TO OBTAIN A POSITION in the United States Navy, you do not have to be fitted to do just one particular kind of work. For in the Navy a man may find work as seaman, electrician, machinist, fireman, clerk, stenographer, bookkeeper, musician, carpenter, shipfitter, coppersmith, blacksmith, boatswain, steward, cook, baker, or in the hospital corps. And if he already knows a trade he can get higher pay from the beginning.

These opportunities are open to any healthy, ambitious young man of good moral character, between the ages of 17 and 35. The Navy Department never urges anyone to enlist, but does recommend serious consideration of what it gives as a training or as a life work.

Call at the Navy Recruiting Station, Postoffice building, Omaha, Neb., and question the officer in charge all about the healthy, congenial life on board ship; the fine training both mental and physical; the chances to learn by study and travel; the pay, promotion and incentive to save money; and about the fine class of men you come in contact with.
