ORDERS FROM RAIL BOARD

Four Are Issued by State Commissioners at Lincoln.

SWITCHING CHARGE UPON ICE

Special Tariffs Permitted Upon Permittals from South Omaha Stock Yards—New Tariff on Pullman Staff Charges.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, March 27.—(Special.)—Four orders were issued by the railway commission this afternoon. One permits the Northwestern road to make a switching charge of 1 cent per hundred on carload lots of ice and 25 cents per car on sand in the Fremont yards.

The second permits the Northern Telephone company of Antelope county to issue $3,000 worth of stock to take up outstanding bills payable.

The third allows the Burlington road to make the following rates on manure from the South Omaha stock yards: Under thirty-five miles, 54 cents per hundred on carload, and between thirty-five and fifty miles 3 cents per hundred, no switching charges in South Omaha to be absorbed.

The fourth permits the Pullman company to change its rates for seat passengers to the following: Where scheduled seat fare exceeds the upper berth rate the upper berth rate to be charged; where two occupy a seat and the fare exceeds the lower berth rate the latter is to be charged and where four occupy a section twice the lower berth rate is to be charged.

Want Overhead Crossing.

John Swanson, C. Lindquist and C. E. Larson of Swedenburg were before the railway commission today asking that they be ordered to construct an overhead crossing at that place. They assert there is a steep hill running down to the track which makes it difficult to stop teams when they get started down the incline, to the crossing and that elevators on either side of the track obscure the view until teams are practically on the track. They say they have asked the company to remedy the conditions, which they assert are dangerous, but nothing having been done they now come to the commission for relief. The commission will refer the complaint to the company and await a reply before taking any further steps.

Chadron Cases Decided.

Judge T. C. Mungler has decided two land cases from the Chadron district in favor of the homesteaders, the government seeking to cancel the entry on the ground of fraud. The cases are those of Sadie Geary, formerly Sadie Ellwanger, and Nicholas G. Lehman, present owner of the land. The other was that of William H. Blundell. In the first instance it was alleged she had not resided on the land the length of time sworn to in the final proofs, and in the second case false statements in making application were set up.

Donahue Appeals.

Edward P. Donahue has appealed to the supreme court his case against J. J. Hanninghan, in which he asks for an accounting for an alleged partnership in a contracting business in which he asserts the profits were $1,000 of which he received only $100. Hanninghan asserts he received Donahue at a stipulated sum per week and a per cent of the profits. The lower court held there was no partnership, but that there was still due Donahue $100.

Gu. Officers Resign.

Two officers of Company I, Second regiment, Nebraska National guard, Omaha, have resigned as follows: Captain George E. Lundberg and Second Lieutenant H. A. Searle. An election has been ordered to fill the vacancy.

A requisition has been issued for the return to Nebraska of J. B. Gango, a Mexican, who is now under arrest at Sioux City. He is accused, in connection with several other Mexicans, with robbing the store of Sam Adler of Omaha. T. E. Britt of Lincoln, a soldier in the Spanish-American war, has been appointed a guard at the penitentiary.

Tiffany Lived in Omaha.

R. P. Tiffany, the Denver attorney, who is under arrest on the charge of swindling Lady Tankerville of England in a mining stock deal, was formerly a resident of Nebraska. While living at Abdon he was appointed a judge of the district court by Governor Dawes and was subsequently elected to that office. Later he was engaged in the banking business at Alworth and practiced law in Omaha. Salt creek practically wrecked three bridges in Lincoln yesterday, but has now got down to nearly its normal stage. The large wagon bridge at First and South streets was torn loose from its foundation and washed down stream, while two smaller bridges near Epworth park were badly damaged.

Mart Howe left today for Fort Donaldson, Dover, Tenn., where he will assume the duties of superintendent of the national cemetery. Howe has been a resident of Lincoln for many years and has always been prominent in Grand Army affairs.

NEWS NOTES FROM BEATRICE

Experts Will Check City Books Before Commission Takes Over Government.

