Ed Welch, an escaped criminal.

MURDER OF DEPUTY DAVIS

On Sunday morning, February 11, a negro convict, Albert Prince, fatally stabbed Deputy Warden E. D. Davis during the chapel service. No attempt was made at a general outbreak at this time, although the convicts were assembled in the pews. On Friday, March 1, employees of the prison saw former convicts pass a phial of morphine through the gate of the prison yard to one of the inmates. Restrictions were immediately placed on the convicts, with a view to stamping out the traffic in the drug. Last Saturday Chaplain F. C. Johnson of the penitentiary resigned after a conversation with the governor relative to prison discipline. A week ago today the governor had issued an order barring women prison workers and Sunday school teachers from visiting the prison during services, declaring that their association with the convicts was undesirable.

ALDRICH SNOWED IN AT AUBURN

Governor Decides Not to Try to Make Trip to Kansas. AUBURN, Neb., March 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Governor Chester H. Aldrich, who spoke at Peru last night and this morning, arrived in the city at 2 o'clock this afternoon by sleigh. Immediately upon his arrival he was notified by phone of the mutiny in the state prison. The governor at once ordered all prisoners locked up and given good care until he could arrive in Lincoln. It was the governor's intention to leave Auburn this afternoon over the Missouri Pacific for his home, but on account of the severe storm which has been raging all day, he feared he might have difficulty in reaching his destination and thereby be greatly handicapped in handling the business affairs, so he decided to remain in Auburn and direct all business from here. Therefore the Dressel hotel at this place will for the present at least, be the governor's headquarters, and all business of the state will be directed from this point until weather conditions will permit and justify his starting for the capital.

WARDEN IN CHARGE OF PRINCE

Personally Saw to His Safety in Cell Each Night. Warden James DeLahanty has been fearing trouble of a different kind ever since the convict, Albert Prince, killed Deputy Warden Davis. In conversation with a well known Omaha man this week the warden told of the business affairs he was taking. He said he feared some of the guards wouldynch Prince and for that reason he was that out through Wyoming the storm had ceased. From Long Pine west to Lander, the blizzard had been raging for two days and where from one to two feet of new snow had fallen, the weather had cleared and the snow was thawing rapidly.

Railroads Hard Hit

The railroads were all hard hit by the storm. Yesterday not a train from the east arrived on time. They were from one to three hours late, the trainmen reporting from six to eighteen inches of snow all the way from the Mississippi to the Missouri river and drifting badly. Trains from the Dakotas and Minnesota managed to get through, but they were all late, the trainmen reporting conditions even worse than across Iowa.

On the Missouri Pacific the trains to and from the south were practically on time, but not so with those out in the west. On this road for a distance of over 400 miles between Washington, Kan., and Denver, not a train was moving. Service was abandoned on the Talmage-Auburn and the Weeping Water branches. There was no attempt to move freight trains.

The Burlington kept all of its Nebraska passenger trains moving between Omaha and McCook, but west of there there was nothing doing. At McCook two passenger trains were laid out and three at Akron, Colo. On the Brush-Allagans branch for a distance of 200 miles not a train of any kind was moving during the day.

Rock Island Tied Up

The Rock Island did not try to move any trains west of Fairbury, Neb. From there west to Denver, 400 miles, there was a continuous blockade. The Rocky Mountain Limited, leaving Denver Wednesday, had not been heard from last night. It is supposed that it is blocked between stations. No freight trains were sent out Thursday and all on the road were held at the first station they reached.

The Northwestern managed to keep its line from Omaha to Lander open for passenger trains, all of which were nearly on time. On the Omaha-Hastings line all passenger and freight trains were annulled. Service was practically abandoned on the Bonesteel branch and on the line from Rapid City to Pierre, S. D., not a wheel moved Thursday. The same conditions existed on the Milwaukee-Chamberlain-Rapid City line, which was blocked.

CRIED DAY AND NIGHT WITH ECZEMA

Baby Mass of Sores. Looked for His Death any Minute. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Brought First Good Sleep for Two Years. Soon Cured.

R. F. D. 4, Mt. Gilboa, Ohio.—"When my little boy was a week old he was taken with eczema and I was looking for his death any minute. First his face turned red, then his eyes began to swell and his attention to it. It began to get worse and he just howled his little head and feet and from the pillow and cried day and night. He began to scratch himself so that I had to muffle his little hands, and then the rash began to go over his whole body until he was a mass of running sores. The more I doctored the worse he got. He had no food and his little ears began to rot and his scalp was something awful to look at. I saw the Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised and got a bar of Cuticura Soap making a lather all over his body with the soap and hot water and then I dried him off well and anointed him with the Cuticura Ointment. He went right to sleep and slept four hours, the first good sleep he had for very nearly two years, so I kept on using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and it was no time before his skin began to get well. Soon he was completely cured. He is sixteen years old now and has not had a sign of the eczema since he was cured by the Cuticura Soap and Ointment." (Signed) Mrs. N. M. Beecher, Sept. 12, 1911.
