MUCH ROUGH PLAY ON FLOOR

Local Basketball Players Again Show Class and Jump into Second Place in Tri-City League by Victory.

The Omaha High school floor quintet showed its class as a state champion basketball team by trouncing the Magic City High school five in a hard-fought contest marked by much rough play, 38 to 27, at the local "Y" association gymnasium last evening before the largest crowd of the season.

Albert Krug and Phil Walnes of the Lulus team were the leading Omaha pair in the doubles, counting 1,131. Krug struck only once in his first game and Walnes not at all, getting nine strikes with a split in the third frame.

Henry Blippen and Forest Beye of St. Louis shot into the lead with a score of 128-ten pins shy of the mark which won first prize at the St. Louis tournament a year ago. It was their sensational finish that made the Omaha City players take the lead.

Following are the scores made by the Omaha bowlers and the leading scores of all teams for the day:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Includes Albert Krug (1131), Phil Walnes (1131), G. C. Christensen (1028), etc.
