HOGAN IS DISQUALIFIED

Referee Stops Fight for Hitting in the Breakaways.

CROSS THE FIRST TO OFFEND

Two Minutes of Milling Result in Severe Punishment for One-Round Person, Including Vicious Right Swing.

NEW YORK, March 14.—One-Round Hogan of California was disqualified in the first round of his fight with Leach Cross, the local lightweight, at the Madison club here tonight by Referee Charlie White for hitting in the breakaways. Up to the time of Hogan's disqualification, Cross punished Hogan viciously, staggering him with a vicious right swing and causing him to hold with a series of smashes to the face.

Cross was the first to offend by hitting in the breakaway and Referee White cautioned him. Immediately afterward Hogan hit Cross over the referee's shoulder and was in turn cautioned. Then Hogan hit Cross five times in breakaways and the referee disqualified the westerner.

his lead over Champion Joe Carney of Denver in the second fifty-point block of play for the world's three-cushion billiard championship.

Horgan tonight scored 50 to Carney's 23, his safety play making Carney look like an amateur. The score now stands Horgan, 100; Carney, 52. The final block will be played tomorrow night.

"Jock" Hoff, young recruit who is expected to make the pitching staff of the New York Yankees. This photograph of the youngster, taken in the Yankee training camp at Atlanta, Ga., shows him about to cut loose his queer underhand delivery that is the talk of the Yankee camp. By this odd under-arm motion the youth can propel the ball with prodigious speed and can deliver an offshoot with a "jump" on it, one of the most peculiar shoots known in recent years.
