SQUABS LEAD THE SENIORS

Association Basket Ball Five Trims Creighton, 26 to 21.

TEN POINTS ON FREE THROWS

Hainbova, Composed of High School Players, Win with Ease from Excelsiors by Score of 31 to 15.

Squabs, St. Creighton seniors, 21. The Squabs, with Louis Dodds as referee, defeated the Creighton seniors at the Young Men's Christian association Thursday evening by a score of 26 to 21. The Squabs made ten of their points on free throws, as the seniors were repeatedly penalized. The game was hard fought, the Squabs being in the lead from the start, with the seniors pushing them hard. For the Squabs Bowman started with ten free throws, while for the seniors Torrey and Russom each scored four baskets. The game was marred by fouling with the referee, Fester, center for the seniors, had his nose broken in a collision with Torrey of the Squabs team.

NEW YORK, March 29.—James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Olympic games committee, has received an application for a place on the team from an athlete in Pekin, Ill., who modestly claims a place in five events—the 40 and 50-yard runs, the Marathon, the running broad jump and the hop, step and jump. The "unknown" asserts in his letter that he has recently done the 40 in 45 seconds and the 50 in fairly good time. The world's record for the 40 at present is held by Maxey Long of the New York Athletic club with a mark of 47 seconds.

Council Bluffs Sulphur Refinery Urged for Bluffs

W. S. Greenleaf of Omaha will meet the executive committee of the Commercial club today and explain his plans for establishing a large sulphur refinery at this point to handle the crude products from the mines located near Cody, Wyo. Mr. Greenleaf represents the American Sulphur Mining and Refining company, which owns the valuable deposit. It is necessary to locate the refinery on Burlington tracks for the reason that the mines are on the Burlington's Black Hills line. It is also desirable to have the works situated as near as possible to the Omaha wholesale district, and it is for this purpose of selecting some of the available sites in the western part of the city that the services of the Commercial club are to be called for.
