

OMAHA SOCIETY IS ACTIVE

Trips Abroad This Summer Planned by Many Local People.

PLAYERS' CLUB IS REHEARSING

Omaha Girl Makes Flight Through the Air in the West—Play is to Be Given for Sweet Charity.

Social Calendar. MONDAY—Mr. T. J. Kelly, lecture recital for Tuesday morning musical club at home of Mrs. George A. Joslyn. TUESDAY—Mrs. Harry Faltzheim, Mrs. Philip Swartz and Mrs. Victor Rosewater, luncheon and musical at Hotel Loyal; Mrs. Max Burkhead, dinner for high school basket ball team; Nebraska Wesleyan class concert at First Methodist church; Miss Louise Dinning, debutante bridge club. WEDNESDAY—Mrs. Luther Kountze, Lenten sewing club; Mrs. Louis Nutman, luncheon at Fort Crook; Mrs. A. M. Pinto, afternoon party; Mrs. H. P. Shearer, meeting of W. W. club; wedding of Miss Lucia Rahn and Mr. Ralph W. Copenhaver; Mrs. Leonard, Port Omaha Kensington club. FRIDAY—Omaha high school alumni, annual prom, at Chambers; Mr. H. P. Eames, lecture recital. SATURDAY—Palmwest club, dinner; Lieutenant and Mrs. Farnham, dinner for Colonel and Mrs. Butler.

St. Patrick's day will be celebrated in Omaha by a score of loyal sons of Ireland, who will celebrate their birthdays today. Many of the sons of Erin born on St. Patrick's day have been named after the patron saint. Mr. Patrick Hynes is celebrating his eightieth birthday today at his home by giving a large dinner party. Mr. Hynes, who is a pioneer, will have some of his confidantes with him today, including General Harry and John Sullivan, a prominent banker, both of Greeley Center, where Mr. Hynes formerly resided. The other guests will include Thomas Brennan of Hastings, Miss Mathews of Grand Island, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hynes, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Higlow, Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Howard, Mrs. F. E. Fitzgerald, Miss Nellie Hynes, Miss Mannie Hynes, Master William Hynes, Jr., Miss Lucie Higlow and Mr. Ralph Howard.

Mr. Owen McCaffrey is celebrating his fifty-third birthday today. Mrs. McCaffrey will have a family dinner party, when their nine children will be present, including Misses Eileen, Claire and Helen McCaffrey, Messrs. William J., Frank O., Sherman, James and Edward McCaffrey, and Mrs. John Wall Murphy. The other guests will be Mrs. Frank McCaffrey, Mr. John Murphy, Miss Emma Kennedy, Mrs. J. C. Kennedy of New York, Miss Margaret Kennedy of New York.

In celebration of the birthday of Mr. Mark J. Coad, Mrs. Catherine Crighton is entertaining at a family party today. Mrs. J. C. Kinsler gave a small informal dinner today in celebration of the birthday of Mr. Kinsler.

Planning European Trips. Many Omahans are planning interesting trips this summer and several have already engaged passage for Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Kelly and Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Hoffman will sail June 10 on the steamer Mugantie, sailing from Montreal. They will probably spend two months abroad.

Senator J. H. Millard and Miss Millard are planning to spend a few weeks in Europe this summer.

Among those who plan to go abroad this spring are Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Higgins, who will sail May 5, Dr. Bridges, who will sail May 5, Dr. Bridges, who will sail May 5, Dr. Bridges, who will sail May 5.

Miss Louise McPherson has been chosen to play the leading role of Kittle Silverton in "The Marriage of Kittle," which will be given by the Players' club the evening of April 12 at the Strand theater. Miss McPherson has been winning laurels in amateur theatricals. Early in the season she made a hit as Mrs. Jones, a character part in "The Cottage in the Air," given by the Players' club. Last year she took the part of Knowledge in "Every Man," given for the benefit of the Visiting Nurses association, of which she is president.

The part of Madame de Sannimo, a Spanish senora, in "The Marriage of Kittle," will be played by Miss Margaret McPherson. Miss Anna Bourke will play Rosalia, Mr. Harry Doerly will take the part of Sir Reginald Belliss, Lieutenant Smith will be John Travers, and Robert Dinning, Nebraska.