BEATRICE, Neb., March 27.—(Special.)—At the regular session of the city council last evening it was decided to employ an expert accountant to check up on the city's business affairs before the council turns the reins of the local government over to the new commission, which takes hold May 1. Councilman Stewart stated that there were some irregularities in the water department, and that Water Commissioner Field had exceeded his authority in ordering work done at the water works plant without consulting the water committee. Some of the bills paid by Mr. Field were held up until the accountant can go over the books of the various departments of the city government and make a report.

The directors of the Beatrice Commercial club held their annual meeting last evening and elected the following officers: Robert Pease, president; John A. Keas, vice president; M. A. Thompson, treasurer.

Allen B. Curran of Marysville, Kan., and Miss Helena B. Lancaster of this city were married at Marysville, where the groom is engaged in the printing business.

Auburn Man Found Guilty of Allowing Boy to Drive Auto

SOUTH AUBURN, Neb., March 27.—(Special.)—A case was decided in the district court of Nemaha county Monday which has aroused widespread interest throughout the county owing to its having been discussed and analyzed pretty thoroughly in a recent number of the Motor Age. It was the case of the State vs. L. L. Corryell, a prominent grain dealer of Auburn. He was arrested on two complaints. First, for permitting his infant son, 11 years old, to operate his automobile. The law demanding that one shall be 15 years old to control such a machine. Second, for approaching and passing a vehicle in which were five children and two women without giving reasonable warning by blowing the horn. Third, for re-entering the road within less than thirty feet after he passed the vehicle.

Mr. Corryell did not deny the third charge, but maintained that he was confronted with a ditch three feet deep and was compelled to turn in, the driver acknowledging that he made no effort to give any of the path, but denying that the horn had been blown. The judge made clear in his instructions what is generally understood, even by motorists themselves, that a motorist coming up to another vehicle is not compelled by law to sound a horn or other signal. Mr. Corryell also acknowledged that he turned into the path within the thirty foot limit prescribed in the statute, but maintained that the emergency justified.

The greatest interest, however, centered about the question of his 11-year-old son being in control of the car. The lad had been driving the car for the entire season, but the father declared that he always sat at the lad's side with one hand on the wheel, two fingers on the throttle and one foot on the brake and therefore in entire control of the car.

The jury brought in a verdict finding him guilty on every count as charged after an hour's deliberation. Mr. Corryell will appeal the case to the supreme court for final adjudication. Judge Raper of Pawnee City presided.

NEBRASKA CITY NEWS NOTES

Peter Armstrong Hides Eighty Dollars in Stove and Later Lights Fire.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., March 27.—(Special.)—Peter Armstrong, who resides in the eastern part of the city, had some $80 that he was saving up and fearing to place the money in the bank hid it in a stove in a spare bedroom and there it remained for a long time undisturbed. Yesterday he had a guest and built a fire for him and this morning he presented thirty blackened silver dollars at the bank to be cashed in and told of the loss of $80 in paper money. The fire he built was a warm one and not a single vestige of the paper money was left.

Henry Schapers was granted a divorce by the district judge from his wife, Lenora Schapers, on the grounds of conduct unbecoming a wife.

County Treasurer Charles Johnson has begun to issue distress warrants and placing them in the hands of Sheriff Fletcher to be served. He issued forty of them yesterday.

ROMANCE STARTED IN ITALY

CULMINATES IN NEBRASKA

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., March 27.—(Special.)—Ten years ago Joseph Brivell left Italy to go out into the world to seek his fortune. When he left the station in his home town he kissed pretty little Judith Pafre good-bye and promised to make a home and send for her. He came to Nebraska and started in to farming that being the vocation he followed in Italy. He prospered well and two months ago he sent for his Italian sweetheart, who arrived in this city a few days since and visited with her relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Purille of this city. Last evening her lover came to the city from his farm near Julian and they were united in marriage. They

SHORT STORY

Food That Changed His Life.

Many level-headed business men pay too little attention to what they eat until sickness attacks them.

Sedentary occupation, improper food and daily resort to drugs, coffee or liquor to "soothe" the disease has put many a good man away.

"For many years my labors have been entirely indoors," writes a N. Y. man. "Naturally, want of exercise, coupled with hasty eating of lunch with more or less greasy food and pastry told on my digestion.

