Popular Guest from Chicago

Mrs. LOUISE JACQUES OF CHICAGO, FORMERLY MISS ANNA RI ORCUTT OF THIS CITY, IS VISITING MRS. ARTHUR KEELINE.

The milder weather is bringing home the travelers who have been south and west and east. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. McGilton are home from a stay of several weeks in Texas. Miss Rose Smyth and Miss Irene Coad, who have been having a jolly outdoor time on the Coad ranch in New Mexico, are expected home in a few weeks. Miss Beatrice Coad, who has been there with them, will remain until the first of May.

Mrs. N. L. Guckert and two children, who have spent the winter in New Orleans, will be back next week. Among the interesting side trips taken by Mrs. Guckert was the visit to Panama. Mrs. C. Y. Smith is expected this week from Waco, Tex., where she has been visiting her sister. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Miller and daughter, Miss Janet Miller, will be home next Sunday from California, where they have been since February. Mrs. H. M. McClannahan and Miss Katherine McClannahan will be home Thursday from Los Angeles. From California Mr. and Mrs. Victor Caldwell return today.

Mrs. E. H. Sprague is back from her southern trip, as are also Mrs. S. S. Curtis and Miss Curtis, who have been at Peas Christian. Miss Mr. and Mrs. Dempster and Miss Allen, who have been at Biloxi and in Cuba, will be home next week.

Miss Caroline Barklow is home from her trip to Bermuda and a short stay in New York. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Payne return today from Bermuda.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McShane and Miss Marie McShane will return next week from their trip abroad. Miss Mabel Balcomb, who has spent the winter in New York, is back and is at the Colonial. Mr. and Mrs. DeForrest Richards have returned from an eastern trip.

Feederities Are Busy.

The local members of Delta Gamma sorority are busy making plans for the visit of their national officers here next month. The officers are coming to have a conference with Miss Ethel Tukey, who is editor of the sorority magazine, and many social affairs will be given for them. Among the affairs planned are a tea to be given at the home of Miss Tukey and a luncheon given by the local members.

The officers who will arrive April 22 and be here until April 25 are Miss Ada May Brown of Rhineland, Wis., president; Mrs. R. K. Crawford of Aetna, O.; Miss Agnes Burton of Detroit, secretary, and Miss Margaret Lake of Baltimore, treasurer.

Sigma Mu fraternity at the University of Nebraska will give its annual formal party next Friday evening at the Lincoln hotel, Lincoln, followed Saturday evening by the annual banquet. The division convention of the fraternity will be held these two days and delegates from Ames, Ia., University of Iowa and University of Minnesota will be present. Many Omaha and Council Bluffs alumni are planning to attend both affairs.

Among the Omaha people who went to Plans of Players' Club.

The Players' club has decided to present "Lady Ursula" for the second performance, which it will give after Lent. It will be given at the Brandeis, April 30, with Mrs. Harry Doerty in the title role. The other members of the cast are Miss Mary Ringwalt and Messrs. Rex Morhouse, George McIntyre, Homer Constant, William Taylor, Robert Dinning, Samuel Dighton, Walter Cruden, Lord.

As a curtain raiser to the play "The Marriage of Kitty," to be given April 17, some of the members will give "How He Lied to Her Husband." In the cast of this humorous skit will be Miss Ann Soroka and Messrs. Walter Cruden and Joseph Forman.

Happy Hollow Romance. A happy hollow club romance will result in one of the larger autumn weddings, it is rumored. The engagement will probably be announced in the late spring or early summer.

The young woman is the daughter of a prominent physician and is possessed of Unusual beauty and attended school in New York.

The man is a popular young newspaper man. He attended Ohio Wesleyan university and is a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Both young people are members of the Happy Hollow club. The bride to be has shown her ring to a few intimate friends and the wedding will take place next fall.

O. H. S. Musical Competition.

The musical triumph of high school seniors for places on the OHS commencement program will be held May 2, probably in the assembly room at the school, according to plans announced by Miss Mary Sullivan, head of the English literature department, yesterday afternoon.

Only the entrants and the faculty judges will be allowed to be present while the competition is in progress. There will be three musical numbers, vocal or instrumental, on the program, and the object of the judges will be to pick selections which will appeal to the audience on the evening of the graduation exercises rather than some piece requiring technical skill.

Fourteen students are included on the list of seniors who will compete, eight of whom will give piano numbers, four violin selections and two who will offer vocal efforts. The list: Piano—Marion McCaffrey, Edwin A. Rella, Alice Y. Smith, Sybil Nelson, Fannie Livingston, Ruth Ogle, Eleanor Lear and Adelyn Wood. Violin—Frida Paustian, Edward Underland, Joseph Wooley and Evelyn T. Hason. Vocal—Hazel Williams and Maude Whitley.

Easter Egg Hunts.

