

I—SQUASHED. Desmond, the international crook, is squashed flat inside the folding bed... II—THE GIRL IN THE TRUNK. Claude Eclair, hero, who has been searching the royal palace for his beautiful sweetheart, Rosamond... III—A STRANGE BARRICADE. When Claude Eclair, leading the Russian soldiers, hurries after the nihilists who have Desmond sardined in the folding bed... IV—A FLAG OF TRUCE. Inside the folding bed, Desmond, who is now desperate enough to justify the adjective usually prefixed to his name... V—SURRENDER. Claude Eclair, leading the Russian royal forces, at once sees the white flag, as he thinks, shown by the nihilist party... VI—FOILED. 'I'm the boy!' cries Desperate Desmond, "although I feel like a sardine." The nihilists are astonished to find that their captive is not the czar, but Claude easily convinces them of the villain's identity.
