Our Spring Fashion Review

WEEK OF MARCH EIGHTEENTH, 1912.

The past two days you have been enjoying the new goods we have presented for your inspection from the various departments; reveling in their beauty, realizing more fully the position this store holds in Omaha and the entire Middle West as an authoritative style center.

For Wednesday we wish to direct your attention more particularly to the women's ready-to-wear store in which you will find: Suits at $19.50 to $59.50. Coats at $12.50 to $35. Dresses at $7.50 to $50. Lingerie and Tailored Waists at $1 to $15. Silk, Net and Chiffon Waists at $3.95 to $25.—each price representing the maximum of value-giving and thorough good style.

All exaggerated features have been entirely eliminated in our adaptations, while the simplicity and graceful outlines to which the styles, rightly interpreted, lend themselves so charmingly have been emphasized; making our spring exhibition of spring and summer apparel one every woman will find a personal interest in.

Dress Accessories

You will also find the very best and choicest furnishings for women in styles and colorings to match any costume or dress scheme madame may have in mind—neckwear, hosiery, gloves, veilings, shoes, etc.; all as fairly priced as the quality warrants.

And There Are Yard Goods, Too Representing the best afforded from the most reputable looms of the country. Dainty wash goods, delicate silks, sturdy wool goods; each with its own peculiar mission to perform. You will enjoy every minute spent in examining these beautiful new fabrics.

It's Time You Were Thinking Seriously of a New Corset

Every woman knows that it is necessary to have a new and correctly shaped and fitted corset before purchasing a new gown—else the garment may require unnecessary alterations and its beautiful lines be spoiled. But it is more necessary this season than ever before for the new models accentuate the natural figure lines and in order to properly preserve them you must have a corset designed for the season and fitted by an expert corsetier.

Various lines at this store, priced up to $25. A Corset Special for Wednesday FOUR DISTINCT MODELS, that regularly sell at $1.25, Wednesday only, 79c. Made of batiste and coutil in the medium bust styles that will be most in demand. Have hip confiners, extra long skirt, hose supporters and non-rustable boning. Wednesday only, $1.25 value, 79c.

25 Peerless Vacuum Cleaners to be Disposed of Wednesday at Less Than the Wholesale Prices

The Peerless vacuum cleaners have long borne the reputation of being one of the best of the kind on the market and the reduced prices are only because we wish to reduce the stock to sample lines at once. We will demonstrate them for you and show you how to operate and care for them. In addition to doing the work better, they will save you many hours of hard back-breaking labor. Investigate.

GUY LIGGETT PRES.

We announce with pleasure that Mr. Lucius Pryor has again taken charge of our sheet music department. The service that made a recent change of management necessary will now be a thing of the past.

No More Long Waits for Music

Prompt, intelligent service like you used to receive when this department was under Mr. Pryor's former management.

Mr. Pryor will enjoy seeing all his professional and amateur musical friends again at this department.

We will make a specialty of procuring unusual and imported editions which remain a "sealed chapter" to amateur and inexperienced musical managers.

Largest Sheet Music Department in the West. Recent heavy buying has placed it on a par with any metropolitan music house.

OMAHA ITALIANS FORM SOCIAL ORGANIZATION

Omaha Italian Social club, with seventy-five charter members, was formed at a meeting in Curtis hall, Eleventh and Harney streets, Sunday afternoon, and permanent officers as follows were elected: S. Salerno, president; Joseph St. Lucia, vice president; Storti Ferrara, secretary; Tony Costanzo, treasurer. The club's object is to make Omaha Italians better acquainted with each other by fraternal meetings and other social entertainments. Any Italian of good standing in the community may secure membership in the club, provided he is a citizen of the United States, those who simply sojourn here and still owe allegiance to Italy cannot belong. Regular meetings will be held every Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Curtis hall. For Kansas—Fair Sunday; Monday fair and somewhat colder.
