The Coats

Radical departures from ideas of past seasons have added an air of elegance and charm to the coats shown by us this season. E. J. Wile & Co., who are foremost in executing the season's favored fashions, have done much to make our Spring Opening Displays the most successful of any we have ever held by contributing the pick of their wide range of styles to our showing.

Materials are Whipcords in plain and two-tone shades, plain or wide wale serges, fancy tweeds and worsteds and mannish mixtures. An almost unlimited range of colors and styles.

Deserving of special mention is the "Gaby Model" which is shown exclusively by us in Omaha. The accompanying illustration gives an idea of this exquisite new model.

CARMEN ARE TO GET RAISE

Board of Arbitration Appointed by City Railway Advises Company Pay Men Ten Per Cent More Wages.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, April 2.—(Special Telegram.)—Mayor Hanna will tomorrow for the first time under the commission plan deliver to the council a formal message and review of the work of the council. In this he will outline the work of the administration for the next two years. The mayor is busy outlining his views and it is expected he will have some interesting information to set before the council.

Building a market house and flood protection will be among the main items to be discussed. This will be the first message by the mayor of the city to the city council under the Des Moines plan. It was thought that with the present plan of government the law did not require such a message. After consultation with the corporation counsel the attorney gave the mayor an opinion that the law does not intend that the message shall be omitted.

Carpenters to Stick. The second day of the carpenters' strike did not bring any developments in the situation other than each side claiming it is going to hold out until it wins. Morning and afternoon meetings were held by the carpenters to discuss the strike.

Farmer Injured. Thomas French, an aged farmer, was kicked in the head by an unruly horse and may die as the result of his injuries. The skull bone was fractured in several places. Raise for Carmen Advised. The board of arbitration appointed by the Des Moines City Railway company and the street car men's union to draw up a new wage scale today agreed upon an increase of 10 per cent for all employees. The men had asked for an increase of 25 per cent. The old wage scale expired March 1.

He has been under secret arrest for three weeks.

Iowa News Notes. MARSHALLTOWN—A land slide in a deep cut on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul near Haverhill yesterday delayed traffic all day and forced the road to detour trains through this city. It is estimated that 100 cubic yards of earth slide onto the track. It will be twenty-four hours before the track is cleared so trains can be run.

GLENDEN—William Albee, who lost both hands, being thrown from the top of a freight car in the Burlington yards at Alliance, Neb., has settled with the company for $10,000. Albee was formerly employed at Alliance. During a scarcity of switchmen he was taken from his usual position and was helping in the yards. Mr. Albee will study law.

100 ONCE FAT WOMEN TO CLIMB PIKE'S PEAK

One hundred women, formerly obese, are to climb to the apex of Pike's Peak from the Iron Springs. That is the program of the "Fat Women's Club" for the coming summer. The club is for women who have been reduced to normal weight and are now trying to keep it. The first number on our chart will be a banquet in the Garden of the Gods, and it is my purpose to have a camping party made up to sleep among those titanic boulders that night. Early the next morning we shall board the electric car for Manitou, and then proceed to the foot of Pike's Peak, at the foot of the famous Peak. This point is substantially six thousand feet above sea level, and the crest of Pike's Peak slightly exceeds fourteen thousand feet. We shall start up the trail shortly after six o'clock, and I believe by daylight we shall be at the top. Of course, climatic conditions after a great climb will be very different from those on the way up. There will be the winds and high winds, and other disagreeable things. But I see no reason why we can't make it.

English Miners May Reject the Minimum Wage Proposition

LONDON, April 2.—The British miners who in the first instance were less willing to strike for the principle of a minimum wage than their Welsh and Scottish comrades, are now, as far as the figures of the ballot tell, still less willing to return to work. The Welshmen who were the backbone of the original strike are voting strongly in favor of returning to the pits.

This change of opinion has upset all calculations and although the public and the leaders of the miners still are hopeful that the final result of the voting will be in favor of calling off the strike, the majority either way promises to be a narrow one. Returns thus far are of about 250,000 votes. The exact proportion for and against is not known. In some cases it is declared that the majority in favor of resumption is nearly 10,000, while in others a majority of 2,500 against returning to the pits is given. The official count will be made tomorrow by the executive committee of the miners' federation and the result will be announced on Thursday.

Big Snows Arrive at Work.

For three days large gangs of men have been at work on the break in the main line of the Union Pacific near Fremont, the first station this side of Fremont, where nearly a mile of track was entirely washed away or badly damaged. This work has been carried on night and day, and at 11 o'clock today the ends of the tracks had been connected. From that time on there was a hustling in the operating department to get the traffic again started westward.

More Damage Delays Work.

The Northwestern got its first train in from the west since Saturday. It handled 60 passengers, who were discharged at the Union station a little after 11 o'clock. However, they did not come on a through train. This road had expected to establish through service over its Elkhorn valley line last night and had practically completed the repairs at the Arlington wabout. Some rain during the night, softened by the seepage of water, a large section of the bank slid

Break Near Edgmont.

The break in the Burlington's Billings line in the vicinity of Edgmont is still in bad shape. There passengers transfer from one train to another by walking over a board walk a distance of 200 feet. As there is a high grade washed away it will be some days before through train service is restored.