"The Marriage of Kittle" is a sprightly three-act comedy, which was the vehicle

Three Who Will Soon Be Wedded

MISS ANNETTE LADY

MISS LUCIE RAHN

MAYBELLE MANDELSON

last season of Miss Marie Tempest, who played Kittle. Oddly enough, Miss Tempest was giving the play in London when Miss McPherson was visiting there last year.

The Players' club will give another play under the direction of Miss Fitch in May, when other members of the club will take part.

Play to Be Given for Guild. A number of young people of Trinity cathedral will give a play soon after Easter at Jacob's Memorial hall for the benefit of the altar guild of the cathedral. The play is "The Facts of the Case" and Miss Mary Ringwalt will have the leading part. The other roles will be taken by Miss Elsie Funkhouser, Miss Margaret McPherson, William Taylor and Taylor Belcher. Mrs. E. P. Peck is training the young people.

Visitors to Be in Benefit Play. Interest in "Princess Snow White," the benefit play to be given after Lent for the Child Saving institute is heightened by the fact that two out-of-town young women will probably be here to take part. They are Miss Helen Goddard of Chicago, formerly of Omaha, and Miss Nora Forthman of Los Angeles, the latter of whom will be visiting Miss Frances Nash, who is in the cast. Both of these young women have been asked to be Norse maidens in the play.

Among the children who will take part in the performance are: Flower Maidens: Alice Duval, Lucie Rahn, Francis Hochstetler, Eleanor Mackay, Harriet Sherman, Helen Goodrich. Fruit Maidens: Eugenie Patterson, Grete Lane, Marjorie Smith, Alice Coad, Lois Robbins, Ione Fogg. Cake Maidens: Catherine Selby, Winifred Smith, Gretchen Eastman, Ester Lammie, Helen Hoagland. Little Flower Girls: Gladys Prentiss, Marcella Folds, Gertrude Kountze, Gertrude Morris.

Snow White's Attendants: Margretha Grummell, Marion Coad, Helen Pearce, Gertrude Stout. Herald: Floyd Smith. Carl, the Forester: Mr. William Taylor.

Westley's Glee Club Comes. The Glee club of Nebraska Wesleyan university at University Place will give a concert Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the First Methodist church. The young men who are making their annual singing tour will arrive in Omaha about 5 o'clock and will be escorted to the church, where they will have a banquet prepared by the young women of the congregation. After the concert they will be entertained at the homes of the church people.

There are twenty-one members in the Glee club, one whom is a whistler of unique accomplishment. This is Charles E. Tuttle, who has the ability to produce on the program for several duets. Among the patrons is M. D. Cameron, who is on the board of control of the university. The list of patrons and patronesses includes: Messrs. and Mesdames C. C. Belden, M. D. Cameron, David Cole, C. A. Goss, J. W. Towle, L. R. Wallace, T. H. Weirich, G. A. Rohrbaugh, R. H. Thorpe, T. L. Combs, J. O. Detweiler, M. G. Rohrbaugh, T. F. Sturges, C. W. Turner, T. M. Bromwell, J. A. Clark, G. W. Tiffey, Gus Miller.

O. S. S. Alumni Party. Les Hiboux and the Treis Kaideka clubs will have the cozy corners at the annual alumni reception and dancing party of the Omaha High school, which will be held at Chambers' Friday evening, and the ladies who are members of these organizations are planning to carry out an elaborate scheme of decoration. Purple and white, the school colors, and many high school college pennants will be festooned about the hall.

As this week is the spring vacation period, about forty couples from the University of Nebraska are planning to attend. The patrons and patronesses of the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sipek and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Curtis. Randall Curtis, W. and Henry Howe, '11, will have charge of the reception and dance which will follow.

and a clay pipe tied with green ribbon. The invited guests were: Colonel and Mrs. Butler, Major and Mrs. Hartmann, Mrs. D. W. Atkinson, Mr. Bayard Randolph. A miscellaneous shower was given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. M. L. Stone and Mrs. W. C. Uphohn at the home of Mrs. Uphohn, 421 North Twenty-first street, in honor of Miss Blanch Campbell, whose wedding is in April. Miss Campbell is kindergarten director at Pacific school. About thirty guests were present.

