ITS A BEAR, ITS A BEAR!

L-IN THE HANDS OF COSSACKS. Claude Eclaire, hero, has captured the villain, Desmond, and he and Rosamond now hand their prisoner over to the Cos sacks, whose reputation is enough to make a stronger heart than Desmond's quall. The Corsacks are glad to get an opportunity of having some fun at the expense of the international crook.

II.-"DANCE." The Cossacks, having a great admiration for western cowboys, now adopt a cowbey habit with Desmond. They command him to dance for them, and, to increase his speed, they fire bullets into mond to display really astonishing agility. and the Cossacks enjoy his antics greatly.

BEAR IT'S A BEAR!

HI.-THE TURKEY STROTSKI. So infectious does the spirit of Des mond's dancing prove that presently all key Trot, completely forgetting the dances a very graceful creature at any time, and these, as you see, look absolutely ridiculous in their prancing.

IV .- STEPPING LIVELY. As the crowd dances, even Claude for-ets about Desmond for the time, and gallantly leads out Rosamond for a turn. Needless to say, Rosamond dances divinely, and her grace fascinates Desmond more than ever, so that he solves to steal her away again right from Claude and all his aliles, the Cossacks

V .- AWAY WITH THE GIRL It is the work of a moment for Des-mond to leap upon a horse, and, as he spurs it forward, to snatch Resamond right out of Claude's arms. It is the greatest humiliation that Claude has yet standing with the rough Russian horse-

VL-IN FULL CRY. "I'm the boyski!" cries Desperate Desmond, as he spurs his steed across the steppes, with Rosamond in his power. Little does he reck that the Cossacks are urging their horses after him, for power. Claude presses the chase, but its result we cannot tell until tomorrow.

CARD OF THANKS.

It is impossible for us to find words which will fully express our heartfelt gratitude toward ail of our neighbors, friends and acquaintances for their many kindnesses and neble assistance, as well as for the numerous tokens of respect evidenced by so many beautiful florms offerings during our recent bereavement, caused by the sudden and accidental death of our beloved husband and father, who lost his life in the T. F. Stroud, & Co. fire. Although this unexpected and sudden experience was a severe trial, the very numerous expressions and deeds of deep sympathy have been consoling and, although language is insdequate to entirely express our feelings and thanks to all concerned, will never be forgotten. MRS. JOHN LAUNTERER AND FAMILY, 162 North Ninetsenth street.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sym-pathy during the liness and death of our dear mother and sistor, Eina; also for the many beautiful floral offerings. MR. AND MRS. H. J. PETERSON AND FAMILY.
