Grand Jury Makes Report on Investigations in Omaha.

OPENS UP SEVERAL STREETS

One Street Found Below Specifications and One Above, While the Others Are Reported to Be as They Should.

Report of the Douglas county grand jury's examination of street pavements in Omaha was given Judge Abraham L. Sutton by the grand jury and filed in district yesterday morning.

The report is as follows: Preliminary to the final report of the grand jury we state that we have made investigation of pavements laid in Omaha during the last four years.

The streets selected were the following: Twenty-fifth street just north of Marcy, on east side, a brick street.

Manderson street just east of Twenty-eighth avenue, north side, a brick pavement.

Laird street, just west of Twenty-second, on south side, a brick pavement.

Douglas street near the west line of Seventeenth street, on south side, an asphalt pavement.

PARK BOARD ACCEPTS OFFER OF DR. MERCER ON CONDITION

At a meeting of the members of the Park board yesterday the question of accepting the land donated by Dr. Nelson Mercer for park purposes was considered.

Dr. Mercer has not signified his intention to withdraw these conditions, but members of the board believe he will.

The board decided to purchase 1,000 cubic yards of dirt from the city in the Ames avenue grading project.

BASIN, WYOMING, PLANS BIG ALFALFA FESTIVAL

At Basin, Wyo., where five years ago they were raising only sagebrush and cactus, now they have perfected plans for an alfalfa festival and alfalfa carnival from September 17 to 20.