Complimentary to Mrs. Harry Wilkins of Chicago, Mrs. Mosher Colpeter gave an informal luncheon of eight Wednesday prior to the meeting of the Lepton Sewing club, with Mrs. Cowgill. Thursday Mrs. Wilkins was entertained informally at luncheon by Mrs. Ward Burgess and Friday Mrs. T. F. Kennedy invited two tables of bridge players in her honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kise, 1126 South Twenty-eighth street, entertained at dinner last evening. The occasion was the sixth anniversary of their wedding and also Mrs. Kise's birthday. The table decorations were green carnations and green sweet peas. Covers were laid for: Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Denham, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Denham, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Korra, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kluger, Miss Anna Denham, Mr. N. E. Denham, Mr. E. D. Murphy.

Misses Elizabeth Kroner and Esther Kroner entertained informally Friday evening at their home. The evening was spent in music and games. Little Misses Emma Bamer and Helen Kroner gave several dances which added much to the pleasure of the evening. Those present were Misses Helen Cogrove, Louise Heitfeld, Henrietta West, Adelaide Hogan, Eula Crawford, Emma Bamer, Ruth Crawford, Helen Kroner, Esther Kroner, Elizabeth Kroner. Messrs. Clinton Hamilton, Harold Ball, Harry Mason, Ruben Melcher, Charles Frankenberg, Will McNichols, George Harrington, Bernard Initt, Joe Crendon, Herbert Harris.

An informal banquet was given at the Paxton hotel by the members of the Hungry club, at which the following officers were elected: E. T. Ryan, Jr., president; George Morris, vice president; Robert Wells, treasurer; Claude Shay, secretary. The purpose of the club is to promote good fellowship and enjoyable outings and it is their intention to give four banquets a year, together with several good dances and a theater party in September at which the members will entertain their lady friends.

La. Knollia club of the first Methodist church entertained the Ashby class Friday evening at the home of Miss Anna Purdy. St. Patrick decorations were used and those present were: Misses—Dr. Myrtle Wells, Thelma Carlisle, Beatrice Chapman, Vera Dutton, Clara Dutton, Jessie Smith, Tonia Foxe, Adelle Foxe. Messrs.—Waldo Fillington, Glenn Wallace, Raymond Cox, Allen Perry, Carl Christensen, Justin Williams, Julia Williams, Earl Savore.

A delightful Japanese party was given at the home of Miss Marys Proeger for the Young Ladies' Harmony club. The centerpiece for the table was a cut glass bowl of yellow and red tulips, over which fell a shower of red and white ribbons suspended from the chandelier; the decorations used in the living room were red and white carnations and Japanese lanterns. The guests were attired in silk Japanese kimono and wore yellow chrysanthemums in their hair. The visiting guests were Misses Sadya Reuben, Ethel Reinachreiter and Mina Romanock. The members present were Misses Waxman, Sarah Marks, Marion Alperston, Tess Feldman, Ida Freedle, Minah Frank, Anna Gross, Dorothy Glickman, Julia Mott, Annetta Glickman, Ida Kulkofsky, Sarah Meyers, Florence Holland, Esther Alperston, Ida Reinachreiter, Sarah Waxman, Augusta Freedle, and Mr. Jesse Proeger.

Weddings. Lieutenant R. C. Wetzel of the United States navy, formerly on duty at the recruiting station, was married Tuesday at Minneapolis, Minn., to Mrs. Mary S. Moulton. Many of Mr. Wetzel's friends attended the wedding. The couple are spending their honeymoon in Florida and will return about April 15 via Omaha. The groom is at present stationed at the recruiting station in Minneapolis.

For the Future. Captain and Mrs. Nuttman will entertain at supper at their quarters this evening in honor of Colonel and Mrs. Butler. The decorations will be in green and white. The invited guests are: Colonel and Mrs. Butler, Colonel and Mrs. Alaire, Captain and Mrs. Dorey, Mrs. D. W. Atkinson, Mr. Bayard Randolph. Lieutenant and Mrs. Farnham will entertain at dinner at their quarters at Fort Crook in honor of Colonel and Mrs. Butler, Saturday evening.