"For a long period I tried scores of remedies without avail, and finally I was compelled to resign my position as secretary of an important business association. My weight had run down from 145 to 115 lbs. I was unable to sleep naturally, rose unrefreshed and without ambition, simply dragged about, feeling more dead than alive.

"About a year ago at a meeting of the Royal Arcanum of which I am Orator, I was advised by a fellow member to try Grape-Nuts. But I had no faith in treating the matter with such a method, and said so.

"He finally won my promise to give it a fair trial. I began the following day and, to make a long story short, in less than a year I have revolutionized my physical and mental condition, now weigh close to 150 lbs., and can digest all my food, which is eaten with relish. This change is due to Grape-Nuts."

DRIFT IS NOW TOWARD TAFT

Change in Sentiment is Taking Place in Minds of Voters.

WASHINGTON FARMERS TALK

Men Are Beginning to See that His Administration Has Been in the Interest of All Classes.

BLAIR, Neb., March 27.—(Special.)—As one travels about the state he cannot but become convinced that a political change is taking place in the minds of the voter and that President Taft is the beneficiary. Men upon trains and in other places who come in contact with the people frequently speak of the change in sentiment and agree that it means much for Mr. Taft. I talked with a large number of business men of Blair and with several farmers who live near the city and was struck with the strong sentiment in favor of Mr. Taft.

Walter McCracken, a prosperous and well known farmer living a short distance from Blair, said: "President Taft has made a good president and should be re-nominated and re-elected. It is true he has made some mistakes, but take it as a whole his administration has been a good business administration and the future will show it. Speaking from the standpoint of a farmer, I feel that a mistake would be made if he should not be selected, for the farmer has received most generous prices for all the products of the farm since the Taft administration has been in power. This may not be due to Mr. Taft, but while people are charging him with the bad things we must not forget to give him the good things. I do not think it would be good business judgment to make a change at this time."

J. P. Henry, another well known farmer of Washington county who is a very strong Taft man, said: "President Taft has done the best any man could have done under the circumstances and therefore is entitled to a square deal at this time. He may not have done at all times just what would have suited us farmers, but it is pretty hard work to suit everybody and I think the president has done all in his power to benefit the country as a whole. One thing that I like about President Taft is that he has the courage of his convictions and does what he thinks is right, irrespective of whether it will make him votes or not. We are so used to seeing the man running for office trim his sails to catch the popular breeze that we hardly understand the man who does things knowing it will lose him votes. No man who is honest in his statements will accuse the president of being anything else but on the square, and that is just the kind of man we want for president."

I was told of other farmers who were outspoken for Mr. Taft, but it was nearly train time and also supper time, and this water up here does make a fellow hungry, so I made a dash for the hotel and later for my train.

Bryan Tells Why He is Against Harmon for the Presidency

LINCOLN, Neb., March 27.—William J. Bryan has given out an open letter in reply to the letter given out by E. H. Moore, Governor Harmon's campaign manager. In this Mr. Bryan announces the basis of his distrust of the Ohio executive.

Bryan denies that he has accused Harmon of being a "tool of Wall street," but says that he has labeled Harmon as the Wall street choice and as a reactionary. Bryan recites that the Ohio man was a deserter from the democratic cause in 1896, came back into the party in 1900, "but the next year was a leader in the movement in Ohio and throughout the country to turn the party back to Wall street." He is accused of having sought the nomination in 1908 through influence from Wall street. That his political strength has been thrown to the reactionary side since 1908, says Mr. Bryan, is shown by his opposition to the placing of the referendum and initiative in the constitution adopted by the Ohio convention.

Stating that this is surely enough evidence, Mr. Bryan then adds that men are convicted of murder on circumstantial evidence, and that it should be ample for proof in the present instance. He asserts that Harmon has been for years attorney for corporations in which Mr. Morgan is interested. Wall street papers are said by Bryan to be supporting the Ohio man.

"May we not judge a man by his supporters when we find him supported by those who want to convert the government into a private asset," he adds. He demands publication of the sources of contribution to the campaign funds of the various democratic candidates and states that Mr. Moore will find little Harmon sentiment on his visit to Nebraska.