Mrs. Lee Herdman entertained at a children's party Saturday afternoon in celebration of the eighth birthday of her daughter, little Miss Kathleen Herdman. A delightful luncheon was served the latter part of the afternoon and an elaborate Easter contestpiece was used for the table. A large mirror in the center of the table represented a miniature lake and on this were toy ducks. On the mossy banks were Easter favors. There were little chickens and rabbits and nests filled with candy eggs for the little guests. The rest of the afternoon was spent with dancing and fifteen children were present.

Mrs. G. L. Atkins entertained at a children's party and Easter egg hunt Saturday afternoon at her home on Park avenue in celebration of the tenth birthday of her little daughter, Ellen Marie. Pink and white roses were used in decoration and in the center of the table was a birthday cake with ten candles. Assisting Mrs. Atkins was Miss Margaret Finnegan. The children present were:

- Little Misses—Helen Borsham, Irene Williams, Margaret Borsham, Irene Dyball, Alice Borsham, Katherine Marion Alaman, Osterberg, Helen Alaman, Osterberg, Evelyn Hedgwick, Carrie Hodgwick, Gwen McCoy, Elinor Uhl, Dorothy Gray, Helen Gray, Masters. Thomas Kuhn.

The University of Omaha Notes.

The Utopian society of the University of Omaha met at the home of Miss Rhea Lamoreaux, 212 West street, Friday evening and gave a two-act French farce entitled "The Return of Anni Deborah." Between acts there were several musical selections.

Dramatic personae.

- Miss Jane Tompkins—Ethel Whitley; Miss Sarah Tompkins—Clara Barnes; Margaret Lamoreaux—Clara Barnes; Miss Tompkins—Eleanor Haley; Blossom Parris, Margaret's friend—Ferne Nicolas; Della, a maid—Rhea Lamoreaux.

Display of New Modes

In our display of authentic styles there is a wealth of variety and more beauty than words can explain. In assembling our new stock of women's and misses' garments every fashion center has been drawn upon for proof of cleverness leading costumers have produced.

TAILORED SUITS Taffetas A Strongly Featured This Spring

The prettiest effects in taffetas are brought out in the new coat suits for afternoon wear. Some of these are the short blouse styles quaintly trimmed with ruchings, shirrings and plaitings. Fancy lingerie and lace collars and cuffs are seen very frequently on the taffeta suits.

Colorings generally follow the preference for harmonious combinations—blues and greens, gold and blue, blue and black, rose and blue. There is an early note in favor of white serges, Bedford cords and whipcords, both in plain and fancy tailored suits. Whipcords are strongly favored in combinations of gray and white and black and white checks.

Coats are cut in many different designs—from the extreme cutaway styles to the severely plain coats. Skirts are cut more full, but with lines that retain the desired narrow effect.

Braided designs are used to charming effects on many of the more elaborate suits. Our styles, in brief, represent the very newest features from the imported models. Prices range from $25.00 to $85.00.

Exclusive Evening Gowns

A complete expression of Paris preferences—Gowns designed by Paquin, Worth, Drecoll, Callot and Agnes. Prices range from $29.75 to $150.00.

Lingerie Gowns

We have on display hand embroidered models in all styles. The daintiest creations that have ever been executed in lingerie. They are shaped and fitted the same as the silk gowns. Prices range from $35.00 to $125.00.

New Frocks of Two-Tone Taffeta, Satin and Meteors

Dresses suitable for wear under long coats, and attractive models for afternoon wear in all of the newest combinations. They are taken from the most extreme French models of this season. Attractive touches of color and handwork—the most becoming dresses shown. Prices range from $19.50 to $50.00.

Separate Wraps

The separate wrap has become so diversified in its uses that it is indispensable to a woman's wardrobe. With its ever-increasing usefulness has come a correspondingly wide scope in the diversity of styles and materials to meet greatly varied requirements.

In recognition of the important tendencies that are working together to increase the desirability attached to coats and wraps in the world of fashion, we have this season assembled an unusual assortment of models which provides more than abundant choice to meet all requirements.

Coats for business, street and traveling. Coats for autoing, train and steamer. Distinctive wraps for dressy occasions.

In the First Group—Business, street and traveling coats—we strongly feature three important points in combination—superior quality of cloth, tailoring excelling notably in excellence and style, possessing features of distinctiveness and exclusiveness. Coats for sturdy service are these at a price range of $10.00, $15.00, $19.50, $25.00, $29.75, and up to $55.00.

In the Second Group—Autoing, train and steamer coats—we show just what appeals to practical people—cozy, generously fashioned comfortable garments in especially attractive styles and made of fabrics that bear the closest scrutiny from every viewpoint. Prices, $19.50, $25.00, $35.00, $45.00 and $50.00.

In the Third Group—Wraps for dressy occasions—we emphasize the reasonableness of price for garments that show the consummate skill of artists in reproducing and adapting ideas from the models by Paul Poiret, Paquin, Drecoll and other Paris Style originators—also attractive models of original American designs. Wraps of Charmeuse, Silk and Satin, wraps of crepe, voile and tulle, wraps of chiffon, meteor and nets at $19.50, $25.00, $35.00, $45.00, $55.00, $65.00, $75.00 and $85.00.
