

The Busy Bees

:- Their Own Page

SPRING is really here at last, Busy Bees, and many of our interests will be different from what they were last winter. We will be more outdoors.

Are any of the Busy Bees planning gardens? If so tell the other Bees about your plans and write letters about the success you have with your flowers and vegetables.

Have any of the Busy Bees fixed houses in the trees for the birds to lodge in? Remember, just a box or tin can will attract some birds which are looking for a place to settle.

Who of the Bees have chickens, rabbits, squirrels or guinea pigs? Some pictures of the Busy Bees taken with their pets would be very interesting for the Children's page.

Your queen, Hazel Smith, has won one of the prizes today. The other prize goes to Alta Davis of South Omaha.

There are a number of new Busy Bees today: Martha E. Adams, South Omaha; Gertrude Koenig, Omaha; Birdie Evans, Lehi, Utah; Louise Pacific Junction, Ia.; Edith Hawkins, Omaha; Charles Prigoon, Omaha.

Little Stories by Little Folk

A Wise Hen.

By Alta Davis, 1411 North Twenty-fourth Street, South Omaha, Blue Side.
Last spring we had some little chickens. They were very cute and I liked to watch them.

Our Picnic.

By Hazel Smith, 511 Hoyt Street, Omaha, Blue Side.
One day last summer my two cousins took a few girls and boys, myself and my brother, out on a picnic. We all took lunch and got to our destination about 11 o'clock. My cousin had been before and put up a swing for us. We swung until lunch was ready.

A Great Excitement.

By Gertrude Koenig, Aged 11 Years, 111 North 16th Street, Omaha, Blue Side.
We had been traveling abroad and had been in Europe eighteen months. We called for New York August 11.

Margaret's Lesson.

By Rebecca Kamm, Aged 12 Years, 225 K Street, South Omaha.
Once there were two little girls. Their names were Margaret and Clara. Clara was kind, but Margaret was not. One day when they were out walking they met a dog. Its foot was cut and bleeding.

A Picnic.

By Birdie Evans, Aged 11 Years, Lehi, Utah, Blue Side.
One day last summer six girls and myself went on a picnic. We were going to pick wild flowers. We came across some wild flowers, then we thought we would hunt birds' nests. We found twelve nests and there were nine eggs in them.

A Picnic.

By Evelyn Bruce, Aged 9 Years, 111 North 16th Street, South Omaha, Blue Side.
One summer day my grandpa took my mother and my two sisters and three other girls and me out for a picnic. We went to see the animals and had two sacks of peanuts. Mamma threw peanuts on the ground and the one who found the most peanuts got a penny. I did not find any peanuts and I began to cry.

A Trip to the South.

By Edith Hawkins, Aged 10 Years, 421 Grand Street, Omaha, Red Side.
Two years ago when Papa had his vacation we started for the south. I traveled home from school because I wanted to go too.

Our Club.

By Martha Clifton, Aged 10 Years, 116 North Twenty-fourth Street, South Omaha, Blue Side.
Our club had a meeting at Ardath McClellan's house. We are trying to place a quilt and send it to the Child Saving Institute. There are eight girls that belong to our club. Arcath McElvire is the president. When we get through with the quilt we are going to elect an officer president. Then the new president can let us make whatever she wants us

RULES FOR YOUNG WRITERS

4. Original stories or letters only will be used.
5. Write your name, age and address at the top of the first page.

First and second prizes of books will be given for the best two contributions in this page each week. Address all communications to CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT, OMAHA BEE, Omaha, Neb.

Window we saw cotton growing and papa thought that it was blackberry vines. We stopped at Oklahoma City again for a few days. When we changed cars at Kansas City we had to wait in the depot for a long time.

Why Henry Was Late.

By Louise M. Timms, Aged 12 Years, Pacific Junction, Ia., Blue Side.
Henry was on his way to school one morning when he met a little boy. The boy was crying and Henry asked what the trouble was.

The Easter Bunny.

By Isabelle Eddy, 226 Wirt Street, Omaha, Blue Side.
It was the week before Easter and Mr. Bunnie was very busy making eggs. While Mrs. Bunnie was making candy eggs.

What the Tree Does for Billie.

By Helbertha Barker, Aged 12 Years, 819 North Fifteenth Street, Omaha.
Billie is a little blue-eyed boy of 3 years. He has golden hair and in summer it grows curly.

The Boy and the Bear.

By Charles Prigoon, Aged 12 Years, 604 Miami Street, Omaha, Red Side.
A boy was walking along a path in the woods when he heard a bear in the bushes. He looked at the bear and the bear said: "Where are you going?"

Trips from Chicago to Omaha.

By Irene Dennis, Aged 12 Years, 821 South Twenty-fourth Street, Omaha.
We started from Chicago on time, on a Sunday night about 8:30 p. m. It was quite cold. We sat up a little while and then went to bed.

