It was extremely interesting to the members of the faculty as the student body.

Weld is the only county in Colorado in which an entire school district is owned by one man, and the pupils in the district are all his children. This is district No. 94, east of Harding, owned by S. Sanford, where Gladys Gaylar is employed to teach Sanford's two sons. She must walk a mile to the schoolhouse each day and put in the regular school day to secure her wages from the county. A kindergarten teacher in New York is each day and put in the regular school day to secure her wages from the county. A kindergarten teacher in New York in speaking of the attack made on "baby talk" by one of the Tutta college instructors, said: "Of course we all know that 'baby talk' is a poor substitute for the resi language, but we know also that it is the result of first effort. It will always exist, and thank heaven for it! The people who hate it are those who are too matter-of-fact to be motherly. No mother teaches her baby baby talk' any more than she teaches it to crawl and is adopt the Tufts method. And to curb the lisping pratite of the baby. which is usually intelligible to the mother only, would be like forcing the youngster to stand when it can only creep. To mothers and women who know children the effort to check 'baby talk' is only another of the questionable steps toward making children 'grown-upg.'"

A Union Suit that Can't Gap in the

Men have long recognized the un-equalled summer comfort of the union suit. With no drawers to slip down, and no shirt to "bunch up," heat irritation disappears. But union suits have had one drawback. If they had a flap seat it would gap; if a buttoned-up seat it would bind in the crotch. By banishing these union suit discomforts, the Superior Union Suit became famous. This was done with a seat that can't gap because it is interlocked, like the ends of a col-lar; that can't bind in the crotch because it has no buttons to prevent free move-ment. For real summer comfort, wear the Superior, the Perfect Union Suit. Most good dealers have it. $1 to $5.

S. R. MCKELVIE, Candidate for Lieut.-Governor,

Born and Reared on a Nebraska Farm Publisher of The Bebraska Farmer - "Nebraska's Real Form Paper!"

His wide acquaintance through his publication of the Nebraska Farmer, and his activity in the legislature last winter, will be strong factors in his favor, and we predict that the fact of his being a Clay Center product, and the high standing of the McKelvie family here, will make his name a house-boid word among our people.—Clay Center Sun.

S. R. McKelvie has filed for the republican nom-ination for lieutenant governor. He is young in years but old in business experience. He was one of the youngest members of the last legislature, and he made a splendid record. His chances for secur-ing the nomination are growing better every day.— Hastings Tribune. ing the nomination

He is the first candidate to make a formal declaration for that office on that ticket. He is identified with the progressive element of his party. Mr. McKelvie served in the last legislature from Lancaster county, being one of the youngest house members. He was identified with all mensures before the legislature affecting agricultural interests. He also introduced and pushed a bill to appropriate $25,000 for state advertising, but did not succeed in getting it passed. Some years ago Mr. McKelvie was a member of the Lincoin city council, holding that place for a part of one term.
