ATTORNEYS TO OCCUPY PULPITS

Presbyterian Men's Brotherhood to Hanquet and Hear Talk by Secretary Henderson of Minpenpelis.

Westminster church is going to try a different plan than that used last year, to deepen the spiritual life during the Lenten season. In a former pastorate the paster used cottage prayer mostlings for this purpose. The congregation is going to meet in the homes of the people, rather then the church. There will be but on meeting place for each night, where, with the exception of Wednesday night, the paster will preach an examplifiable ser-mon. On Wednesday night the regular prayer meeting topic will be presented by the men appointed for that night. The place of meeting and the subject for each night will be as follows:

Monday, March H. S. p. m., at Mrs. C.

Christ." Friday, March 22, 5 p. m., at Mrs. Ewing Brown's residence, 346 Farnam street; subject, "First Things First."

A mass meeting of the Brotherhood of the Fyet Methodist church will be held Sunday evening in place of the regular service. The meeting will be addressed by Charles A. Goss on the subject of "The Church in the Nation," and by Raph W. Breckenridge on "The Church in Foreign Lands." The choir, under the direction of Thomas J. Kelly, will render special mosts.

The Evangelistic meetings at Calvary Baptist church will be continued another week. Rev. Waiter I. Fowle of Grand shaded, who has had much experience and success in services of this character, will preach every evening the coming week.
