Mrs. Squier will lead the meeting and topics have been assigned as follows: Early life of Milton, Mrs. E. L. Potter, political life, Mrs. G. C. Thompson; later life, Mrs. C. W. Axell; review of "Penseroso" and "L'Allegro," Mrs. G. H. Stickell; story of "Paradise Lost," Mrs. Axell; review of "Samson Agonistes," Mrs. M. J. Hussie; prose writings, Mrs. Squier.

Each member will give the receipt for her emergency dish at the meeting of the domestic science department of the South Omaha Century Literary club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Lord. Mrs. M. P. Brown and Mrs. George Walliker will be assisting hostesses. A domestic science demonstration of ways of serving eggs and salads and ways of preparing beverages will be given.

The University Extension club will meet Tuesday evening at the Young Women's Christian association to study the constitutional government of England. Next month the club will change its method of work. It will meet weekly until the end of June for the study of European history, under the leadership of Mrs. Ida Hanchett at the public library.

The Wyche Story Tellers' league will meet Thursday afternoon in the public library. Exoner stories will be told by Miss Grace Conklin and Miss Agnes McElroy.

The Mothers' Culture club will meet with Mrs. J. C. Buffington and Mrs. R. W. Koch on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. A. S. Pinto will have a paper on "Modern Methods of Training Animals and Their Lesson for Parents and Child." Mrs. J. C. Aldrich will give a reading.

The Daughters of the Confederacy have set the date for their next meeting Thursday afternoon, April 11, at the home of Mrs. Elmer McManus.

A delegation of Omaha women attended the meeting of the state board of the Nebraska Daughters of the American Revolution in Lincoln on Thursday and had luncheon as the guests of the state regent, Mrs. Charles Oliver Norton, at the Lincoln hotel. Those who went from Omaha were: Mrs. J. J. Stubbs, Mrs. A. E. Fernald, Mrs. J. H. Aull and Miss Fannie Adams, all from the Omaha chapter, and Mrs. R. E. McKelvey and Mrs. W. A. Dittworth from the Major Isaac Badler chapter. Mrs. A. E. Bryson of Fullerton joined the Omaha women and went to Lincoln with them.

The Fullerton women who have descended from ancestors who took part in the colonial side of the revolution, are organizing a chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The P. E. O. sisterhood will have a musical and literary program Thursday afternoon with Mrs. R. B. Zachary at the New Hamilton apartments.

The Ladies' Aid society of the St. John's African Methodist Episcopal church are taking orders for plain sewing to raise money for the church through the secretary, Mrs. R. B. Workcutt.

The recent outbreak at the Nebraska penitentiary has brought forth a call from Mrs. W. S. Swanson of Oakland, chairman of the civil service reform committee of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs, urging clubs throughout the state to hold meetings previous to the spring primaries to stir up interest in the pending amendment to our state constitution, which will, if carried at the fall elections, provide a board of control for our state institutions.

Mrs. Swanson sends a series of one-hour programs for the study of civil service reform prepared by Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, chairman, and Mrs. Inocent B. Oakley of Philadelphia and Mrs. F. H. Cole of Omaha, members of the general education civil service reform committee. Women's clubs of Oakland, Nebraska

Takes Lead in Benefit

ELEANOR AUSTIN

MISS ELEANOR AUSTIN WILL HAVE THE ROLE OF PRINCESS SNOW-WHITE IN THE PLAY OF THAT NAME TO BE GIVEN AT THE BRANDeis THEATER NEXT MONTH FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE CHILD SAVING INSTITUTE. SHE IS THE DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. T. W. AUSTIN.

City, Randolph and Ashland are planning to have meetings for the study of civil service reform.

The Jewish Ladies' Relief society will hold its next meeting Tuesday of this week instead of next month, as their schedule states. The society will meet at 2 p. m. in the Pompellian room of the Brandeis stores. The last winter has called for the most strenuous charity campaign ever waged in the eight years' history of the society.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will give a luncheon at the church Friday for the benefit of the Visiting Nurse association.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's auxiliary of the Episcopal churches of Omaha and vicinity will be held at St. Barnabas church Friday afternoon at 2:30. The program will be in charge of St. Mark's church, Florence, after which Rev. C. C. Rollit, secretary of the Sixth missionary department, will speak.

The board of directors of the Visiting Nurse association will hold an extra meeting Friday at 10:30 a. m. for the purpose of deciding whether or not to continue the babies' open-air camp in River-view park next summer. It is thought by some members that the expense of running the camp and the benefits resulting do not compensate for the expense incurred and that more good might be done by taking the work of medical attendance and education right into the homes of the parents of the little ones. Mrs. Barton Millard is a new member of the board.

From Mrs. Edward Johnson, chairman of the press committee for the summer school and conference to be held by the women of forty churches of the city, comes an advance announcement giving information on the plans for the school. The school will be from June 19 to 25, at the University of Omaha, with sessions each day from 2 to 5 p. m. and evenings at 8 o'clock.

