INDOOR MEET TO BE SURE GO

Official Backing is Given the Contest at Noonday Luncheon.

COMMITTEES ARE APPOINTED

Experienced Men Will Have General Supervision of the Big Meet to be Held at Auditorium on April 27.

The big Missouri valley open indoor track meet, which will be held at the Auditorium Saturday evening, April 27, was given official backing by twenty representative Omaha business and educational men at the "Y" yesterday noon, when a luncheon was held to discuss the coming event.

J. T. Maxwell, physical director of the association, who inaugurated the revival of this annual athletic competition, outlined plans for the meet and emphasized the importance of encouraging entrants from local schools and colleges as well as institutions throughout Nebraska and adjoining states.

Short talks of approval of the project were made by Superintendent E. U. Graff of the public schools, President George Gilmore of the "Y" association, George T. Morton of the Real Estate exchange, James Richardson of the Board of Education, Prof. F. H. Currens of the University of Omaha, C. E. Reed, vice principal and athletic director of the Omaha High school, and others.

Committees Appointed.

Upon the unanimous agreement of those present, committees to arrange the details of the meet were appointed by J. T. Maxwell, who will assume the supervision of the affair: Chairman of all auxiliary committees, Superintendent E. U. Graff; publicity, George T. Morton of the Real Estate exchange and Ad club; patrons, James Richardson of the Board of Education and the University club; entertainment, Thomas H. Maiters, jr., university; Prof. F. H. Currens, college; C. E. Reed, high school.

Creighton Prepares for Base Ball Game

Carl Rasmus, first baseman, was yesterday elected captain of the senior class base ball team at Creighton university. As there will be no varsity nine at Creighton this year, the team will be restricted to an inter-class sport, and a league organized among the various classes, which will play a series of games for the college championship.

Captains are now being elected in the different classes, and they will shortly hold a meeting to form the interclass league and draw up a schedule of games. Rasmus, the seniors' leader, will look after the initial sack for the class of '12, and will have a formidable lineup to assist him. Biley and Miller of last year's varsity will constitute the battery for the seniors, while the rest of the team will be selected from Lanphier, Ryan, Norris, Tobin, Keenan, Connell, O'Connor and Quinn.

High School Lads Start to Practice on Creighton Field

The Omaha high school base ball hopefuls held their first practice of the season yesterday at Creighton field, when some twenty-five young enthusiasts of the horseshoe sport went through about two hours of preliminary work, loosening up joints and trying to gain their fielding eyes.

Creighton Organizes Inter-Class Ball League

An interclass ball league has been organized at Creighton university and play will begin immediately after the Easter holidays. At a meeting of the captains of the various class teams Monday afternoon it was decided to draw up a schedule of ten games for each team, the winner to be tendered a banquet at the end of the season. There are six strong teams entered and there promises to be a lively tussle. The six teams with their captains are as follows: Seniors, Carl Rasmus; Juniors, George Harrington; Freshmen, Dennis Collins; Fourth High, Henry Dolan; Third High A, Leo Kane; Third High A and Special Class, Earl Torrey.

Creighton Lads Prepare for the Hand Ball Season

A junior hand ball league has been formed by the students of the high school department of Creighton university with Prof. Ritley of the high school in charge. Vincent Burkhardt was elected manager, Paul Duffy, secretary, and Edward Carvill, treasurer. There are six teams in the league and each has chosen its captain as follows: Giants, Captain Brennan; Naps, Captain Collopy; Nationals, Captain Shields; Pirates, Captain Morgan; Athletics, Captain Burkhardt. Each team will play ten games and each member of the winning team will be presented with a Creighton pennant.

Some years ago your "joiner" of the Easter Parade used to fume, fuss and bother about his parade clothes a month in advance. Today he comes here and says: "George, fit me out with something nifty," and leaves the store twenty minutes later with a dainty box containing a stunning suit. I don't charge anything for the swift service and only $18 to $25 for the suit.