Adventures of My Brother.

By Ruby Henke, Aged 9 Years, 511 Leavenworth Street, Omaha.
When Richard was about 3 years old he thought he would go to work with his father and went over to the railroad bridge about two miles from home.

Honesty Rewarded.

By Westonia McGrath, Aged 11 Years, 324 South Seventeenth Street.
Once upon a time there was a very poor boy. He had a sister and a mother. One day as he was walking along a path he found a pocketbook. He opened it and found the owner's name on a card.

Dog and Monkey Friends

TOPSY AND TEDDY.

It would be hard to find two better friends than Topsy and Teddy. Topsy is a big, shaggy brown 6-year-old monkey and Teddy is a little fluffy, white 3-month-old Spitz dog. Teddy is a lively, fun loving puppy, whose life has been very peaceful so far. Topsy is a wise, and monkey who has had an unusually exciting career.

A Contented Girl.

By Mollie Coleman, 85 South Seventh Street, Omaha, Aged 11 Years.
An automobile was traveling at an easy pace when the owner spotted a farm house near the road. "Stop," said he to the driver. "I want to get a drink of water from that well near which stands a little girl who looks so wistful and dejected."

ried him two or three blocks towards town and a neighbor's boy, passing a jewelry store, saw Richard in the window and brought him home. That was about 5 o'clock. We were all glad to see him safe and sound. A true story.

Daffydils.

SUPERIOR, Neb., March 30.—Dear Editor: Here are some daffydils I made up. Can you use them?
If Little Boy Blue fell asleep on the strawstack, would straw-berry him?
As I was coming home from the circus I lost my key, so I had to go back to the circus and look for the monkey.

Easter Day.

By Louise M. Timms, Aged 12 Years, 604 Miami Street, Omaha.
"Today is Easter," said little May. "And little Grace is here. She has come to help me gather eggs. For this is the best of the year."
"Do not make noise," said little May. "Today is glad Easter day. For when the bunnies see you come, Dear me, they would all begin to run."
"It's time to go," said little Grace. "For mamma does not know where that when I asked to run a race. The ground was full of snow."
"Goodbye, dear Grace," said little May. "Easter is a beautiful day. I had a very nice time," said little Grace. "Tomorrow I shall run another race."

TIMELY SNORE STOPS ROW

Broke Loose in Critical Pause in Woman's Rights Debate Among Males.
A full-time suffragist, who happened to be a man, from the platform of the Bush Temple theater in Chicago, "dared" a non-suffragist to go out in the alley and settle the question with our fists. The challenge was promptly accepted. but another man, who was asleep in the center of the house—during the argument, spoiled it all by emitting a loud snore. The audience was waiting

What's the Matter With Your Baby?

The young mother—and many an old one, too—is often puzzled to know the cause of her child's ill nature. The loudness of its crying does not necessarily indicate the seriousness of its trouble. It may have nothing more than a headache or a feeling of general dullness. It cannot, of course, describe its feelings, but as a preliminary measure you are safe in trying a mild laxative.

Health and Beauty Hints

Rose: To rid your skin of that shyness, sallow look and make it appear glowing, nothing better than a lotion made by dissolving 4 ounces spermacin in 1/2 pint of water and taking a switch bath for hot water. Then adding 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. This lotion will clear and whiten your skin, make it smooth and velvety, and give you a beautiful complexion. It costs very little, will not show on your skin like powder does, and, when you wear a veil will not rub off so easily. This is really a wonderful complexion beautifier, and one which every woman should use.

PIMPLES ON FACE CAUSED GREAT DISFIGUREMENT

For Three Long Years, Suffered Great Deal. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Brought Marvelous Results. In Few Weeks Cured Completely.

1015 W. 20th Place, Chicago, Ill. — "I was troubled with acne for three long years. My face was the only part affected, but it caused a great disfigurement, also suffering and loss of sleep. At first there appeared red, hard pimples which later contained white matter. I suffered a great deal caused by the itching. I was in a state of perpetuity when walking the streets or anywhere before the public. I used pills and other remedies but they failed completely. I thought of giving up when nothing would help, but something told me to try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I bought some Cuticura Soap and Ointment and by following the directions I was relieved in a few days. I used Cuticura Soap for washing my face, and applied the Cuticura Ointment morning and evening. This treatment brought marvelous results so I continued with it for a few weeks and was cured completely. I can truthfully say that the Cuticura Remedies are not only all, but more than they claim to be." (Signed) G. Baumel, May 28, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment do so much for skin eruptions, poor complexions, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, and cost so little that it is almost criminal not to use them. Sold by dealers everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free with 10-cent book. Address, "Cuticura," Dept. T, Boston. Tender-faced men should shave with Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick.
