

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Demonstrations Show Clearly That Wheat Needs Bolstering. CORN REACHES HIGHEST PRICE

There is Excellent Leadership Among the Bulls, Who Keep the Market Healthy by Profit Taking.

OMAHA, March 30, 1912. Today's wheat market demonstrated clearly to the trade that the market needs constant bolstering to prevent a stampeding tendency.

OLD CHURCH ROW RECALLED

Death of Rev. Richard L. Burtzell, Rector of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church at Kingston, N. Y., strikingly recalls a controversy belonging equally to ecclesiastical law, and to municipal politics, a controversy springing out of the campaign of Henry George for mayor of the old city of New York in 1888, and the hot advocacy of George and the single tax doctrine, by Father Edward McGlynn, rector of St. Stephen's church.

1912 MODEL FISH STORY

Educated Fish Jumped Into a Hole and Palled the Hole After It.

The veracity of "Bub" Wicks, a well-known fisherman of Tarrytown, N. Y., hung in the balance until he gave a detailed statement, with more or less floor plans, of his encounter recently with a large fish that jumped into a hole in the ice and pulled the hole in after him.

ATTEMPTS AT CORNERING THE PEANUT MARKET AND SQUEEZING PLAIN PEOPLE.

The trail of the serpent is over the gober. While the world sat in the Slough of Despond and watched the fish run away with the spoon in a fight for abundant prices it was comforting to reflect that the faithful peasant, that staple of the market, was still cheap and abundant.