The school is for the purpose of giving information and education in mission study, social service, and city problems. The outline of activities will be as follows:

Course of Study—Foreign Missions, "China," Miss Frances B. Patterson; Home Missions, "Mormonism," Bible study, Mrs. D. B. Wells.

The Bee's Wedding Book

March 21, 1896—Mr. George R. West and Miss Julia M. Armstrong were caught by cupid and married at Trinity cathedral. The wedding was very quiet, none but the parents of the bride and groom being present. The bride was an accomplished and pretty blonde and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Armstrong. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. West.

March 24, 1896—Charles A. Grimmel, manager of the Kountze properties in Omaha, has reached the sixteenth milestone of married life. Bertha Meyer was his bride and Omaha the scene of the ceremony.

March 24, 1903—Rev. Bohocan A. Filipi, minister of the Bohemian Brethren Presbyterian church, is entitled to celebrate the willow anniversary of his marriage to Mary Sedlah, which happened at Allegheny, Pa.

Mrs. Baum will return to Baltimore for a visit of several weeks after Easter. Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Lemist will occupy their home April 1, when Mrs. Campbell Fair, who has had it for the winter, will go east. Mrs. Fair will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Peck until after Easter, when she will leave for Grand Rapids, Mich., and later for Baltimore.

Mrs. Y. Schonberger announces the engagement of her daughters, Miss Lena to Mr. Samuel L. Zimmerman and Miss Sadie to Mr. Julius Spigle. She will receive in their honor Sunday evening, March 25.

Engagements

The Sermo club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Robert L. Smith.

For the Future

The entertainment committee of the Omikron club has sent out invitations for a banquet to be given Thursday evening at the Hotel Rome. Mr. Yale Holland will be toastmaster and following dinner there will be an informal smoker, with a program by Omikron orchestra.

PRELIMINARY DEBATES AT OMAHA UNI MONDAY

The first of a series of debates on the question, "Resolved, That the tariff of the United States should be determined by a board of nonpartisan tariff experts, constitutionality granted," will be held by the debating squad of the University of Omaha Monday afternoon. The university has two debates in April on this question, one with Nebraska Wesleyan, when the Omaha team supports the affirmative, and another with Amity college, where they will argue for the rejection of the plan. Dr. Ramsey is coaching the teams, and to facilitate work is planning on holding a number of the preliminary debates. Those who will speak Monday are: Affirmative, Mebane Ramsey, Stanton Salisbury, Peter Strehlow; negative, Almet Solomon, Robert Strehlow, George Percival.

DUCK HUNTING TO BE SCARCE THIS SPRING IN NEBRASKA

Nebraska hunters are not overly enthusiastic over the amount of ducks they will bag within the short time left in the open duck season. The hunting season for wild birds closes April 5 and the Platte river has risen to such a height that the hunters cannot get around so as to get in range.

Police Are Seeking Two Runaway Girls

N. C. Banks of Gray's Mills, Wis. is in Omaha looking for his daughter and niece, who ran away from their homes last Tuesday and came to Omaha with two men. Ellen Banks, aged 16 years, and Agnes Unyson, also 16 years of age, became infatuated with two men a few weeks ago and ran away with them. Mr. Banks has sworn out warrants for the arrest of Herbert Montgomery and John Montgomery, brothers, who enlaced the girls into leaving their homes. The police know the four persons to be in Omaha.

SAVIDGE SECURES MORE ROOM FOR OLD PEOPLE

Rev. C. W. Savidge has secured a lease on the old Col. Burnham house at 949 North Twenty-seventh avenue to be used in connection with the House of Hope. This will give Mr. Savidge forty rooms, the newly acquiring houses having ten rooms, the Dexter, L. Thomas having twenty rooms, and the old Discol house ten rooms.

Mr. Savidge says he has a strong team which he will gladly send out for furniture if anyone will telephone him that they have some which they will give to help furnish the new house.

DANGERS OF FAT

How fat affects the lungs

How many people are suffering from excess of fat can expand their lungs to fullest extent—giving to their bodies an abundance of fresh air?

The short, panting breath of obesity makes the heart work faster, sending the blood through veins and arteries at double pressure, giving no time for proper nourishment of the body. And all because the lungs are crowded with rolls of fat that prevent smooth, easy breathing. How much better to dissolve the fat, and allow the system to produce compact muscle. This is accomplished surely and harmlessly through Marmola Prescription Tablets. These convenient little tablets are the condensed form of that famous Marmola Prescription which for years has proved so harmless and effective in reducing fat people to slenderness. The steady even reduction is accomplished, without dieting or exercise, allowing you to live as you like, eat what you like and still lose 10 to 16 lbs. a day. Marmola Prescription Tablets are for sale by all druggists or the Marmola Co., 322 Farmers Bldg., Detroit, Mich., at 75c for a large case. If getting too fat for comfort, buy a case today.