Personal Gossip. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkins return today to Chicago. Mrs. W. A. Cahill has returned from a month's stay in Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Douglas Welpton has returned from a brief visit in Kansas City. Mrs. E. W. Nash and Miss Nash have returned from a few days in Chicago. Dr. Harold Gifford, who has been very ill for some weeks, is much improved. A daughter was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Perry R. Cook, 9811 Cass street. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Smith will leave next Thursday to spend two weeks in New York. Miss Elizabeth Sweet is the week-end guest of Captain and Mrs. Chenoweth at Fort Crook. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Towle have moved into their apartment at the Lorenzen, on Harney street. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Caldwell are expected home from California the latter part of the week. Mrs. F. A. Brogan leaves Monday for Emporia, Kan., to visit her mother, Mrs. Perry, for two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Magee and children are expected home from Florida the latter part of this week. Lieutenant Lane of Fort Crook has been ordered to report for duty on a recruiting detail at Fort Snoum, N. Y. Mrs. John E. Marsh has returned from an extended visit to southern California, where she spent a part of the time as the FASHION HOLDS SWAY THIS WEEK. Never before have we displayed Models so attractive in tailored suits, wraps, gowns and blouses. Styles are here from the noted American foremost designers. SPRING MODELS IN TAILORED SUITS at $25. A most attractive showing of exceedingly stylish high grade tailored suits. Fashion's very latest models in all new materials—in plain and novelty effects. Suits having all the appearance with that care and exactness of detail that makes these suits the best $25.00 values in the city. THE SUITS AT $35.00 OF RARE CHARM and BEAUTY. Suits that are different—distinctive—exclusive. Garments of rare modishness—with a perfection of finish and tailoring that's faultless. Jaunty, attractive jackets, fronts straight and cutaways, with deep wide reverses. Richest of fabrics of all descriptions, Monday.... $35. SPECIAL SALE OF TAILORED SUITS at $15.00. Saturday we place on sale a special purchase of 200 high grade suits at $15.00. They are better suits than we have ever shown before and this is saying a great deal. Jackets all silk lined, new, stylish skirts. NO BETTER SUIT SOLD ELSEWHERE AT $25.00. Special Monday, $15.00. HANDSOME GOWNS AND DRESSES. We have ready for your approval and selection a very choice display of high grade novelties in both silk and cloth gowns. Many of them are imported—others designed and made for us by leading American makers. Charming creations from beautiful rich taffetas in light, changeable effects—crepe, velvets, chiffons, new models, many showing the new lace motifs and popular effects in a wonderfully attractive range of pretty spring colorings. Special greetings will be on display Monday. $19.50, $25 and $35. SPRING COATS SPECIAL at $10. At this popular price we are showing more than a score of different styles in smart spring coats. Some are trimmed with fancy buttons and long silk revers or large collars, in all the latest materials and colors. Most exceptional values at $10. Special Pretty Lingerie Waists, 95c. A special sale of the newest effects in Blouses, Voles and Lawn Waists, trimmed with val, clay lace and embroidery, regular $1.50 value, Monday.... 95c. Nebraska Clothing Co.

(Continued on Page Three.)

Famous. 10th and Farnam. We Save in Rent. You Save in Buying Here. "Take the Elevator." Extra Specials for Monday and Tuesday--Special! 200 DRESSES of fine Imported French and Storm Serges, Pure Linens, Piques, etc.; unlimited variety of styles and cloths to choose from $5.00—actual $15 values. 50 dozen GINGHAM PETTI-COATS—$1.00 values—25c at. Special Sale on Fine Spring Mill nery.

Dresher Bros. Clothes Restoring System. The Only Way to Clean Oriental Rugs. And EVERY cleaner doesn't KNOW that way. We restore the nap, color and beautiful Oriental effect. We clean fine Wiltons, etc., also, and size the rugs at no extra expense when necessary. Prices average 25c a square yard. (Same cleaning process used as on your finest gowns.) Dresher Bros. 2211-2213. Tel. Tyler 1200; Tr. A-2255. Branch Agencies at Dresher, the Tailors, 1512 Farnam Street, or at Fompalap Room of Brandeis Store. Express Paid One Way on Out-of-town Shipments of $2.00 or Over.

Before Your Vacation. Bring your watch to us and let us put it in good repair for you. Experts do our work reasonably and promptly. Bring your repairs to us. S. W. LINDSAY, Jeweler. 221 1/2 South 10th. Paxton Block. You Will Find Most Interesting Reading on the Want Ad Pages. Have You Read the Want Ads Yet—Today?

Oriental Rug Exposition. Mr. Newton Vartanian of New York and Constantinople will place on exhibition and sale at this store, beginning Tuesday, March 19, one of the finest collections of Oriental Rugs ever displayed in Omaha. They are the products of the best Persian weavers, possessing wonderful color schemes, beautiful designs and enduring qualities. They are in all desirable sizes. You are invited to inspect these elegant rugs whether you wish to buy or not. Miller, Stewart & Beaton Co. 413-15-17 South Sixteenth Street.